Monster Maxwell jailed for 20 years

Former partner of Jeffrey Epstein remains defiantly unrepentant, describing herself as 'a victim'

AN UNREPENTANT Ghislaine Maxwell has shamelessly claimed she was a victim as a judge this week jailed her for 20 years for "heinous and predatory" child trafficking crimes.

The disgraced socialite, who lured vulnerable teenagers for Jeffrey Epstein, said meeting the billionaire paedophile was "the biggest regret of my life".

Some of the 60-yearold's victims were in court for the sentencing.

Judge Alison Nathan said she had taken into account Maxwell's "lack of remorse" and the fact that she did not "accept responsibility" and adding that "the damage done to these girls is incalculable".

Maxwell was convicted late last year on five of six sexual abuse counts, the most serious for sex trafficking minors.

hearing After statements from traumatized victims, she said: "It is hard for me to address the court after listening to the pain and anguish expressed in the statements made here. terrible impact "The on the lives of so many women is difficult to hear and even more difficult to absorb, both in its scale and in its extent.

"I want to acknowledge suffering. their Ι empathise deeply with all of the victims in this case."

The friend of Prince told Andrew the courtroom in New York: "I acknowledge with that I have been a victim of helping Jeffrey Epstein commit these crimes.

'terrible chapter'

"I believe that Jeffrey Epstein was a manipulative, cunning and controlling man who lived a profoundly compartmentalized life and fooled all of those in his orbit.

"Jeff Epstein should have been here before all of you. He should have stood before you in 2005, again in 2009 and again in 2019. "All the many times he was accused, charged and prosecuted. But today it is not about Jeffrey Epstein ultimately."

Maxwell, wearing navy prison overalls and ankle shackles, had stood up to address the court in a shock move before the sentencing.

She also said she hoped her conviction would bring the victims some closure.

She continued: "It is my sincerest wish to all those in this courtroom and to all those outside this courtroom that this day brings a terrible chapter to an end. And to those of you who spoke here today and those of you who did not, may this day help you travel from darkness into the light."

In closing, Maxwell looked at her victims gathered in court, telling them: "I am sorry for the pain that you experienced. I hope my conviction and harsh incarceration brings you pleasure."

With 22 months already served while on remand, and with good behaviour, Maxwell could released in her mid to late seventies.

'lack of remorse'

Maxwell has the means to pay the fine.

Sternheim requested the Briton be sent to a low-security female prison in Danbury, Connecticut, and enrolled in a treatment program to address past familial and other trauma.

The judge agreed make such to а recommendation to the Bureau of Prison, although it's up to that agency to make the final decision.

Before imposing the 20-year sentence, Judge Nathan summarized the cases of several of the victims.

The packed New York courtroom sat in complete silence as various victims of Maxwell were heard.

Annie Farmer told the justice: "I ask you to bear in mind how Maxwell's unwillingness to acknowledge her crimes, cont. on page 2, col. 4

Covid numbers jump yet again

THE number of people in hospital in England who have Covid-19 has jumped by more than a third in a week.

Some 7,822 patients in England had the virus up to Wednesday, up 37 per cent on seven days previously, NHS figures show. It is the highest total for nearly two months but is some way below the peak of 16,600 patients during the Omicron BA.2 wave earlier this year.

The latest outburst is driven by newer variants BA.4 and BA.5, which now make up more than half of all new cases of the virus in England.

Research by the UK Health Security Agency suggests BA.5 is growing approximately 35 per cent faster than BA.2 and will soon become the dominant variant.

But there is "no evidence" new variants cause more serious illness than previous ones.

UKHSA's Professor Susan Hopkins said: "Vaccinations continue to keep ICU admissions and deaths at low levels."

HARMONY IN HOLYROODHOUSE: The Queen meets with Nicola Sturgeon this week

Boris foes plan 'clean sweep' of key committee

Boris Johnson may have rules allow. A secret ballot recently survived a no confidence vote from within his own party, but he's hardly out of the woods yet.

According to a report in The Guardian, the prime minister is facing a renewed threat from Conservative rebels amid a "hardening of the mood against the prime minister", including some who backed him only last week. One Tory source a group of rebels are planning a "clean sweep" of the 1922 committee that could allow a fresh vote of no confidence in the leader sooner than the current to elect the committee's executive members will be held next month and the Tory rebels hope to secure all 18 positions. A source said rebels are "getting ruthlessly organised".

Elsewhere at Westminster, the government will provide an additional £1bn in military aid for Ukraine, taking the aid given to Kyiv to £2.3bn. The government said the new money will go towards "sophisticated air defence systems", drones, electronic warfare equipment and "thousands of pieces of vital kit".

Meeting the Queen hours after unveiling plans for a second independence referendum might well scotch the moment.

But, armed with a bottle of Johnnie Walker Blue Label whisky for Her Majesty, Scotland's First Minister made sure things were happy and glorious.

The two looked pleased to see each other as the 96-yearold monarch received SNP leader Nicola Sturgeon at the Palace of Holyroodhouse Edinburgh in on Wednesday.

The Queen, who has suffered mobility problems, stood without a walking stick as she greeted Ms Sturgeon but a purple bruise could be seen on her right hand. She had noticeably purple hands when she met former defence staff chief General Sir Nick Carter at Windsor Castle in November.

Ms Sturgeon later paid tribute to Her Majesty, praising the "life and service of an extraordinary woman".

Hours earlier, she announced a Bill for a consultative vote on a "legal, constitutional" independence referendum – which could lead to a breakup of the Union – on October 19 next year.

The SNP has insisted would it retain monarchy the and remain part of the Commonwealth after independence, but there are strong republican roots and leanings among the party's senior figures.

After her meeting with Ms Sturgeon, the Queen held an audience with Scottish Parliament presiding officer Alison Johnstone.

The monarch carries out Holyrood week engagements in Scotland every year.

On Monday, she attended the historic Ceremony of the Keys - the traditional opener to Holyrood weeks accompanied by Prince Edward, 58, and his wife Sophie, 57.

She then met Armed Forces members during an act of loyalty parade.

her lack of remorse, and her repeated lies about her victims created the need for many of us to engage in a long fight for justice."

Sarah Ransome, who grew up in Scotland, said the duo turned her into "nothing more than a sex toy with a heartbeat".

She said she was so traumatized she tried to kill herself by launching herself off a cliff into shark-infested waters on Epstein's private island in the US Virgin Islands.

Another victim, Elizabeth Stein, told how she had an abortion after being raped and trafficked.

Others who have provided statements included Virginia Giuffre, Maria Farmer, Teresa Helm and Juliette Bryant.

US lawyers said Prince Andrew should still have "concerns". Lawyer Brad Edwards, who secured the Duke of York's sex accuser Virginia Giuffre a £12million out-of-court settlement in the US civil claim against Prince

Andrew, which he denied and settled without admission of guilt, appealed to the FBI not to stop their investigation. Asked how he felt about others possibly involved with Maxwell and Epstein, he said: "Let's hope they're the next target."

Before being brought to justice, Maxwell and Epstein, who committed jail cell suicide in August 2019 as he awaited trial, were friends with the Duke of York.

They spent time at several royal households as his guests.

GOOD NEWS! Charles would "never again" take large bundles of cash from foreign benefactors!

■ Future king moves quickly to defuse cash-for honors row over £2.58m gift from Qatari sheikh

PRINCE Charles has responded to embarrassing revelations that he took £2.58m, from an Arab ruler, with a senior royal source saying the Prince would 'never again' do such a thing.

In an extraordinary admission, the source said times had changed, insisting: "It would not happen again...that was then, this is now."

The source suggested Charles had acted on the advice of courtiers when he previously agreed to take the gifts and pass them to his charity, the Prince of Wales's Charitable Fund.

The Prince received three donations each of one million euros, including one in a suitcase, from Sheikh Hamad bin Jassim bin Jaber Al Thani, a former prime minister of Qatar, between 2011 and 2015.

The source said: "It was passed immediately to his charities. And it was his charities who decided to accept the money.

"That is a decision for them. And they did so and, as they've confirmed, it followed all the right processes, the auditors looked at it."

The source added: "The second point is the Prince of Wales operates on advice.

"Situations, contexts change over the years. I can only talk about what I've got personal experience of but I can say with certainty, that for more than half a decade with the situation as it has evolved this has not happened and it would not happen again.

"But I go back to that thought: that was then, this is now and they are not the same."

controversy

Sir Ian Cheshire, chair of trustees at the PWCF, has suggested that such cash donations would not be allowed now because of money laundering regulations, but that it was not uncommon at the time for wealthy benefactors from the Middle East to donate in that way.

ANDY FLETCHER: an aortic dissection caused the musician's death in May

Heart tear killed Depeche star

DEPECHE Mode's keyboardist Andy Fletcher, 60, died after the main artery in his heart tore, the band has announced.

Following his death on May 26, the band said there had been an "outpouring of love".

On Instagram Depeche Mode said: "A couple of weeks ago we got the result from the medical examiners, which Andy's family asked us to share with you now.

"Andy suffered an aortic dissection at home. So, even though it was far, far too soon, he passed naturally and without prolonged suffering."

The band held a celebration of his life in London last week, describing it as a beautiful ceremony with tears and laughs.

The statement was signed by bandmates Martin Gore and Dave Gahan, the singer.

Andy leaves behind wife Grainne and children Megan and Joe.

CHARLES: a bumpy couple of weeks

The Charity Commission is reviewing the historical transactions before deciding whether to launch a formal investigation.

The latest controversy comes as the Met investigate an alleged cash-for-honours scandal at another of Charles's charitable ventures, The Prince's Foundation, after documents appeared to show a Saudi billionaire was offered a knighthood and UK citizenship in return for donations.

Norman Baker, the former Liberal Democrat minister in David Cameron's coalition government, has asked the force to include the latest controversy in its investigation into the alleged cash-for-honours scandal at the foundation.

Clarence House has refused to say whether Charles has been questioned by police in that investigation. He offered to assist them in any way he could.

But the heir to the throne is to escape questioning in a Charity Commission review of how he came to receive the bags of cash from Sheikh Hamad, a wealthy businessman with a £2billion fortune.

Officials at the commission, which acts as a watchdog for the charity sector, have concluded they will have no need to speak to him because he is not a trustee of the charity to which he handed over the money.

Under the commission's guidelines, charities are allowed to accept large cash donations but are supposed to ensure they are happy with where the money came from amid concerns about money laundering.

The PWCF is the fifth charity linked to Charles to face scrutiny from regulators since September 2021.

Charles, 73, has endured a bumpy couple of weeks after getting caught up in political controversy over his alleged opposition to the Government's plan to transport illegal migrants to Rwanda.

But it has emerged that the Queen's Platinum Jubilee celebrations at least allowed him to enjoy some quality family time with the Duke and Duchess of Sussex and their children, Archie, three, and Lilibet, one.

They came to Britain from their US home for part of the double bank holiday celebrations earlier this month. The Sussexes paid for their own travel, a royal source confirmed, and Charles and Camilla enjoyed an emotional reunion with them.

News from Britain Septic tank murder suspect 'regrets' cheating on dead ex-wife

A RETIRED pig farmer accused of killing his wife and hiding her body in a septic tank has told a court "regretted" cheating on her.

David Venables, 89, is said to have murdered wife Brenda in 1982 so he could rekindle an affair with a carer.

Her remains were not discovered until 2019, when the septic tank at Quaking House Farm, in Kempsey, Worcs, was emptied.

Venables told Worcester Crown Court he met Brenda at the Young Farmers club in 1957 and they wed in 1960. Six years later, he became friendly with his mother's carer, Lorraine Styles. Asked by Timothy Hannam, defending, if their relationship became sexual, Venables said: "Yes – which I very much regretted."

Ms Styles has since died, but in a statement read to the jury, she said her onoff affair with Venables lasted 14 years, until 1982.

She claimed he had promised to leave Brenda and had spoken about divorce.

But Venables told the court Ms Styles was "definitely not" someone he would have left his wife for as she had "a volatile temperament".

He reported Brenda missing in May 1982 and told police the then 48-year-old had been depressed. Her remains were found after he sold Quaking House Farm to his nephew.

Venables suggested his wife may have been a victim of serial killer Fred West. But prosecutor Michael Burrows, said the claim was "fanciful".

Venables, who still lives in Kempsey, Worcs, denies murder. The trial continues.

Gerry Adams sued by IRA bomb attack victims

"We have to make a stand and get justice for the victims."

IRA bomb victims are suing Gerry Adams over his alleged involvement in three bomb attacks in Britain.

They want nominal £1 damages from the ex-Sinn Fein leader in a case which could see him crossexamined in the High Court over long-standing claims he was a senior IRA member. Mr Adams, 73, has always denied membership of the terror group or any involvement in its campaign, in Northern Ireland or on the mainland

Three men are suing Mr Adams over the 1996 truck attacks in Manchester and London Docklands and the Old Bailey car bomb of 1973.

Jon Ganesh, a security guard hurt at Docklands, said: "We have to make a stand and get justice for the victims.

"Not just my friends who died at Canary Wharf or the three of us but all victims of the IRA's despicable campaign. It's not about any money... it's about the principle.

"Gerry Adams will have a chance to defend himself in court and answer the allegations."

Newsagent Inam Bashir, 34, and his assistant John Jeffries, 31, were killed by a bomb at South Quay which injured 100 people, many seriously – £150million of damage was caused.

allegations

The attack ended the IRA ceasefire agreed in 1994. One bomber given 25 years was freed after two.

Four months later, Manchester city centre was hit. No one died but 212 were hurt as £700million of damage was done by the biggest UK bomb since World War Two.

Barry Laycock, an injured rail worker, has joined Mr Ganesh in suing Mr Adams with ex-policeman John Clark who was hurt at the Old Bailey. Caretaker Frederick Milton, 60, died after a heart attack and 160 were wounded.

Mr Adams has for years faced allegations of being a senior member of the IRA's army council. In 2012, he dismissed claims by IRA bomber Dolours Price that Mr Adams was her commanding officer and that he sanctioned the attack on the Old Bailey.

Price, who was convicted with her sister Marian, alleged the London bombing campaign had been "approved" by Mr Adams – a claim he strenuously denies. In 2014 he was questioned by police about Jean McConville, questioned about his a 37-year-old mother of 10 who was kidnapped from her home in Belfast in December 1972 but he was released without in Belfast from 1983

Fein president from 1983 to 2018. He was MP for Belfast West from 1983 to 1992 and from 1997 to 2011 but never took his seat at Westminster. He was a member for Louth of the Dail, Ireland's Parliament, from 2011 until 2020.

The trio's case could go before a judge for a preliminary hearing in three months.

Top Tory quits over boozy gropes

C O N S E R V A T I V E Deputy Chief Whip Chris Pincher has quit his post after allegedly groping two men while drunk.

In a letter to Boris Johnson about his night out on Wednesday he wrote: "Last night I drank far too much.

"I've embarrassed myself and other people...and for that I apologize to you and to those concerned.

"I think the right thing to do in the circumstances is for me to resign as Deputy Chief Whip. I owe it to you, and the people I've caused upset to, to do this."

He added: "It has been the honour of my life to have served in Her Majesty's Government." Mr Pincher, 52, was out boozing at Tory Party private members club, the Carlton Club, in London's Piccadilly when he is said to have assaulted two fellow guests.

Several Conservative MPs are understood to have complained about his behaviour.

Mr Pincher, who represents Tamworth, is unlikely to lose the party whip, meaning he will stay on as a Tory MP.

He previously stood down from the whips' office in 2017 when he was accused of making an unwanted pass at former Olympic rower and Conservative activist Alex Story. Mr Pincher was later cleared of wrongdoing by a Tory probe.

Labour Deputy Leader Angela Rayner said in a statement: "This latest episode shows how far standards in public life have been degraded on Boris Johnson's watch.

"Boris Johnson has serious questions to answer about why Chris Pincher was given this role in the first place and how he can remain a Conservative MP."

It is the latest in a string of sleaze allegations to have rocked the Tory Party.

Tory MP Neil Parish was caught watching porn in the House of Commons chamber. The MP for Tiverton and Honiton quit and the resulting byelection on June 23 was won by the Lib Dems.

•Ex-Formula One chief Bernie Ecclestone was blasted after blaming Ukraine's president Volodymyr Zelensky for the war and not "sensible" Vladimir Putin.

The 91-year-old even told Good Morning Britain he would "take a bullet" for Kremlin dictator Putin.

His outburst drew swift criticism from Foreign Secretary Liz Truss.

And seven-time F1 champion driver Sir Lewis Hamilton said he "can't believe" what he heard. He said: "To hear from someone that ultimately believes in the war and in the displacement of millions of people and in the killing of thousands of people, to hear from someone who supports the person who is doing it...that is beyond me."

Sir Lewis, 37, also questioned why "older voices" who were "not representative of who we are now in the sport" were given a platform.

It follows Nelson Piquet, 69, branding Hamilton the N-word and Ecclestone defending the ex-F1 star. Asked by ITV host Kate Garraway if he still considered Putin a friend, Ecclestone said: "I'd still take a bullet for him..."

Dad's Army star Frank Williams dies at 90

■ Actor played Rev Farthing on landmark comedy from 1969 until 1977

Actor Frank Williams, known millions to as Dad's Army vicar Timothy Farthing, has died aged 90.

Friends said he passed away on Saturday night after a short illness.

Williams (pictured, right) had a long and successful career in both TV and theatre, but found fame thanks to his role in the much-loved Seventies sitcom

He played Rev Farthing from 1969 until 1977 and said when he took the role it was only expected to last one episode.

A statement shared on Facebook said: "So sorry to say that our beloved friend, colleague and actor, Frank Williams, passed away this morning. He was almost 91, and we are grateful for all the years of joy, laughter and happiness he brought to so many. Thank you Frank!" Frank was one of the last surviving stars in Dad's Army, with only Ian Lavender, who played Private Pike, left.

Speaking about his time in Dad's Army last year, Williams said: "It was the happiest period of my professional life.

"I ended up appearing in 39 of the 80 TV episodes, plus the original film, stage show and 14 radio episodes."

He was born in London and educated at Hendon County School and Ardingly College in West Sussex. In his final year at Hendon, he played the lead role in a play which helped to cement his love of acting. He moved to London and became assistant stage manager at the Gateway Theatre in Westbourne Grove and was offered numerous small roles in films. He also got to work on TV with Terry Scott, Harry Worth, Tommy Cooper and Norman Wisdom.

Frank met Dad's Army writer Jimmy Perry when he was cast in a play called Honeymoon Beds, staged at the Watford Palace, run by Perry and his wife Gilda. Perry swiftly identified the potential in the young actor and writer, and agreed to produce one of Williams' plays, The TV Murders.

His big breakthrough came in 1957 when he was cast as a psychiatrist in the ITV comedy, The Army Game. Williams went on to appear in 75 episodes.

And he returned to the role of Rev Farthing for the 2016 Dad's Army remake.

Why you need dental insurance in retirement.

Medicare doesn't pay for dental care.<sup>1</sup> As good as Medicare is, it was never meant to cover everything. If you want protection, you need to purchase individual insurance.

Early detection can prevent small problems from becoming expensive ones. The best way to avoid large dental bills is preventive care. Experts recommend checkups twice a year.

Previous dental work can wear out. Your odds of having a dental problem only go up as you age.<sup>2</sup>

Treatment is expensive — especially the services people over 50 often need. Unexpected bills, like $189 for a filling, or $1,219 for a crown<sup>3</sup> can be a real burden, especially if you're on a fixed income.

CASE NO. 22STPB05857 To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of RICARDO FRANZOSI AKA RICHARD FRANZOSI AKA RICARDO FRANZOSI AKA

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act with limited authority. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A HEARING on the petition will

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 07/18/22 at 8:30AM in Dept. 44 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012 IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Colin Blunstone: still rocking after all these years

TIMELESS British rockers The Zombies are in the middle of a hectic American tour which will see them play locally at the Fonda Theatre on July 23rd. The band were one of pioneers of the socalled British Invasion in the early 1960s, and 60 years on, they are still rocking with the best of them.

> How did you get your start in the music business?

> It was by chance really. In 1961 when I was 15, the boy who sat next to me in school had been asked to join a band and as he knew I had a guitar he asked if I wanted to join too. With one personnel change that band became The Zombies and led to a sixty year career in the music business.

You were a leading part of the first British Invasion with the Stones and the Beatles. What was it like breaking the American Hot 100 billboard charts with The Zombies for the first time and stepping foot on American soil? As America was the home of the blues, and jazz and rock 'n' roll it was a country all British musicians were desperate to explore. To arrive in 1964 with a record high in the charts ready to perform on shows with some of our musical heroes was beyond my wildest dreams.

How do you feel the music industry has changed since you first began 50 years ago? It's changed out of way music is recorded and the way music is accessible is totally different. I don't think about the changes too much. I simply like to write songs on my guitar. I practice my singing exercises and I tour with The Zombies. It's more than enough for me.

all recognition. The

Do you keep in touch with surviving members of The Zombies, if so how often do you see each other?

I see Rod Argent all the time. Chris White has moved west but we speak on the phone. I don't see Hugh Grundy so often as he's moved to Spain but every now and again we get together and it really is just like the old days.

You have a career that has spanned more than 50 years. How have you managed to move with the times?

I try to look at my career in a different way. The emphasis has always been on writing and performing music that moves me or means something to me in the hope it will then mean something to other people as well. Subconsciously every artist absorbs a little of the current trends and this will inevitably colour his or her work.

We are looking forward to seeing your concert in LA and the Fonda Theatre. Tell us what can we expect?

As the lead singer of the band I can tell you I sing in front of a really, really good, energized, rocking band. Each member is a master of his instrument and they play together as a tight serious unit!!

Any chance of hearing new material at these shows?

We will play the hits, some songs from the original Zombies last album "Odessey and Oracle" (which Rolling Stone named as one of the 100 best albums of all time) some deep cuts and some brand new songs from our new unreleased album. What are some of your favorite tracks you are looking forward to playing?

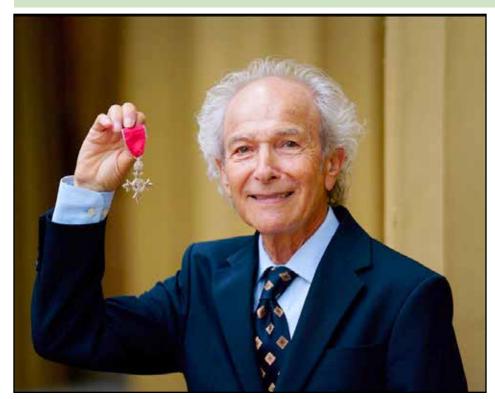

I still enjoy playing the original site and of course it's always a thrill to play brand new songs!!

Music is clearly your life, but what other activities do you get up to in your downtime? I live a very quiet life when I'm at home, maybe painting, walking or seeing if I can do anything useful in the garden.

Do you spend much time in LA when not touring? If so, what are some of your favorite spots to revisit?

I really enjoyed living in LA in the late 70's but my memory is a little hazy now about specific areas and favourite activities. More recently touring doesn't really allow time for exploring the towns we perform in... maybe this time I'll get the chance to rediscover some of my old haunts??

WELL DONE MARTIN! BiLA Member Martin Samuel with his MBE this week

Our inbox has been filled with goodness this week, which is a very welcome change.

First up is the marvelous news that our dear friend and founding Brits in LA member Martin Samuel was (finally!) made an MBE.

It is a well-deserved honour for the threetimes Oscar-nominated international film hairstylist. Martin helped to create iconic looks for Johnny Depp's Captain Jack Sparrow, Madonna in Evita and David Bowie's red-andblond look in The Man Who Fell To Earth. Congratulations Martin, we are delighted for you!

British artist Katie Brightside may have been rather quiet for the last couple of years, but her hard work as finally paid off! This week sees the launch of her latest creation "Bad Romance".

Also" Artlounge Collective presents its third fine art showing at Mondrian Los Angeles with Katie's redefined wallpaper collection displaying at the hotel's Magic Box exhibit, June 3-August 1, 2022.

A new, hand-painted mural from the artist appears at the Skybar

Los Angeles entrance through till November. Make sure to follow Katie on Instagram @ welcometothebrightside Brits in LA member India Dupre has just released a new song! 'Where the Crawdads inspired Sing' bv the book. The film comes out July 15. Her new music video includes shots from her hometown Leigh-on-Sea and can be seen at indiadupre.com.

Please do get in touch if you have some news to share. Email us at info@britsin.la Cheers! Eileen

Happy July 4th to one and all!

ARIES: Don't spend too much time looking at how you can improve the future of your finances. You are already on the right track. Your boss Mars currently in house is on your side and directing you in a good way. TAURUS: Your boss planet Venus is now going in a positive direction. Do not be vague on how you view your overall future now. Uranus living with you will continue to remind you.

GEMINI: Now that your boss Mercury is going in a positive direction you should be preparing for a more action in the area of cash flow. This is on its way so just be patient.

CANCER: You are probably a little confused by others' attitude currently, however by midweek ahead it's going to be clearer on what answers you will give. Happy Birthday!

LEO: You are probably having some kind of emotional or health issue lately. Mars in your cousin Aries is sizzling for a while, so take some time for rest and relaxing.

VIRGO: You are best to listen to that inner voice before you decide on any future plans. Time is on your side. Mid-month will be much easier to navigate.

LIBRA: Venus your boss planet is moving in a positive way currently. This is a good omen as she is in a friendly mood. Make sure you take a few days to relax.

SCORPIO: You are a bit emotional and this is due to Pluto your boss bringing up thoughts from the past. While this can be intense try to listen carefully as there could be a message and it's all for your highest good. SAGITTARIUS: Be your own friend and honor your feelings. Your boss Jupiter in your area of communications brings good news. This is only clarifying what your gut feeling tells you.

CAPRICORN: Family and other responsibilities may have made you somewhat stressed in the past months. Spend some time these next few days resting as the current energy around you is good for you.

AQUARIUS: This unpredictable time should not stop you from looking forward to some new opportunities to improve your home. Just enjoying anticipating the future helps you.

PISCES: You are likely feeling confused about some things in life. Do not feel like you are alone, indeed you are probably better than most people currently. Do not allow anything to stop you planning ahead.

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of OTIS EMERSON DUNHAM

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Vera J. Dunham in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Vera J. Dunham be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A HEARING on the petition will be held on July 12, 2022 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 44 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objec-

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF DUANE HAROLD HODNETT, SR.

Case No. 22STPB06259 To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of DUANE HAROLD HODNETT, SR. A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Duane H. Hodnett, II in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES. THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Duane H. Hodnett, II be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

LEGAL NOTICES

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without ob-taining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on July 29, 2022 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 9 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Wimbledon agony for Emma and Andy

Emma Raducanu and Andv Murrav's Sir Wimbledon dreams were shattered all too soon this week as they crashed out in the second round.

Emma, 19, who rocketed to fame winning last year's US Open, slipped to a 6-3, 6-3 defeat to Caroline Garcia.

Carrying the nation's the hopes, teenager struggled with the French world No4's former power and accuracy.

She admitted it was tough but added: "It's OK. I didn't have many expectations of myself."

Emma - watched by mum Renee - defiantly disputed she struggles with the weight of expectation, saying: "I am a Slam champion. No one can take that from me. The pressure is on those who haven't done that. Why is there pressure? It's literally a joke."

Sir Andy, 35, was blasted off court in four sets by big-serving John Isner, 37. The two-time champ looked furious it took so long for the referee to shut the roof as darkness fell over Centre Court.

Meanwhile, event bosses face growing anger over empty seats on the big arenas. It is said to be down to hospitality guests not taking up places and delays scanning tickets.

But there was some cheer for home fans with British No2 Harriet Dart, 25, winning her firstround match against Rebeka Masarova.

VIPs Among at SW19 were Strictly Come Dancing winner Rose Ayling-Ellis, 27. swapped the who dancefloor for the Royal Box. She was joined by newsreading legend Sir Trevor McDonald, 82. The Duchess of Cambridge's parents, Carole and Michael Middleton, were also seen enjoying the action.

England romp to Kiwi whitewash

Third LV Insurance Test, Headingley (day five of five) New Zealand 329 (Mitchell 109, Leach 5-100) & 326 (Blundell 88*, Latham 76; Leach 5-66) England 360 (Bairstow 162, Overton 97) & 296-3 (Root 86*, Pope 82, Bairstow 71*) England won by seven wickets

England romped to victory on the final day of the third Test against New Zealand at Headingley on Monday to seal a stunning 3-0 series win.

The hosts scored the 113 runs needed to complete their chase of 296 in only 65 minutes as they won by seven wickets.

After rain delayed the start of play until 13:30 BST, England lost Ollie Pope for 82 in the first over, but Jonny Bairstow and Joe Root banished any nerves with a dominant unbroken stand of 111.

Root finished unbeaten on 86 while Bairstow smashed a whirlwind 71 not out from 44 balls.

Victory capped an astonishing start for Ben captain Stokes and coach Brendon McCullum, who took over before the series following England's dismal run of one win in 17 Tests.

They are now brimming with confidence going into their next challenge, the rearranged Test against India at Edgbaston which begins on Friday.

Exactly three months ago England's Test team were at one of their lowest points in recent memory, having lost by 10 wickets to West Indies in Grenada to lose the series.

The turnaround since has been remarkable, with world Test champions New Zealand swept aside in a fashion rarely seen in the longest format.

England have won the series by racing to supposedly tricky chases of 277, 299 and now 296, making them the first team to successfully pursue more than 250 in three Tests in a row.

throughout, by thrashing boundaries and delighting a crowd who had been let into the ground for free.

Their position of 55-6 in their first innings was a distant memory by the time Bairstow heaved spinner Michael Bracewell over mid-wicket for six to wrap up victory.

completed England their chase in only 54.2 overs. There were a mere 15.2 overs of play on the final day.

Pope was bowled by a fine ball from Tim Southee that jagged back, but that was the only blemish. Root and Bairstow took 17 from the second over of the day, bowled by Trent Boult, with the pair hitting two fours each.

Root's knock was made to look pedestrian by Bairstow, who reached his fifty in only 30 balls - the second fastest Test halfcentury for England.

He smacked Southee over his head for six early on and heaved Bracewell into the second tier. Bairstow ended the series with 394 runs at an average of 78.80 and strike-rate of 120.12, a thrilling example of England's new era.

New Zealand had no answer to Bairstow on the final day as England's chase turned into a procession.

It has been a difficult tour for the Black Caps, who have taken a step back since beating England 1-0 a year ago and overcoming India in the World Test Championship final.

No more internationals for one-day legend Morgan

England's World Cupwinning captain Eoin Morgan has announced his retirement from international cricket.

Under Morgan, England won the 2019 World Cup and reached the top of the one-day and Twenty20 rankings.

The 35-year-old, who took charge of the T20 side in 2012 and oneday side in 2014, has struggled for form and fitness in recent times, with Jos Buttler the favourite to replace him.

England face India in a three-match T20 series starting on 7 July, while the T20 World Cup in Australia begins in October.

Morgan is England's leading run-scorer in one-day and T20 cricket with 6,957 and 2,458 runs respectively. His tally of 225 ODIs and 115 T20s is also an England record.

Former England captain Michael Vaughan told BBC Test Match Special: "It is exactly the right time for him to step aside.

"He really is the legacy white-ball captain and in 30-40 years' time people will still remember him what he's done England's white-ball team. He must be wonderful to play under and he was a brilliant batter."

England all-rounder Moeen Ali, who was part of the World Cupwinning squad, said: "He's done a remarkable job.

without him. Things move on and you have to get used to it, but it is sad.

"I'm not surprised at the same time because he is a very selfless person and probably is thinking about the team more than anything."

Morgan took over from Alastair Cook as ODI captain and England's oversaw miserable 2015 World when Cup campaign they were knocked out in the group stages.

But he implemented a new, attacking approach which helped England break the record for the highest one-day total three times.

Richarlison seals Spurs switch

Brazilian star costs North London side a hefty £50m

Brazil international Richarlison is set for a medical at Tottenham after Spurs agreed a deal to sign the forward from Everton. The move will be worth more than £50m but there are some minor issues to be finalized over the exact fee.

Personal terms have been agreed with Richarlison and, barring anv unexpected issues, the transfer should concluded be on Thursday.

Richarlison, 25, joined Everton from Watford for £50m in 2018

Since then, he has scored 53 goals in 152 appearances for the Merseyside club, finishing top scorer at Everton last season as the club narrowly avoided relegation from the Premier League.

Richarlison went into the campaign on the back of an exhausting summer, when he played for Brazil in both Copa America and the Olympic Games, and scored 10 goals in the top flight.

Six of those goals came in Everton's last nine games of the season as they finished 16th and four points above the relegation zone.

Tottenham have qualified this for season's Champions League have and signed winger Ivan Perisic, keeper Foster and Fraser midfielder Yves Bissouma so far this summer. The accounting period for Everton's figures from the 2021campaign ends 22 on 30 June so, if the Richarlison deal is done, it would help balance the Toffees' books after the club posted £372m in losses over the last three vears.

Having spent a total of about £30m on Demarai Gray, Vitaliy Mykolenko and Nathan Patterson last season, selling Richarlison for more than £50m would mean the club would make a healthy profit player on sales, although they have also acquired others on loan.

OUT OF FAVOR, OVER THERE: Welsh superstar Bale was an unused substitute for Real Madrid in May's Champions League final against Liverpool

Bale joins LAFC

Gareth Bale has joined Los Angeles FC on a 12-month deal following his departure from Real Madrid, saying: "I cannot wait to get started."

The Wales captain, 32, has signed as a free agent after nine years in Spain with an option to stay there for the 2024 season. "I am extremely excited for this move to LAFC," said Bale.

"This is the right place for me and my family and the right time in my career."

co-president LAFC John Thorrington said: "Gareth is one of the most dynamic and exciting players of his generation.

"Adding a player who brings his talent and experience at the highest levels is an incredible opportunity to improve our club.

"I am grateful to Gareth's management team who helped make this happen.

"It is clear that Gareth highly motivated is continue to win to trophies and we are elated that he has made the choice to join LAFC and help lead us in our ultimate goal of winning championships."

LAFC head coach Steve Cherundolo said: "There are simply not many players in the world who can have an impact on a match like Gareth Bale."

The signing of Bale, who joined Real Madrid for a then world-record fee of £85m in 2013, follows LAFC's move for Italy defender Giorgio Chiellini earlier this month.
