IT'S FINALLY GETTING EASIER!

US to ease travel restrictions • Fully vaccinated visitors from UK and EU to be allowed entry from November • PM 'delighted' with surprise news

The US is easing its coronavirus travel restrictions, re-opening to passengers from the UK, EU and other nations.

From November, foreign travellers will be allowed to fly into the US if they are fully vaccinated, and undergo testing and contact tracing.

The US has had tough restrictions on travel in place since early last year.

The move answers a major demand from European allies, and means that families separated by the restrictions can be reunited.

White House Covid-19 coordinator Jeff Zients announced the new rules on Monday, saying: "This is based on individuals rather than a country-based approach, so it's a stronger system."

new rules

"Most importantly, foreign nationals flying to the US will be required to be fully vaccinated," he said.

US restrictions were initially imposed on travellers from China in early 2020, and then extended to other countries.

The current rules bar entry to most non-US citizens who have been in the UK, EU, China, India, South Africa, Iran and Brazil within the last 14 days.

Under the new rules, foreign travellers will need to demonstrate proof of vaccination, have a negative Covid-19 test result and provide contact information. They will not be required to quarantine.

Officials said there would be some exceptions to the new policy, including for children who are not eligible to be vaccinated.

It was not immediately clear if the new rules applied only to US-approved vaccines, with Mr Zients saying this would be determined by the US Centers for Disease Control.

restrictions

Americans who are not fully vaccinated will still be able to enter, but they will need to be tested before their return to the US, and after they arrive home.

The new rules do not apply to land borders, meaning that restrictions continue to apply to cross-border travel with Canada and Mexico.

The easing of travel

BOOM TIMES AHEAD? airline shares rose sharply on this week's news rules came as a surprise to many, after the US government last week said it was not the right time to lift the restrictions.

One British official on Monday said that the decision had come completely out of the blue.

Following the announcement, UK Prime Minister Boris Johnson said he was "delighted".

"It's a fantastic boost for business and trade, and great that family and friends on both sides of the pond can be reunited once again," he wrote on Twitter.

'science-based'

German Vice-Chancellor Olaf Scholz also welcomed the change, saying it was "great news for German and European investments, our exports and transatlantic relations".

Airline shares rose in response to the new travel rules, with British Airways owner IAG up as much as 10%.

Virgin Atlantic chief executive Shai Weiss called the move "a major milestone" for travel recovery.

Doug Parker, chairman and CEO of American Airlines, said he welcomed the "sciencebased approach" to lifting travel restrictions.

"With the shared goals of health and safety always at the forefront, we're looking forward to welcoming more customers back to easy, seamless international trips for business, for leisure, and to reconnect with family and friends," he said.

The US has recorded more than 42 million coronavirus cases since the pandemic began, and over 670,000 deaths.

In an interview with BBC World News on Monday, White House coronavirus adviser Dr Anthony Fauci urged more Americans to get vaccinated.

PRINCE ANDREW: the pressure continues to build

Anxious Andrew ponders firing high-priced legal team

PRINCE Andrew has held crisis talks with his inner circle over dismissing his legal team, sources claim.

The Duke of York is understood to be dissatisfied with their strategy of not publicly responding to damaging sex assault claims as he battles to save his battered reputation.

Andrew, 61, hired criminal defence solicitor Gary Bloxsome, a partner at Blackfords law firm, just weeks after his disastrous Newsnight interview in which he responded to Virginia Giuffre's claims he had sex with her when she was 17.

When Ms Giuffre

launched a civil lawsuit against him in the US last month alleging Andrew sexually assaulted her on three occasions in 2001, he implored his team to make a statement refuting her claims. But it is understood he was overruled.

A source close to him said: "The plan has been shambolic from the start. Now it's all come to a head.

"He's extremely worried and the crisis talks are so he can get off the back foot. He knows he's in a full-on crisis.

"The damage to his reputation is there for all to see but now he's feeling the pressure from his family, though none of them have become directly involved.

"The whole thing's a disaster."

Ms Giuffre claims she was forced to have sex with Andrew while allegedly being trafficked by the Duke's paedophile friend, disgraced financier Jeffrey Epstein, who killed himself in jail in 2019.

Damaging

Andrew, who has vigorously denied the claims, fears he could face a legal bill reaching millions of pounds in a battle that could drag on for years.

Royal sources have suggested Palace officials cont. on page 4, col. 1

Harry Dunn's parents reach settlement with woman suspected of killing their son

Charlotte Charles and Tim Dunn, the parents of Harry Dunn, flew to the US for parts of the civil case in Virginia

The parents of Harry Dunn have reached a "resolution" in a civil claim for damages with the woman alleged to have killed him, the family's spokesman has said.

Mr Dunn, 19, died when his motorbike was hit by a car driven by US citizen Anne Sacoolas near RAF Croughton, Northamptonshire, in 2019.

She later left the country, claiming diplomatic immunity.

Dunn family spokesman Radd Seiger said the outcome was "a real milestone".

Details agreement reached between the parties involved in the civil case have not been disclosed. Mrs Sacoolas's collided with the teenager's motorbike moments after she left the US base, where her husband Jonathan worked for intelligence agency.

'courage'

The teenager's parents, Charlotte Charles and Tim Dunn, brought the civil claim against Mrs Sacoolas in the US state of Virginia.

The Alexandria
District Court in Virginia heard Mr and Mrs Sacoolas' work in intelligence was a "factor" in their departure from the UK,
as they left for "security

Anne Sacoolas fled the UK following Harry's death, claiming diplomatic immunity reasons".

Mrs Sacoolas, 44, and her husband were due to give evidence last month but it was postponed.

Mr Seiger said Mr Dunn's parents would now be able to "put this part of the campaign behind them".

He said: "The family's courage and determination to see this through has been incredible"

In December 2020, the Crown Prosecution Service authorized Northamptonshire Police to charge Mrs Sacoolas with causing death by dangerous driving.

An extradition request for Mrs Sacoolas to be brought to the UK was rejected by the US government.

However, the UK authorities are continuing to press for her to return to the UK to face the criminal charge.

Mr Seiger said the family would now turn its "attention to the criminal case and the long-awaited inquest into Harry's death which will follow the criminal case".

Foreign Secretary Liz Truss raised Mr Dunn's case with the US Secretary of State Antony Blinken during the United Nations General Assembly on Monday.

Speaking on the train to Washington where she will meet with Joe Biden, Ms Truss said the resolution of the civil case was "absolutely not" the end of efforts to get Mrs Sacoolas to return to the UK.

"We continue to press for justice for Harry," she said.

Tributes flow for footballer and pundit Jimmy Greaves

■ Former Spurs, Chelsea and AC Milan striker still holds the record for most goals in the English top flight

JIMMY Greaves' family say they have been overwhelmed by the messages of love for the England and Tottenham Hotspur legend after he died yesterday, aged 81.

His son Danny said: "The love and support that has poured out for Dad has been incredible. It has been unbelievable, overwhelming."

The 56-year-old added that the family had imagined his reunion with England's World Cup-winning captain Bobby Moore, who died in 1993.

Danny said: "Dad will be upstairs now having a pint with Bobby Moore." Jimmy began his career with Chelsea before spells at AC Milan, Spurs and West Ham.

He scored 44 goals in 57 games for England and was part of the 1966 World Cup- winning squad.

He holds the record for most goals in the English top flight with 357 and scored 266 in 379 matches for Tottenham, winning two FA Cups and one Cup Winners' Cup.

His 41 goals in 1960-61 remains a record in a season for Chelsea, and he also holds the Spurs record with 37 in 1962-63.

A Tottenham statement said: "We are extremely saddened to learn of the passing of the great Jimmy Greaves, not just Tottenham Hotspur's record goalscorer but the finest marksman this country has ever seen. Jimmy passed away at home in the early hours of this morning, aged 81."

Addiction

The former player and popular TV pundit – one half of the Saint And Greavsie show with Ian St John – remains fourth on the list of all-time England goalscorers, behind Wayne Rooney (53), Sir Bobby Charlton (49) and Gary Lineker (48).

He struggled with alcoholism but beat his addiction and was still working in 2015 when he suffered a huge stroke that robbed him of his ability to walk and talk.

Jimmy was awarded an MBE in 2021 after a long campaign to honour him. He leaves behind wife Irene, 81, four children Lynn, 61, Mitzi, 59, Danny and Andrew, 54, along with 10 grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Prime Minister Boris Johnson tweeted: "Sad to hear the news about Jimmy Greaves. He will be remembered as a goalscoring legend and one of the greats of English football."

England captain Harry Kane, Spurs' second highest scorer behind Jimmy, said he was a "true legend".

England manager Gareth Southgate confirmed that the Three Lions will put on a special tribute in their October internationals.

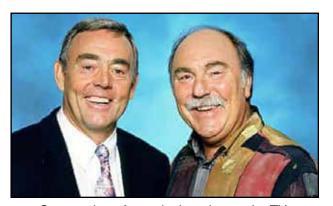

Greaves scored 266 goals in 379 games for Spurs

He said: "Iimmy Greaves was who was admired by all who love football, regardless of club allegiances. privileged to meet Jimmy's family last year at Tottenham as the club marked his 80th birthday. Jimmy deserves inclusion in any list of England's best players. His place in our history will never be forgotten."

Sir Geoff Hurst paid tribute to his former teammate, saying: "One of the truly great goalscorers, terrific guy with an absolutely brilliant sense of humour, the best."

Born in Newham, east London, Jimmy became a goalscoring phenomenon. He was called into Sir Alf Greaves later formed a hugely popular TV partnership with fellow football pundit lan St. John Ramsey's 1966 World Cup squad and started the tournament but was injured in the group stages and lost his place to Sir Geoff who famously scored a hat- trick in the 4-2 final win over West Germany.

Ex-Three Lions defender Rio Ferdinand posted: "First autobiography I ever read! Inspiration."

And former Arsenal star Ian Wright said: "The first footballer's name I heard from my teacher." Ex-Spurs star and Match Of The Day presenter Gary Lineker called Jimmy "possibly the greatest striker this country has produced".

French and Saunders back on tour?

COMEDY duo French and Saunders have delighted fans by hinting they will tour for the first time in 13 years.

Dawn French and Jennifer Saunders, both 63, last took to the stage for their so-called farewell tour in 2008.

The comedy duo now say they could do live sketches again, if they have strong material.

Talking on their podcast, Jennifer said: "I sort of would [tour], in a way. If you've got the energy and if you've got the show."

Dawn agreed, saying: "If we can think of something to do that would entertain people we could."

But Vicar Of Dibley star Dawn admitted she would not be the most dynamic stage presence, adding: "We would have to mainly be sitting.

"I would jig about, when I've had my arthritic knee replaced."

Jennifer added: "The great thing about being on tour is when you're on stage no one can see how old you are really.

"Unless you've got a hunchback." But Dawn argued: "Bless you for being so deluded. "I think just you can't see because you haven't got your glasses on."

The Bafta winners did admit that improvising has proved "quite difficult" for them so a script will be necessary.

"We've never been ourselves," Jennifer said. "We're not stand-ups, and that's the truth."

Jennifer and Dawn's self-titled comedy sketch show ran from 1987 to 2017 on BBC One and Two.

Triumphant night for British talent at the Emmys

■ The Crown leads the charge with seven gongs as Brits take home more than half the coveted TV awards

THE Crown reigned supreme at the Emmys as British talent dominated US television's prized awards this week.

More than half of the gongs went to UK stars, who won 14 of the 27 prestigious trophies.

Hollywood bowed to the Netflix hit which scooped seven awards including Outstanding Drama Series at the 73rd Primetime Emmys in Los Angeles.

Olivia Colman, who played Queen Elizabeth, landed Lead Actress in a Drama Series, while Josh O'Connor won Lead Actor for his Prince Charles.

There were Supporting Actor nods for Gillian Anderson, for her portrayal of Margaret Thatcher, and Tobias Menzies, who was Prince Philip.

Olivia, 47, said: "What a lovely end to the most extraordinary journey with this lovely family. I loved every second."

One of the most popular wins was for Michaela Coel, the British actress, writer and director, who won Outstanding Writing for a Limited Series for the sexual consent drama The 45-year-old star paid tribute to her fellow actors, saying: "I want to acknowledge my fellow nominees in this decade that has to be about women having each other's backs. I salute you, I am proud of all of you."

Ewan McGregor landed his first Emmy as Lead Actor in a Limited Series for Halston, the Netflix drama which tells the story of Seventies fashion designer Roy Halston.

There was more British success as US-produced Ted Lasso was named are "more than concerned" that the lack of a public statement is damaging the monarchy.

Andrew was forced to step back from royal life in 2019 after the BBC interview.

Insiders say Princes Charles and William are reluctant to stage a direct intervention, but have "privately expressed disquiet" over the latest round of damaging headlines concerning Andrew's legal woes.

Meanwhile, the Duke is understood to have sought private advice from his long-term friend and adviser Paul Tweed, a libel lawyer.

His ex-wife Sarah, Duchess of York is willing to "back him to the hilt", sources suggest.

The High Court in London last week accepted a request by Ms Giuffre's legal team to formally contact Andrew about the legal proceedings.

It is understood his team are contesting the decision and have continually attempted to thwart efforts to serve official papers which would spark a 21-day time frame for him to respond.

I May Destroy You.

Michaela, 33, said: "I dedicate this story to every single survivor of sexual assault."

She also spurred on aspiring writers, telling them: "Write the tale that scares you, that makes you feel uncertain, that isn't comfortable, I dare you."

Kate Winslet was named Outstanding Lead Actress in a Limited Series for her acclaimed performance as a small town detective in gritty Sky murder drama Mare Of Easttown. Outstanding Comedy and swept the acting prizes. UK stars Hannah Waddingham, 47, and Brett Goldstein, 41, won the Supporting Actress and Actor awards for the Apple TV+ show which follows a smalltime US football coach who moves to London to rescue a fictional Premier League team.

Creator and leading man Jason Sudeikis picked up the gong for Outstanding Actor.

The Queen's Gambit took home Outstanding Limited Series.

GOOD VALUE AS MONEYPENNY: Naomie Harris

Harris shines in latest Bond outing

NAOMIE Harris has been making headlines this week in the UK for her impressive turn as Miss Moneypenny in the latest James Bond film.

Naomie's turn as an "intelligent and capable" black woman has been "highly important" in inspiring young talent.

The star makes her third 007 film appearance as secretary to MI6 boss M in No Time To Die, Daniel Craig's final outing as the

The 45-year-old said it is a "privilege" to play a role showing female strength.

She told Radio Times: 'Growing up as a black woman, on-screen images and representations were so few and far between, so to play such an intelligent and capable woman who can inspire other women and young women – is hugely important.

Influential "It's a role

I have always wanted to play and it has meant so much to me.

"The film is part of British culture and that's why it's so influential. To play a role that shows the strength of women is a privilege."

Naomie also played Nelson Mandela's firebrand wife Winnie, in 2013 biopic Mandela: Long Walk To Freedom alongside Idris Elba.

She said the strength of women on and off screen had changed the industry since the start of the Me Too movement.

Naomie added: "After decades of abuse of women within the film industry, there has been a complete culture shift, over...a matter of five years. Now you get producers at the start of a shoot saying, 'There will be zero tolerance of any bullying or harassment here'. It's a completely different environment."

Adela takes to the 'Gram to confirm latest love

ADELE appears to have made her romance with US sports agent Rich Paul official with an Instagram snap.

The chart-topping singer, 33, shared a photo of them together in a photobooth (right), captioning the image with a heart emoji.

The post was liked more than 1.5 million times in an hour.

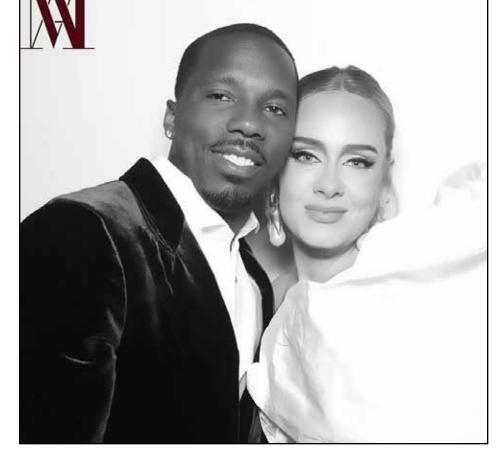

London-born Adele and Rich, 39, based in Cleveland, Ohio, have been linked in recent months.

The singer had also posted photos of the pair attending basketball star Anthony Davis's wedding together, with Adele wearing a monochrome Schiaparelli dress.

Rich is the founder of management company Klutch Sports Group, which represents highprofile basketball stars, including LeBron James.

Adele announced her split from charity boss Simon Konecki, 47, in April 2019.

finalized last March, with the pair sharing custody of their eight- year-old son Angelo.

She has also made headlines for her weight loss, sharing pictures on social media of her slimmer figure while living in the US.

The singer lost seven stone last year, and joked she had halved in size.

Adele has not released an album since 2015's 25. But she has confirmed she is working on new material. Her fourth album was reportedly due to be released last year but delayed by the pandemic.

Her best-known hits include Rumour Has It and Someone Like You.

NOTICE OFPETITION TO AD-MINISTER ESTATE OF DAN-IEL ZANGWILL aka DANIEL ZANGWELL

Case No. 21STPB08582

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of DANIEL ZANGWILL aka DANIEL ZANGWELL

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Lori Ann Harvey aka Loretta Ann Zangwell in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Lori Ann Harvey aka Loretta Ann Zangwell be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Oct. 26, 2021 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 2D located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the

Brits in LA

Oh, the normality!

Fully vaccinated Brits can visit the US starting in November • From October 4th, UK will no longer require pre-flight testing

Finally...some good news for Brits traveling to the US.

The White House announced on Monday that from early November (actual date TBC) all fully vaccinated Brits can fly directly to the USA. Until then it is only Green Card holders and citizens only.

As you can imagine this has caused a flurry of excitement amongst Brits in LA members. So many heart- warming tales were shared of babies born during lockdown who can now finally have their British grandparents visit, and many members here on work visas who were unable to leave the US for the last 18 months as coming back was close to impossible. One step closer to normality!

But in the meantime the various hurdles will stav in place. It wasn't until this week that I discovered just how tricky and confusing it is to maneuver the current system. I am one of the fortunate ones that have both British and American passports, so have always been able to come and go as I please. But I have not had reason to do so until this month. Regular readers of this column will know that my mum is in her 80s and her health goes up and down. Recently it has been more down than up, so rather than worry about her from afar I decided it was time for a visit. Not quite realizing that even as a dual citizen it is not quite as simple as it should

I've been following all of the posts on our Facebook travel forum and have often been bemused by how similar questions are asked over and over again. Now I know why....it is really, really confusing!

The airline websites haven't updated their testing requirements for weeks and the government sites are not much better. After much foraging and scrutinizing of the various posts and comments, I discovered that I didn't have to pay hundreds of dollars to be tested, and could use the services of various test sites that are either covered by your insurance or available for free if you have no health coverage - this includes designated CVS pharmacies and the pop ups provided by LA County. For info, visit: covid19.lacounty.gov/ testing.

Finding an available appointment that also fits in to the 72 hour window before flight departure (or is it within 3 days prior? That bit I am still unsure of...), was not as easy as I thought. So as soon as you know when you are flying - before the rules change again on October 4th - book an appointment! And make sure that you can get the results back before you fly.

I was vaguely aware that the quantity of flights had been scaled back due to the current restrictions, but I didn't realize just how slim the pickings really were. We all mourned when the Air New Zealand's LAX to LHR option was scrapped in March 2020, but I had no idea until this week that United Airlines aren't currently offering a direct flight at the moment either.

Thankfully Virgin and American/BA are - although tickets are not cheap, even with air miles. It really is a minefield of worry. I can completely relate to the angst-filled posts that have been monopolizing our social media. I have been Hi Guys, after the new update a few days ago I thought all PCR tests were finished, Im obviously wrong.
Can someone please tell me if you have to take a covid test before you leave the US, day 2 and before you return? Im a US citizen.
I thought read in the daily mail the other day all tests were finished, I feel as though Im losing it. Fully vaxed and heading from NY to London Oct 11 - do I still need to get a pre flight test Where's the best place in London to get your test done 72 hours before Just looking for confirmation I'm doing this right as it's all very daunting constantly thinking of the forms I need to fill out and the tests I am required to take, feeling frustrated by the time restrictions.

I've had several moments where I slightly panic that I booked the wrong test or forgot to submit some information. Ultimately it is the fear of the unknown, not to mention the fear of being denied boarding after paying an extortionate fare.

Many of you have been recommending smart phone apps that help you through this process-ultimately a virtual checklist/filing system that means you don't have to fumble with forms at the airport. Our editor used Verifly for his recent trip to Europe and back on American Airlines and reports it was a seamless experience, and while it only gets 2.3 stars on the Apple App Store, several Brits in LA members are also raving about it; so seeing as I am due to fly this weekend I thought I should check it

My Tips: don't download this app last minute - give yourself a bit of time to familiarize yourself with it as it wasn't quite as straight forward as I expected. I recommend you take a look at least 3 days before your departure. And be prepared to have to take a selfie for verification- no you can't upload that flattering picture of you that garnered 120 likes on Instagram last week, it has to be the way you look at this moment in time. Hence I put the verification process on pause for a few hours, as after a long day gardening in the hot sun I wasn't at all 'ready for my close up'.

I look nothing like my passport picture or how I

We hear good things about the Verifly app (above), but not all airlines use it visualize my appearance when I check in - and even if that's irrelevant I don't think I want my tired-looking face to be captured for posterity, but I do try to remind myself that in 10 years time I will be grateful to look as I do today, tired or not, but my vanity can't help but get in the way.

Also: (very important) check the airline you are flying with accepts the app. Unlike me, who started the Verifly process only to find that Virgin Atlantic have their own portal, which is VirginAtlantic Fly Ready - aka TrustAssureTM. Check virginatlantic.com for the upload your 'preflight/ taken within in 72 hours' (or is it 3 days?) test result both digital or a photo of the printed result are apparently acceptable.

At first glance it seems pretty straightforward. Just enter your name and your booking reference

You will have to wait until next time to find out if it really is that simple or too good to be true, as at the time of writing this I am 24 hours away from being tested! But by the looks of it (thankfully) I don't think I have to take an impromptu photo... phew!

Please get in touch if you have any comments or suggestions on this or anything else, or if you just want to reassure me that I am not alone in being confused by all of this..

Stargazing with Annie Shaw

ARIES: Your boss Mars is getting ready to move forward opposite you. The windows of opportunities will open wider. Although nothing will be a slam dunk until mid-October, you should be at least planning.

TAURUS: For most folks having being somewhat isolated has been a problem and while you have had your moments of frustration you got over it. However, currently you should be preparing for action stations coming soon.

GEMINI: The best way for you busy people is to really look at how many times you got through difficult situations. So do not put off anything that needs action now. Your boss Mercury is going on a slow track this week and it's best to be prepared.

CANCER: You should be getting plans organized for the early part of the week ahead. Just don't be worried if life is still on hold for you. Mercury starts backtracking soon and will bring some completion of your plans.

LEO: You should know by now in this present environment that the greatest gift you can give to others (as well as yourself) is patience. You will be buzzing around like a busy bee and making some good space in your life for new beginnings soon.

VIRGO: So just when you are ready to get going in life again along comes your boss Mercury slowly swimming backwards. There's not much you can achieve until the middle of October. This is a universal happening and you are not alone.

LIBRA: Trying to get moving through a pile of mud is the general atmosphere out there recently. Well, get on your working cap and dig yourself out. Change starts slowly, beginning early next week. Happy Birthday!

SCORPIO: You should be working on a health and fitness plan currently. Your boss is coming soon for a visit and will assist you this month ahead. He can greatly assist you if you stick to your plan to get to your goals. Moves are coming. SAGITTARIUS: Be sure you don't speak out in a combative way over a tense situation these next few days. It's not a bad situation, however since others are trying to control things it's best to keep silent.

You will get to speak your word later next week.

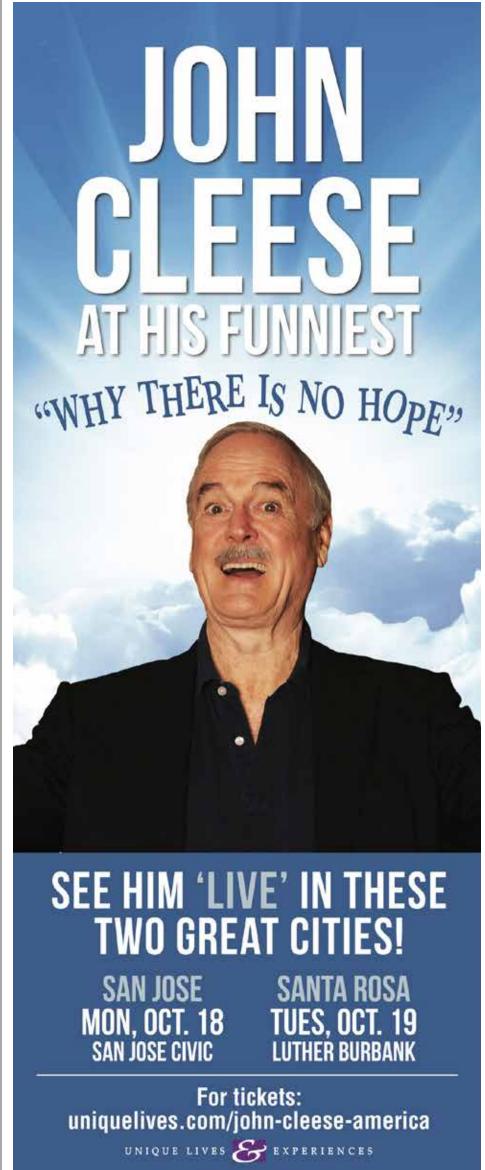

CAPRICORN: Some easing up of the recent family or personal situation is happening or soon will be.

Better to keep out of it for now. Pluto is going forward next week and that brings better energy for you.

AQUARIUS: The current times are reasonable good for you due to your boss Uranus in solid earthy Taurus. However some days you could feel like you are on a roller coaster. You are getting ready for a move of sorts soon.

PISCES: You are getting ready to socialize and it's not surprising because of the force of the recent full moon in your sign. Get ready for positive action heading your way very soon.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF NAOMI WELIKSON

Case No. 21STPB07991

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of NAOMI WELIKSON

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Juliet Weiss Saxe in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Juliet Weiss Saxe be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Nov. 2, 2021 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 4 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

early on as teenager Archer went through but fired over and Chelsea rarely troubled the visitors, Hakim Ziyech's low shot being comfortably saved by keeper Jed Steer.

Villa had the best chance of the first half in the 45th minute when Bertrand Traore threaded through a brilliant pass, Archer's shot was saved by Chelsea keeper Kepa and Anwar El Ghazi saw his follow-up shot cleared off the line by James.

Chelsea manager Thomas Tuchel had clearly seen enough and did the opposite to his last game, this time bringing on Mason Mount for N'Golo Kante rather than the other way round, which won the game at Tottenham on Sunday.

It was probably a preconceived idea to save Kante for Saturday's title showdown with Manchester City but Mount did give Chelsea more attacking threat.

Callum Hudson-Odoi went close as he drove forward and saw a low cross shot well saved by Steer. James' cross to the back post was an open invitation for Werner, who rose unchallenged to give Chelsea a 54thminute lead.

Two minutes later, the Germany forward went through but dragged his shot wide.

They were made to pay eight minutes later when Villa leveled, Matt Cash's cross finding Archer, the home-grown youngster heading past Kepa.

El Ghazi had a great chance to put Villa ahead but fired at Kepa, who also denied substitute Jaden Philogene-Bidace.

We Kane win: skipper sends Spurs through

TOTTENHAM got that winning feeling back just in time for their big Premier League clash at Arsenal on Sunday, needing penalties to edge past Wolves on Wednesday night the teams fought to a 2-2 stalemate.

The hosts made a hash of their shoot-out, sending Spurs through to the fourth-round when Conor Coady smashed against the bar.

break, Sancho hooking an effort over, while Diogo Dalot lashed a low effort wide.

Greenwood came on for Mata and almost scored with his first touch, Areola saving smartly. Hammers had two late chances to wrap up the game, Yarmolenko hitting a post and Noble shooting straight at keeper Dean Henderson when clean through.

There were also misses from Ruben Neves, who shot over, and Leander Dendoncker, who had his saved

Harry Kane might still be looking for his first Premier League goal of the season but he is not lost his touch in the cup. He scored one and was left shaking his head in disbelief as keeper John Ruddy managed to keep his close -range header out with one hand. Kane is under the most intense scrutiny of his career largely courtesy of his failed effort to force a move to Manchester City in the summer.

Spurs got off to a great start with Tanguy Ndombele putting them ahead in the 14th minute with a great finish after he had charged down a Coady clearance. He surged through, kept Willy Boly at arms length and turned keeper Ruddy before slipping the ball in.

Coady had been brought on as a 10th-minute substitute for debutant

HAPPY RETURNS AT LAST FOR MOYES

CARABAO CUP MAN UTD.....0 WEST HAM.....1

MOYES DAVID finally won against Manchester United - at the ninth time of asking since he was sacked as Old Trafford manager.

And in the process the West Ham boss blocked another route towards a first trophy in charge of United for Ole Gunnar Solskjaer.

The Hammers deserved it in a battle of the second strings as Moyes' men withstood a second-half onslaught to book their place in the fourth round of the Carabao Cup on Wednesday night.

Victory for Hammers was revenge Sunday's 2-1 Premier League defeat at the London Stadium, when Mark Noble missed an added-time penalty.

The Carabao Cup was the last domestic trophy United won, under Jose Mourinho in 2017.

West Ham boss is finally a winner at Old Trafford wait another year at least to do so.

Not even introduction of Bruno Fernandes and Mason Greenwood could save the tie

United made 11 changes, with Cristiano Ronaldo not even in the squad - no doubt disappointing a 72,468 crowd.

The first chance fell to the visitors after just two minutes, Andriy cutting Yarmolenko the ball back for Jarrod Bowen, who dragged his shot wide.

Four minutes later, a shot from Alex Kral took a deflection off Eric Bailly, and United were still in disarray at the back two minutes later when Hammers took the lead.

Ryan Fredericks danced past Alex Telles and cut the ball back for Manuel Lanzini to apply a clinical first-time finish.

The goal served to jolt Solskjaer's side into life, with Jesse Lingard unlucky not to be awarded a penalty after Noble clearly grabbed hold of his shirt and yanked him down as he prepared to shoot.

Moments later, Juan Mata thudded the bar with a ferocious angled strike as United woke up.

Fredericks injured himself in the process, falling down the steep camber on the edge of the pitch, and was replaced by Vladimir Coufal.

Lingard tested Alphonse Areola with a low 25-yard strike just before the halfhour, but the West Ham keeper was equal to the task, saving low to his right.

Breaking Villa hearts: Reece James

Chelsea into Carabao Cup fourth round after a dramatic penalty shoot-out at Stamford Bridge.

England defender James stepped up to win a thrilling tie with Chelsea's fifth spot-kick as Aston Villa suffered heartbreak.

Lukaku, Romelu Mason Mount and Ross Barkley were also on target but Ben Chilwell missed his spot kick.

Anwar El Ghazi, Ezri Konsa and Emilano

Buendia were on target for Villa but Chelsea's Arrizabalaga Kepa saved from Marvelous Nakamba, while Ashlev Young crashed his shot against the bar.

It was rough luck on Villa, who more than played their part as they fought back from Timo Werner's opener with Cameron Archer levelling but it took penalties to separate the teams. Villa had the edge
