“Cancel Christmas” Andy orders as net closes in

■ Prince “totally consumed” with legal battle, claim Royal sources

Prince Andrew has ordered his US legal team to “cancel Christmas” and prepare for a key court date in his sexual assault case.

The Duke of York has instructed his legal team to “leave no stone unturned” in the lead up to the January 4 hearing, described as his “last ditch attempt” to get allegations he abused a teenage girl thrown out.

Royal sources say he is “totally consumed” with the legal battle and has been staying up into the night to keep in constant conversation with his California-based lawyers. Next Monday they are set to deliver their final submissions to the New York court before a decision is taken in the new year as to whether the Duke will face a full trial.

Virginia Giuffre is pursuing Andrew through the civil courts. He is accused of “rape in the first degree” amid claims he forced Ms Giuffre, also known as Virginia Roberts, to have sex with him three times in 2001 while she was trafficked around the world by the royal’s late paedophile pal Jeffrey Epstein.

In August she sued the Queen’s son for unspecified damages which could run into millions of pounds if she is successful. Sources close to the Duke say he has become “incredibly stressed” in recent weeks after fearing his team’s strategy of not publicly responding to the claims is failing.

‘tension’

Insiders also suggest he is extremely worried over the financial burden he has placed on the Queen, who agreed to personally meet his spiralling court costs, which could run into millions. Prince Andrew has denied the claims.

One source close to Andrew said: “The tension in the camp is palpable. No one is really sure what Andrew’s involvement is other than asking a lot of questions, but he spends his days and nights poring over documents.

“He is totally consumed by it, keeping most irregular working hours so he can be in contact with his team.

“He was particularly stressed a few days ago and was heard remonstrating with one of the team. The feeling was he was telling them to effectively cancel Christmas and get totally across all the eventualities of what could happen in the case so there are, as he put it, ‘no more surprises’.

“It’s very much a last ditch attempt to get the case thrown out and if that doesn’t succeed he knows they are all potentially in it for the long haul.”

deadline

The Duke’s team want the “baseless lawsuit” thrown out, claiming Virginia Giuffre is looking to “achieve another payday at his expense”. Court documents filed on behalf of her lawyers condemned Andrew, 61, for launching a “baseless, defamatory” attack on her credibility, character and motives.

Andrew’s team must meet Monday’s deadline

WINTER’S COMING: Andrew is said to be ‘extremely worried’ over the financial burden he has placed on the Queen, to file a further response before the New York district judge Lewis Kaplan rules on the next stage.

The judge has said he is targeting a date for trial between October to December 2022. Prince Andrew has hired Hollywood lawyer Andrew Brettler from the £1,500-an-hour firm Lavelly and Singer to represent him.

IN THE LATEST embarrassing development for the royal family, a photograph of Ghislaine Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein cozied up at the Queen’s log cabin in Glen Beg on the Balmoral estate has been shown as evidence

Christmas parties leave enduring hangover for Boris

■ Inquiry launched as claims grow that Tories flouted lockdown rules in several parties in 2020

BORIS JOHNSON'S recent political difficulties look likely to blossom into a winter of discontent as concern grows over allegations that Christmas parties at Downing Street last year flouted Covid lockdown rules.

Although the Prime Minister initially attempted to brush aside the allegations, they will not go away, and now an official investigation into government staff parties is set to focus on three events that took place in 2020, Downing Street parties on 27 November and 18 December, and one at the education department on 10 December.

Paymaster General Michael Ellis said any potential criminality uncovered would be reported to the police.

Labour called for the prime minister to resign if he is found to have misled MPs about the parties.

Shadow Cabinet Office minister Fleur Anderson questioned whether the investigation was "serious" and whether more parties needed to be included in it.

Boris Johnson announced

Wednesday that an inquiry would be carried out by top civil servant Simon Case, after a video from last year emerged of government staff joking about a party that took place on 18 December - a day on which more than 400 Covid deaths were reported.

Government spokeswoman Allegra Stratton resigned later on Wednesday over the video, obtained by ITV News, in which she appeared.

'absence of evidence'

And Labour has called for Commons Leader Jacob Rees-Mogg to apologise after joking at an event on Monday that those attending would not be "investigated by the police in a year's time".

The Metropolitan Police has ruled out an investigation for the time being into the 18 December Downing Street gathering, citing an "absence of evidence" of any criminal wrongdoing.

On Wednesday, Mr Johnson said he had been "repeatedly assured" that "there was no party and that no Covid rules were broken" on that date - at which time London was under Covid rules banning people from meeting indoors.

But he said he had asked Mr Case to "establish all the facts" and that if rules had been broken those responsible would face disciplinary action.

The 10 December gathering took place during the same period of restrictions, while on 27 November England was in full lockdown.

Mr Ellis told the House of Commons on Thursday: "The primary purpose of the cabinet secretary's investigation will be to establish swiftly a general understanding of the nature of the gatherings, including attendance, the setting and the purpose, and with reference to adherence to the guidance in place at the time."

He added: "As with all internal investigations if, during the course of the work any evidence emerges of behaviour that is potentially a criminal offence, the matter will be referred to the police and the Cabinet Office's work may be paused."

Mr Ellis also said: "All ministers, special advisers and civil

Johnson could be left relying on Labour support to win a Covid vote next week servants will be expected to cooperate with this investigation."

But Mr Case will not look into reports of social gatherings in Downing Street on 13 November or a party at Conservative

Party headquarters on 14 December, over which four members of staff have been disciplined.

Government faces Tory backbench revolt over plan B Covid measures

UK: new coronavirus cases per day

Downing Street is facing a damaging revolt over planned Covid restrictions after dozens of Tory backbenchers threatened to rebel or abstain in fury over the proposed new rules and Boris Johnson's handling of the Christmas party scandal.

With at least 30 Conservative MPs already expected to vote against regulations on masks, home working and vaccine passports, and many more now vowing to stay away from Tuesday's vote, the prime minister could be left relying on Labour support to win.

Johnson is battling the fallout from days of successive revelations about a festive gathering inside No 10 amid tough Covid rules last December. An inquiry into the reports has been expanded to examine other alleged events, including one that Johnson is believed to have attended.

In further blow for the prime minister, a Survation survey for the Daily Mirror put Labour six percentage points ahead of the Conservatives, at 40% to 34%. A YouGov poll for the Times had Labour four points ahead on 37% to 33%.

Shortly after unveiling the review, Johnson announced he was introducing tougher "plan B" Covid restrictions for England because of the rapid spread of the Omicron variant - a move which Tory MPs say has instead magnified their annoyance and frustration.

The likely collision point will be next Tuesday, when MPs will vote on the restrictions, covering an extension to mandatory mask-wearing, advice to work from home and, most controversially, the introduction of Covid status certificates as a condition of entry to venues.

Scotland marks end to coal power as Longannet chimney is blown up

■ Nicola Sturgeon pushes button on controlled explosion at what was Scotland's largest freestanding structure

Scotland has marked the end of its coal-powered history by demolishing the huge chimney at its last remaining coal plant at Longannet in Fife.

The chimney, which was Scotland's largest freestanding structure, dominated the skyline for more than half a century before it was destroyed on Thursday morning with 1600lbs of explosives.

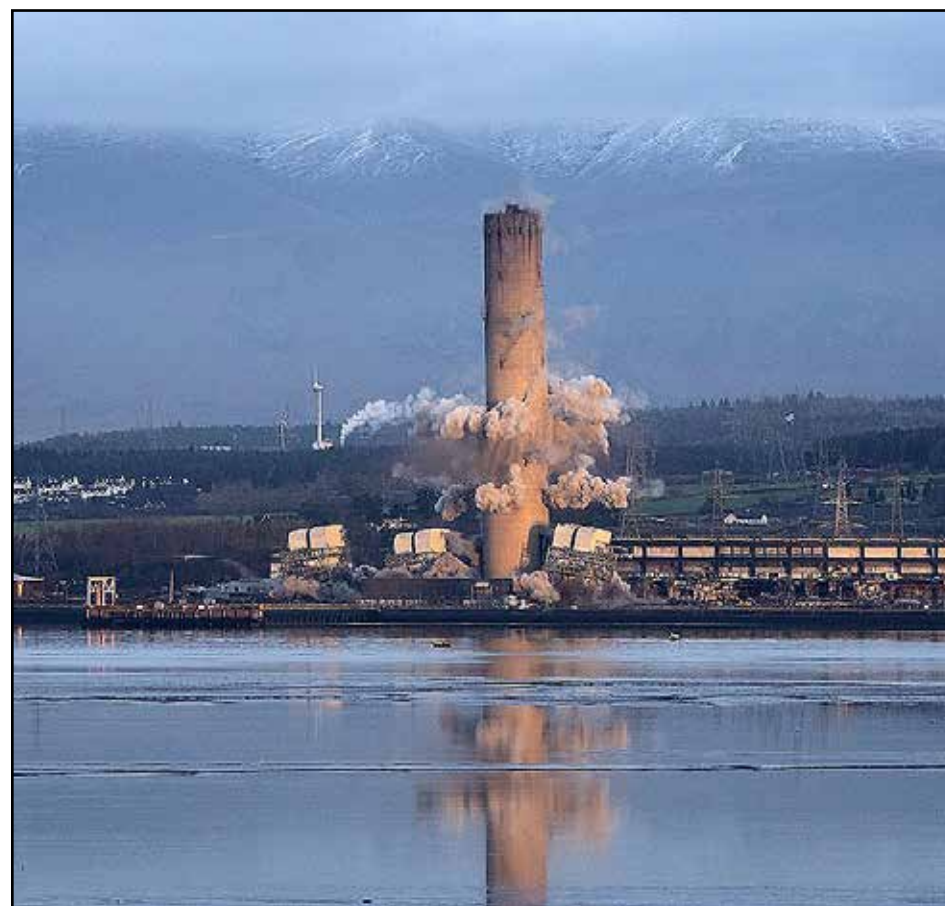

Scotland's first minister, Nicola Sturgeon, who pushed the ignition button on the controlled implosion, described the demolition as "a symbolic reminder that we have ended coal-fired power generation in Scotland, as we work in a fair and just way towards becoming a net zero nation by 2045".

The Longannet coal plant, which is owned by Scottish Power, was the largest of its kind in Europe when it began generating enough electricity to power a quarter of Scottish homes in 1970.

'transformative'

Almost half a century of power generation at the plant came to an end in 2016 when the energy company shut the site beside the Firth of Forth, drawing a line under the coal age that Prosecutors look to bolster their argument that the pair were so close, it stood to reason Maxwell participated in Epstein's abuse of underage girls from 1994 to 2004.

Maxwell faces six charges related to recruiting and grooming four underage girls, some as young as 14, for her once-boyfriend, Epstein. She has denied all charges. Throughout Maxwell's trial, powerful men who rode in Epstein's inner-circle have been named, including Prince Andrew, who retired from royal life due to his connection to Epstein.

The Duke of York stepped back from public life in 2019, which was when he first spoke publicly about his friendship with Epstein and allegations that he was involved in Epstein's child sex-trafficking scheme.

Virginia Roberts Giuffre claims she was trafficked by Maxwell, and forced to have sex with Prince Andrew three separate times when she was 17-years-old.

Giuffre is not testifying in Maxwell's trial, though other witnesses have recalled meeting her at Epstein's Palm Beach mansion, as well as aboard Epstein's private jet.

She has also filed a separate civil case against the Duke, who denies any involvement with her.

Epstein died by suicide in a Manhattan jail cell before he could stand trial on sex abuse charges.

Two years after Epstein's death behind bars, a 12-person jury plus six alternates were picked to determine whether Maxwell acted as Epstein's accomplice, or as a puppet, which is what her attorneys claim.

Sturgeon said Scotland aims to generate half of its overall energy consumption from renewable sources by 2030 by investing in renewables, hydrogen and energy storage to help tackle the climate crisis "in a way that leaves no one behind".

She said growth in these sectors over the next decade would be "transformative for Scotland, delivering further good, green jobs, strengthened energy security, and benefits for local communities".

Scottish Power, which is owned by the Spanish energy giant Iberdrola, ended its generation of fossil fuels in 2018 after selling off its last gas plants to Drax to focus on running wind and solar farms.

Keith Anderson, Scottish Power's chief executive, said the company had "bade farewell" to a landmark; "However, this is a landmark day for Scotland, too."

He said: "Watching the chimney of Scotland's last coal-fired station fall today represents a real milestone, as the UK moves away from the large polluting power stations of the past and accelerates down the road to net zero emissions."

The UK still has a handful of coal plants that generate electricity ahead of the government's 2024 ban on coal power. Drax continues to burn coal at two of its six generating units in North Yorkshire. There are also active coal plants at West Burton A in Lincolnshire, at Ratcliffe-on-Soar in Nottinghamshire, and at Kilroot in Northern Ireland.

Elton John backing protest against Qatar World Cup being promoted by pal David Beckham

■ Music legend and his husband David Furnish protest World Cup in Qatar, which his close friend Becks is reportedly being paid £10million to help promote.

Sir Elton John is backing a high-profile protest over the World Cup being held in Qatar next year.

Activist Peter Tatchell says the Middle Eastern country's record on human rights and LGBT issues should preclude it as host of football's top competition.

And he has revealed that football fan Sir Elton, 74, and husband David Furnish, 59, are supporting his fight.

Peter, 69, said: "Elton and David have been fantastic. We are hoping to work together over the Qatar World Cup.

"Elton is supporting my mission. I know he is concerned about the World Cup being held in Qatar.

"I will be liaising with him to ensure something significant happens to profile the abuse of human rights in that country. He is a good guy, Elton."

Peter said he was keeping details of the protest under wraps for now. He revealed: "Let's just say I will be doing something to raise awareness... but I will do what I do best.

'very unhappy'

"I mooted my idea with Elton and David sometime ago and I spoke to David and they are being supportive.

"Elton is a big football supporter and that is how he feels. I don't know if he will pay for the trip but it is in the early stages. He said he would be willing to help and support around Qatar."

The involvement of Sir Elton, who is the Honorary Life-President of Watford football club, could potentially put him at loggerheads with David Beckham.

The former England star is reportedly being paid £10million to help promote the competition.

Elton is godfather to Beckham's eldest two boys, Brooklyn and Romeo. Peter said: "I am very unhappy with David's decision to act as an ambassador for Qatar. He claims presumably he will be able to influence things from the inside but nobody previously has succeeded in doing that.

"I hope he will think again and perhaps start

Elton and David have backed the campaign to boycott Qatar putting some pressure on Qatar to deliver some reform."

Elton and David recently financed and executive produced the Netflix documentary Hating Peter Tatchell, which had its premiere last month in London.

Last month Elton said of Peter: "He has spent his life campaigning for human rights and especially equal rights for the LGBT community."

Diver and Olympic gold medallist Tom Daley also recently lashed out at the decision to hold the World Cup in Qatar.

Record number of children in Britain arrested over terror offences

■ Home Office figures show 25 under-18s arrested in year to September, mostly in relation to far-right ideology

A record number of children were arrested on suspicion of terror offences in Great Britain in the last year, a development that investigators have linked to the shutdown of schools during the early stages of the pandemic.

Figures released by the Home Office show there were 25 such arrests of under-18s in the 12 months to September, the majority in relation to far-right ideology.

This was an increase from 17 arrests the previous year. Under-18s accounted for 13% of all terror arrests last year, up from 8%.

"We are very concerned that children are becoming an increasing proportion of our arrests," said the deputy assistant commissioner Dean Haydon, the senior national coordinator for counter-terrorism policing.

pandemic-related

In February a 13-year-old neo-Nazi from Cornwall was found guilty of possessing bomb-making manuals and disseminating far-right materials online.

Last week a 17-year-old from Derbyshire appeared before Westminster magistrates charged with possessing and sharing a terrorist publication. A trial is expected next year.

Investigators highlighted the impact of pandemic-related school closures, arguing that educational settings help normalize behaviour, while schools regularly report cases of concern to Prevent, the government's deradicalization programme.

Loneliness during lockdowns and the ease with which young people with time on their hands can seek out extremist material online when not being supervised are also factors driving the rise in numbers, police believe. Some extremists are using Covid conspiracy theories and online gaming channels as a means of recruitment.

At the same time, restrictions on socialising

Investigators believe the rise is linked to the shutdown of schools during the early stages of the pandemic and movement helped push down the number of adult terrorism arrests by 13%, reflecting wider lockdown-related falls in crime.

late-stage plots

Officers said they wanted parents to be more aware of the risks and to be prepared to call in Prevent, which few currently do.

"Our research tells us that parents, family members and friends are the first to see the changes in behaviour which might indicate that a loved one is being radicalised," Haydon said. "But currently just 3% of people we help through Prevent come to the programme because of concerns raised by those same people who know them best."

He advised parents to seek advice from the Act Early scheme.

Counter-terrorism police said they had stopped 32 "late-stage" plots in the four years from 2017, an increase of one since September and four since March. Those uncovered by police

Emma Raducanu has been announced as the new global ambassador for Evian.

The 18-year-old tennis ace - who became a household name after her performances in the US Open early this year - has joined the water brand as its new representative, and she hopes to be inspire "the younger generation" through her new partnership.

She said in a statement: "It's an honour to join the Evian team.

"Being an athlete, healthy hydration continues to be of the utmost importance to my day-to-day activity so I'm excited to partner with Evian and can't wait to see what's next."

The new partnership is the latest in a line of big sponsorship deals for Emma, including the likes of Tiffany & Co and Dior.

In October, Emma joined the fashion house as an ambassador for Creative Director Maria Grazia Chiuri's women's wear collections, as well as the brand's skincare and make-up ranges.

She said at the time: "Maria Grazia's work empowers women to feel confident in the iconic Dior cut, which I feel is very unique.

and MI5 since March include three far-right plots and one leftwing, anarchist or single-issue plot - while the total of Islamist plots has remained unchanged at 18.

There have been two terror attacks this autumn. In October the Conservative MP Sir David Amess was stabbed to death at his constituency surgery in Leigh-on-sea, Essex, in what is believed to have been an Islamist attack. A month later a man blew himself up in a taxi outside Liverpool women's hospital for reasons investigators are yet to firmly identify.

Reflecting the increasing focus on far-right activity, the number of white people arrested as terror suspects is now double the number of arrests of people from an Asian background. The Home Office data said 101 white people were apprehended, up 5%, and 49 people of Asian ethnic appearance, down 40%.

Best Disneyland hacks...and other festive fun

Sorry to say that there will be no Brits in LA annual Christmas party for another year – thanks to Omicron. Sounds like a new character from Star Wars, amirite??

Speaking of Star Wars – we took an impromptu trip to Disneyland this week. I mean you really can't beat anything Christmas when it comes to Regent Street or the massive tree in Trafalgar Square, but Disneyland comes a close second with 80 degree weather during the day before turning dark and misty at Sunset. A perfect dichotomy.

My infatuation with all things LA started by watching an episode of Wish You Were Here on ITV, seeing the effervescent Judith Chalmers walking down Main Street with Goofy and Donald. That planted in my seven year old mind a dream to go to Disney land – which celebrates 70 years this year. With limited capacity and the not-so-fast pass we thought we might be queuing up for hours – well not so fast. Here are my four Disney hacks to help ease the wait time and add to the enjoyment:

- If you're with a group of friends, remember the rides last about 45 seconds to 1 min tops – so split up and go to the single rider line. You can talk about how great or crap the ride was once you are all off – it saves tons of time and you can start lining up for another ride.

- Make a reservation for lunch or dinner at the Blue Bayou restaurant and ask your server if they can get you straight on to the Pirates of the Caribbean ride. Crossing their palms with silver will help sweeten the deal.

- Be nice to the staff – pay them a compliment and thank them for keeping you safe – it might get you to the front of the queue at the Nightmare Before Christmas attraction – it worked with my mate Nick.

- Save the expensive parking at the Disney lot by parking at a nearby hotel and just walk over – it's closer anyhow.

Omicron may be roiling the stock market and prompting new travel bans, but here in Tinseltown we're not letting anything stop Christmas.

The Dickens' classic A Christmas Carol is playing at the Ahmanson theatre this month starring Bradley Whitfield (of West Wing fame) and Alex Newell (of Glee). Apply code BRITSINLA for discounted tickets at centertheatregroup.org.

Brits in LA members Sohm Kapila and Andrew Linfield star in a Very British Panto at the Laguna Playhouse – ROBIN HOOD – can't wait for that. Visit lagunaplayhouse.com for more details and tickets.

one and only George Michael for a one-night-only performance of "I'm Your Man" on December 13th at the Marilyn Monroe Theatre, 7936 Santa Monica Blvd in West Hollywood.

Nick, who has appeared in Home and Away, Priscilla Queen of the Desert the Musical and Pure Genius, among other productions, is back in LA after a year in his native Australia and is totally 'up for grabs'... so to speak! Join him and some special guests as he navigates his way around returning to life in LA and finding 'true love' in Hollywood. If you're looking for 'Fastlove' or a 'Father Figure', then don't miss this amazing performance

Or because 'One More Try' is all it should take right? Let Nick take you to The Edge of Heaven. Well, after all, you gotta have 'Faith'. Tickets are only $20 and available at sweet-tix.com.

Much love to all....

ROSE, MIKE ROSE AND MICHAEL ANTHONY ROSE. A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by JOSEPH P. FERRY in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. Notice to Potential Bidders If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about Trustee Sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call In Source Logic at 702-659-7766 for information regarding the Trustee's Sale or visit the Internet Website www.insourcelogic.com for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, CA08000248-21-1. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Notice to Tenant NOTICE TO TENANT FOR FORECLOSURES AFTER JANUARY 1, 2021 You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 702-659-7766, or visit this internet website www.insourcelogic.com, using the file number assigned to this case CA08000248-21-1 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of KATHLEEN KAMINSKY.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by STEVEN ROBB KAMINSKY in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that STEVEN ROBB KAMINSKY be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The WILL and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 01/11/22 at 8:30AM in Dept. 2D located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Holdings Chelsea and Premier League rivals Liverpool, Manchester City and Manchester United will discover their Champions League last-16 opponents in Monday's draw.

Liverpool, Manchester City and Manchester United won their respective groups, while Chelsea went through as runners-up.

The three English teams who topped the group are among the eight seeded clubs, along with Ajax, Real Madrid, Bayern Munich, Juventus and Lille.

Chelsea join Paris St-Germain, Atletico Madrid, Sporting Lisbon, Inter Milan, Benfica, Salzburg and Villarreal as the non-seeded sides in the draw.

The draw for the Europa League knockout round play-off also takes place on Monday.

The draw is taking place at Uefa's headquarters in Nyon, Switzerland, with the 'ceremony' scheduled to start at 11:00 GMT.

Uefa's website will live stream the draw, which sees the 16 teams will be put into two pots - one for the seeded teams, who are the eight group cannot face opponents they faced during the group stage, either.

For example, Group A winners Manchester City will not be drawn against Paris St-Germain, who were runners-up in the same pool.

Liverpool, Manchester City and Manchester United are all seeded along with German giants Bayern Munich and record 13-time winners Real Madrid.

The eight unseeded teams, who all finished runners-up in their respective groups, are Atletico Madrid, Inter Milan, PSG, Sporting Lisbon, Chelsea, Red Bull Salzburg, Villarreal and Benfica.

Manchester United and PSG could potentially meet in the last 16, which would put Cristiano Ronaldo and Lionel Messi - widely regarded as the two greatest players of their generation - on a collision course.

Hammers kids slip to loss

A youthful West Ham side ended their Europa League group campaign with a home loss to Dinamo Zagreb.

The Hammers had already won Group H, securing their place in the tournament's last 16 in March and, as a result, David Moyes named a starting XI including five players aged 20 or under.

An inexperienced defence conceded after only three minutes when they backed off Mislav Orsic following a throw-in and he curled the ball into the top corner from the edge of the penalty area.

Sonny Perkins, 17, in his first start for the Hammers, would have become the club's youngest scorer in European competitions but headed over from Harrison Ashby's cross.

Dinamo Zagreb, who have won the Croatian league four years in a row, finish second in the group and also advance in the competition.

"I'm a winner and disappointed we didn't get something out of the game," said Moyes.

"I thought the young players did really well and recovered after losing an early goal.

"I'm always happy to give young players a chance but they have to earn the right to play and none of them let us down - they did a great job."

Tottenham slipped to third in their Europa Conference League group and will have to beat Rennes to progress if their postponed fixture is rearranged.

Thomas Buitink, Daan Huisman and Lois Openda scored as Vitesse beat NS Mura with Amadej Marosa replying for the visitors on Thursday.

Antonio Conte's side are three points behind Vitesse in Group G with the same goal difference.

Spurs' match with Rennes was called off after a Covid-19 outbreak at the club.

Uefa says it will look at the issues that led to Tottenham stating that the game would not take place.

European football's governing body must determine the fitness of Tottenham's squad, plus the extent of the health guidance offered before making a ruling. Uefa's rules state that if clubs have 13 fit players on their A list, including a goalkeeper, they must play.

Uefa could order the game to be re-arranged, although with a 31 December deadline for the group stage to be finished, finding an alternative date will not be easy.

England under the cosh!

■ FIRST ASHES TEST: Root's men face uphill battle to avoid defeat at the Gabba

BRISBANE: ENGLAND face an uphill battle to avoid going 1-0 down in the Ashes series as Australia took a commanding hold on the First Test.

At press time at lunch on the third day, Joe Root's men were 23-0, still 255 behind Australia's first innings total of 425. England had been skittled out for a paltry 147 on the first day.

England's dismal start to the Ashes series was compounded by Travis Head's blistering 152 on day two of the first Test at the Gabba.

With temperatures in the high 90s, left-hander Head tucked into a weary attack to reach three figures from only 85 balls, the third-fastest hundred in Ashes history.

David Warner, bowled off a Ben Stokes no-ball and dropped by Rory Burns, earlier made 94 and Marnus Labuschagne 74, yet when Ollie Robinson took two wickets in two balls Australia were five wickets down and just 48 ahead.

But Head just would not ease up, carrying his bat while the Aussie tail wagged until finally succumbing to Wood to end the innings.

England's three frontline seamers carried a threat for most of the day, but left-arm spinner Jack Leach was targeted for some brutal treatment, conceding 95 runs from 11 overs, including five sixes.

Stokes looked to injure his knee chasing the ball in the field and barely bowled after lunch, while Robinson struggled with cramp late on.

There was also a worrying moment when Head was struck by a rapid accidental beamer from Mark Wood. The batter recovered and the bowler was swift to apologise.

Missed chances and the ineffectiveness of Leach aside, England could do little more on a second day that exposed the inadequacy of their performance and decisions on day one.

Rodgers left fuming as sloppy Foxes slip into Europa Conference

Brendan Rodgers said he does not "even know" what the Europa Conference League is after his Leicester side were demoted to the competition following their 3-2 Europa League defeat at Napoli on Thursday.

The Foxes had started the day in pole position to advance but were made to pay for their slack defending as the hosts progressed at their expense in a dramatic climax to Group C.

Leicester drop into the knockout play-offs of European club football's third-tier tournament in February. The draw takes place on Monday and they will face one of the runners-up from the group stages of the Europa Conference League.

"I've got to be honest I don't even know what the competition is," Rodgers told BT Sport.

"I was focused on the Europa League and winning this group and at the very least finishing second. But I am sure I will find out soon enough."

"There is a lot of naivety in our team, with a lot of young players and it has been a big demand for them this season," he added.

"We have played a number of systems but individually it comes down to having that mentality to track a runner or stop a cross. We were good offensively but it was nowhere near good enough."

Adam Ounas' early goal set the tone for an error-strewn display, with Caglar Soyuncu's ill-advised pass beginning the passage of play that saw the Algeria winger register his first Napoli goal since April 2019.

Ryan Bertrand was at fault as Luciano Spalletti's side extended their lead, playing Andrea Petagna onside, with the forward in turn squaring for Eljif Elmas to tap home. But the Foxes responded in superb fashion, with Jonny Evans driving in an immediate response after a free-kick was only partially cleared and Kiernan Dewsbury-Hall levelling matters with a precise left-foot volley from the edge of the penalty area.

However, another defensive lapse from a Leicester side whose last clean sheet came on the opening day of the Premier League season proved decisive.

Bertrand, Harvey Barnes and Timothy Castagne were all guilty of not marking tightly enough as Giovanni di Lorenzo picked out Elmas, who allowed the ball to run across his body before driving it into the bottom right corner.

HEAD OF THE CLASS: Travis Head celebrates his century

Whereas England opted to bat in ideal conditions for bowling, Australia's batters enjoyed clear skies on a scorching hot day.

Robinson was the pick of the English bowlers with 3-58, and Wood bowled with extreme pace and Chris Woakes often beat the bat. However, the sight of Stokes limping is a huge concern and his nine overs cost 50 runs.

When Robinson had Warner caught at mid-off and followed up by bowling Cameron Green, who offered no shot, the game was in the balance.

Then came Head's stunning assault, which will surely extend England's 35-year winless run at the Gabba.
