First the drought... now the floods

■ More weather misery as downpours drain off parched earth

DANGEROUS floods overwhelmed parts of the UK this week as three days of thunderstorms hammered the country.

Days after a scorching heatwave, forecasters issued an amber "danger to life" warning in London and the South-east, with up to two inches of rain causing havoc as it drained off the parched earth.

Lightning, hail and strong winds hit regions including Suffolk, Kent, Surrey and West Sussex.

One hospital urged patients to attend A&E only if their need was "urgent or life-threatening" as the building was flooded.

Bassetlaw Hospital in Worksop, Notts, said heavy rainfall meant "water was able to get into a few parts of the building".

'up to my knees'

The hospital said in a Facebook post that staff were "hard at work" fixing the problem.

Flash floods disrupted many parts of London – with one man, near King's Cross station, filmed using a broom in shin-deep water.

The video's caption read: "The flash flood that just happened in London is insane, the rain was incredibly mad."

Elsewhere in London a council worker used a broom to try to clear a drain as water overwhelmed streets, including the road outside Chiswick Park Tube station after a downpour lasting two hours from 3pm.

Local barber shop owner David Rogers, 35, said: "Range Rovers, Porsches and just every day cars were battling through it. It was up to my knees."

Further north, homes were flooded in Market Rasen, Lincs, on Tuesday, while cars struggled on roads in Standon, Herts.

The destructive wet weather is expected to continue into the weekend, with periods of showers and thunderstorms.

hosepipe ban

But in a strange irony, the spell of driest weather for decades has forced the relaxation of strict environmental rules, the Government announced.

Farmers with the Countryside Stewardship or Environmental Stewardship schemes can now cut or graze additional areas of land to help ease shortages of bedding, fodder, grazing or forage crops.

The Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (Defra) said the shift would take effect immediately and last until the end of the year.

Environment Secretary George Eustice said many farmers were concerned about water supplies and the impact on their crops and livestock.

He added: "We are introducing temporary easements on agri-environment schemes to give them the flexibility to respond."

Defra said it may introduce further measures in the coming

WAVE ON: a car battles through the waters in Market Rasen, Lincolnshire weeks. At the same time, more than 30 million people will be unable to water their gardens by the end of next week after Thames Water was the latest company to announce a hosepipe ban.

Despite three days of rain, it said water levels in its reservoirs were "much lower than usual".

The company, which supplies 15 million people, put a temporary ban in place from Wednesday for people in London and the Thames Valley.

Chief executive Sarah Bentley said it had been a "very difficult decision".

She added: "After months of below-average rainfall and the recent extreme temperatures in July and August, water resources in our region are depleted.

"Customer demand is at unprecedented levels and we now have to move into the next phase of our drought plan to conserve water, mitigate further risk and future-proof supplies."

News From Britain

I'll defend the Union, vows Tory frontrunner

■ Liz Truss promises to reject Nicola Sturgeon's demand for second Scottish Independence vote

Liz Truss this week vowed to defend the Union and reject Nicola Sturgeon's demand for another Scottish independence vote.

The Tory leadership favourite also confirmed her determination to keep the Union together, as her campaign was boosted by the defection of former Welsh Secretary Alun Cairns from rival Rishi Sunak's camp to hers.

Foreign Secretary Ms Truss's campaign to become Prime Minister was helped as polls put her four points ahead of Labour's Sir Keir Starmer as the best person to lead the country.

She said that her early years living in Scotland had made her a "child of the Union" and she promised to deliver for all corners of the country. Both candidates were campaigning in Scotland this week.

She also gave her support to the 'Unite The Kingdom' crusade, launched by a leading British newspaper, which is urging politicians and other public figures to make the case for strengthening the UK in the face of a growing constitutional crisis.

Ms Truss said: "I'm delighted to back the...

"A child of the Union": Truss promised to deliver for all corners of the country

Unite The Kingdom campaign. In 2014, Scottish nationalists accepted that their referendum was a once-in-a-generation opportunity, and I will hold them to that.

trade deal

"A second independence referendum is the wrong priority. Nicola Sturgeon and her SNP Government should instead be focused on helping hardworking families in Scotland through the global cost-of-living crisis, improving frontline services and creating more jobs."

Ms Truss promised to push for a trade deal with India that would slash a long-standing 150 per cent tariff on exports of Scotch. As Prime Minister she would also change laws in order to allow more "robust questioning" of Scottish ministers.

She added: "Having grown up in Paisley, I consider myself to be a child of the Union. When I say I'll deliver for our country, I mean all of it. I will never let anyone talk down Scotland's potential. As a nation we are stronger together and the UK needs Scotland as much as Scotland needs the UK.

"For too long, people in Scotland have been let down by the SNP focusing on constitutional division instead of their priorities. That won't happen under my watch.

"I'll make sure that my Government does everything to ensure elected representatives hold the devolved administration to account for its failure to deliver the quality public services, particularly health and education, that Scottish people deserve.

'strong track record'

"As Prime Minister and Minister for the Union, I will deliver on my ambitious plan to capitalise on the opportunity we have to turbocharge the growth and business investment required to get Scotland's economy moving."

Mr Cairns is the third MP to switch allegiance from the ex-Chancellor.

He said: "At the outset of the campaign, I met Rishi Sunak to discuss the future of the Union and was content with his responses. I chose to support him. However, as the campaign has developed, the risks to our Union have become more apparent. There is a need to break out of the current orthodoxy.

The future of our Union depends on it.

"For this reason, I have concluded that with the positive ambition for our country and imagination she has shown, alongside her strong track record as a reformer, Liz Truss is best-placed to secure our Union."

Mr Sunak plans to make the Holyrood administration face greater scrutiny, by forcing Scotland's most senior civil servant – the Permanent Secretary to the Scottish Government – to attend select committees in Westminster.

He also committed to cutting Whitehall jobs and, in No 10, would demand senior civil servants spend a year working outside of the Government if they want promotion.

Mr Sunak said: "As Chancellor I saw parts of the British Civil Service at its best, delivering world-class Covid support schemes in record time. But the bloated post-Covid state is in need of a shake-up so I will create a sharper, leaner Civil Service.

"I'll press ahead with cuts to back-office Civil Service headcount, recruiting and retaining the brightest and best."

Harry and Meghan plan new UK visit

PRINCE Harry's worries about his family's safety in Britain have failed to prevent him and Meghan planning another visit to the UK next month.

The Duke and Duchess of Sussex will return for the first time since the Queen's Platinum Jubilee in early June to attend a number of charity events.

The Sussees, who stepped down as senior royals in January 2020, live in California and the trip comes amid an ongoing legal dispute over their UK security arrangements.

Harry, who in court documents has claimed it is not safe for him and his family in the UK, is currently suing the Home Office over its refusal to provide him with automatic police protection every time he visits.

security

He has also begun a separate legal action over the refusal of the Home Office and Met Police to allow him to pay out of his own pocket for the hire of specialist police protection teams.

Harry lost his taxpayer-funded police security after stepping back from royal duties and he and Meghan now employ a team of private bodyguards.

The couple will be in Manchester for the One Young World Summit on September 5, which brings together young leaders from more than 190 countries.

Giggs: I've never been faithful but I didn't attack my ex

■ Footballer says clash of heads 'not deliberate'

Ryan Giggs has admitted he is a serial love cheat who lied about affairs to his ex-wife and girlfriend – but denied he attacked women.

The former Man Utd winger told a court he cannot resist an attractive woman who shows any interest in him, regardless of his marital status.

Giggs, 48, told jurors he has never been faithful. He agreed he is a "flirt by nature" but denied assaulting, controlling or coercing a woman.

He also dismissed former girlfriend Kate Greville's allegation that he made her a "slave" to his "every need and every demand".

Giggs was giving evidence at his trial for causing actual bodily harm to Ms Greville and subjecting her to controlling and coercive behaviour. He denies both counts plus a charge of assaulting her sister Emma.

The jury heard he told police his head clashed with Kate's in a phone scuffle but it was "not deliberate".

'reputation for infidelity'

They had rowed at Giggs' mansion in Worsley, Greater Manchester, in November 2020. Giggs said he may have "caught" Kate and Emma, 26, but there was no bid to hurt either.

He claimed Kate had caught him in the face "causing bleeding to the lip and inner mouth". Police arrived and he was arrested.

In a statement later handed to officers, Giggs said: "During this scuffle my head clashed with hers. I am not sure if it was the face or head but I am sure it was not deliberate."

Giving evidence at Manchester Crown Court, Giggs was asked by his counsel Chris Daw QC: "You are well known all over the world for two things. One, as a footballer?"

Giggs replied: "Yes." Mr Daw said: "But you are also known for something else. You have a reputation for infidelity?" Giggs: "Yes." Mr Daw: "Is that reputation justified?" Giggs: "Yes."

His barrister asked: "In the course of your relationships with women, up to and including Ms Greville, have you managed to

ACCUSED: Ryan Giggs this week at court; he denies assaulting his former girlfriend

Footballer 'used panic rooms as rape chambers'

City star described a 'callous predator'

MANCHESTER City football star Benjamin Mendy raped two women in locked "panic rooms" at his £4.8million mansion like "a callous predator", jurors heard this week.

The World Cup winner with France "thought he could get away with" sex attacks, believing any woman entering his home "was available for sex", Chester Crown Court was told.

Mendy, bought for £52million, denies eight charges of rape involving five women as young as 17, one attempted rape and a sexual assault. The earliest charge relates to 2017.

At his trial's opening, he sat next to co-accused Louis Saha Matturie, 41 – described as Mendy's fixer who allegedly sourced the women.

Timothy Cray QC, prosecuting, said Mendy, 28, used his fame and money to attack "a stream of women brought to his home purely to be pursued for sex".

Two alleged victims told police Mendy took them to "panic rooms" for the attacks: the master bedroom and a downstairs office which had special locks in case of burglary.

Mr Cray said the way to open the doors from the inside was not obvious so the women got the idea that they were "locked in". At the start of what could be a four-month trial, he said: "The prosecution case is simple.

"It has little to do with football. Instead it is another chapter in a very old story – men who rape women because they think they are powerful and can get away with it.

be faithful to any of them?" Giggs: "No." He confirmed he had lied to ex-wife Stacey and Kate about his infidelities.

'blackmail'

Giggs met Stacey at a barbecue when he was 18 and they began a relationship when he was in his late 20s but he was not faithful to her, he told the court.

In 2016 Kate Greville had a chance to launch a business in Abu Dhabi.

Mr Daw asked him about a row at the Westin Hotel, Dubai, in 2017 when she alleges Giggs dragged her naked then threw her belongings into a corridor.

He denied there was a physical element to the argument. They calmed down and made love, Giggs said: "We had sex that we would have quite often which could get quite rough, but not anything weird," he added.

Giggs said he never tried to interfere with her work or day-to-day activities.

Mr Daw asked why he sent her an email with the subject "Blackmail" and a video of her dancing at a Christmas party.

Giggs replied: "It was just a joke between me and Kate. Just dancing embarrassingly." He insisted he "never" shared any private photos of her.

The trial continues.

IRAN: Rushdie to blame for near-fatal attack

■ Stabbing of “Satanic Verses” author was “divine retribution”, claims statement from Tehran

SIR Salman Rushdie and his supporters were solely to blame for the murderous attack on the author, Iran said this week in a “despicable” rant.

And its state broadcaster daily Jaam-e-Jam gloated that the 75-year-old writer of The Satanic Verses might lose an eye, saying: “An eye of the Satan has been blinded.” It viewed the stabbing as “divine retribution”.

As the man arrested over Friday’s attack was disowned by his mother, Tehran “categorically” denied any links – despite a £2.3million bounty that was offered for Sir Salman’s death.

Nasser Kanaani, the country’s foreign ministry spokesman in President Ebrahim Raisi’s government, declared: “No one has the right to accuse the Islamic Republic of Iran.

“In this attack, we do not consider anyone other than Salman Rushdie and his supporters worthy of blame and even condemnation.”

And, claiming to speak for all followers of the Islamic faith, he added: “By insulting the sacred matters of Islam and crossing the red lines of more than 1.5 billion Muslims and all followers of the divine religions, Rushdie has exposed himself to the anger and rage of the people.”

He insisted freedom of speech did not justify Sir Salman’s writings.

‘ludicrous’

Western leaders were quick to condemn Iran’s outburst. US Secretary of State Antony Blinken said it was “despicable”.

And Downing Street said: “It’s ludicrous to suggest Salman Rushdie was in any way responsible for this abhorrent attack. This was not just an attack on him, it was an attack on the right to free speech and expression.

“The UK government stands by him and his family but equally we will stand in defence of free speech.”

Mr Blinken added that Sir Salman had “stood up for freedom of expression, freedom of religion or belief, and freedom of the press”.

He added: “I am reminded of the pernicious forces that seek to undermine these rights, including through hate speech and incitement to violence. Specifically, Iranian state institutions have incited violence against Rushdie for generations.”

Rushdie is now off his ventilator and according to reports, was cracking jokes with those at his bedside – despite still being listed in critical condition after the knife attack.

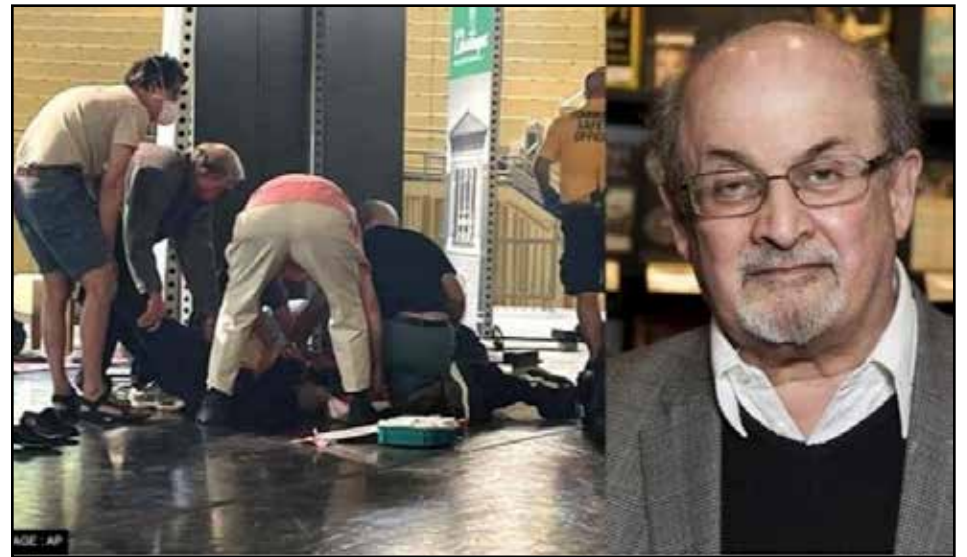

His son Zafar said that his father – who may still lose an eye – had suffered life-changing injuries but “his usual feisty and defiant sense of humour remains intact”.

In a family statement, he added: “Following the attack on Friday, my father remains in critical condition in hospital receiving extensive ongoing medical treatment.

fatwa

“We are extremely relieved that yesterday he was taken off the ventilator and additional oxygen and he was able to say a few words.

“We are so grateful to all the audience members who bravely leapt to his defence and administered first aid, along with the police and doctors who have cared for him and for the outpouring of love and support from around the world.”

Sir Salman was ambushed on stage at a literary event in New York state on Friday

Sir Salman, 75 – who had lived under a fatwa death sentence for 33 years – was ambushed on stage at a literary event in Chautauqua in New York State.

He was stabbed 12 times, including in the face, neck, chest and abdomen. One of the blows pierced his eye, another punctured his liver.

Iran’s supreme leader Ayatollah Khomeini issued a global fatwa – or legal ruling – ordering the writer’s execution following the 1988 publication of The Satanic Verses.

The author was deemed to have committed blasphemy against Islam through his “irreverent” depiction of the Prophet Muhammad in the book.

Earlier this month Sir Salman said in an interview that he considered his life was “very normal again” after years of hiding and death threats. He told German magazine Stern the threats “have become more normal” but that the 1989 execution order – carrying a £2.5million bounty – no longer scared him. He added: “A fatwa is a serious thing.

“Luckily we didn’t have the internet back then. The Iranians had send the fatwa to the mosques by fax. That’s all a long time ago.

Sir Salman, who became an American citizen in 2016 and lives in New York, was due to deliver a lecture on artistic freedom at Chautauqua Institution on Friday when a man rushed the stage and stabbed him.

The suspect, 24-year-old Hadi Matar of Fairview, New Jersey, pleaded not guilty to charges of attempted murder and assault at a court appearance on Saturday.

MENDY:

“These women were disposable – things to be used for sex, then thrown to one side.”

Saha, of Eccles, Greater Manchester, denies eight rapes and four sex assaults against eight women.

“Saha was Mendy’s friend and ‘fixer’, said Cray. One of Saha’s jobs was to find young women and to create the situations where those young women could be raped and sexually assaulted. The acts show callous indifference to the women.”

Mr Cray said the jury would hear from 13 alleged victims, adding that to the two defendants “No” was “not even an option” when it came to consent.

He said Mendy’s home had a cinema, pool and gym and was 17 miles outside Manchester. It was where most of the attacks allegedly occurred.

Mr Cray said the mansion was “isolated or so many of the witnesses thought...with the gates locked behind them, they felt vulnerable.” He said the women had their phones removed and many were drunk – and “the defendants wanted them to be drunk”.

The jury heard one woman ended up there after going to Manchester for food and drinks with defender Mendy and another man.

Mr Cray said she had made it very clear she was not interested in Mendy: “The next day, she was having a shower when Mendy entered the bathroom and started to touch him-self in front of her.” The prosecutor said she was unable to leave the room and ended up on Mendy’s lap on a bed. He said: “She was unable to get away from him.”

The jury was told of a pool party, a nightclub trip and a post-club party at the house on July 23

MENDY: most of the alleged attacks happened at his home outside Manchester and 24, 2021.

Mendy is accused of raping three women of 22 and two aged 19.

It is claimed as Mendy, who is suspended by his club, raped one drunk 19-year-old he warned her: “Don’t move, don’t move.”

Mr Cray said it made “no difference” if the women were young, drunk or in obvious distress – one was allegedly raped three times in an evening. He said the jury had to consider if the women consented to sex and if the defendants believed they were consenting, or “just did not care”.

The trial continues.

The Queen will be at Balmoral for her annual summer break.

However, during their stay she also intends to fly back to London for two or three days around September 5 to meet the new Prime Minister.

It is almost certain that Harry, 37, and Meghan, 41, will want to see the 96-year-old monarch, but it is not clear yet if the Queen will have time.

One source said yesterday: "There are a lot of moving parts to deal with in those days."

memoir

The Sussexes will head to Germany for a 2023 Invictus Games event in Dusseldorf on September 6, before returning to two days later for the WellChild Awards in London, where Harry will deliver a speech.

There are currently no plans for the Sussexes to meet the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. The rift between Prince Charles's two sons shows no sign of healing.

Hopes of a reconciliation have been damaged by the revelation that Harry has written a memoir, due to be published before the end of the year.

The book is expected to reopen wounds over the Sussexes' claim of racism inside the Royal Family and allegations that Meghan bullied palace staff.

MEGHAN AND HARRY: set for a visit to Britain in September

Heathrow passenger cap remains in place

Heathrow is capping passenger numbers for six more weeks. No more than 100,000 travellers can depart daily until October 29.

The west London airport said the cap imposed last month had resulted in "fewer last-minute cancellations" and "shorter waits for bags".

It was to be scrapped on September 11.

Heathrow, which says it has only 70 per cent of pre-pandemic ground handlers, added the measure "could be lifted earlier should there be a sustained picture of better resilience".

Guy Hobbs, editor of Which? Travel, said the extension may prevent more last-minute cancellations but "thousands of people will now be anxious about whether their travel plans could be scuppered."

"Aviation and the Government need to ensure this mess is sorted out – passenger caps cannot be allowed to continue indefinitely."

Why you need dental insurance in retirement.

Medicare doesn't pay for dental care.<sup>1</sup>
As good as Medicare is, it was never meant to cover everything. If you want protection, you need to purchase individual insurance.

Early detection can prevent small problems from becoming expensive ones.
The best way to avoid large dental bills is preventive care. Experts recommend checkups twice a year.

Previous dental work can wear out.
Your odds of having a dental problem only go up as you age.<sup>2</sup>

Treatment is expensive — especially the services people over 50 often need.
Unexpected bills, like $189 for a filling, or $1,219 for a crown<sup>3</sup> can be a real burden, especially if you're on a fixed income.

When you're comparing plans ...

- ▶ Look for coverage that helps pay for major services.
- ▶ Look for coverage with no deductibles.
- ▶ Shop for coverage with no annual maximum on cash benefits.

Simply put — without dental insurance, there may be an important gap in your healthcare coverage.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF: ESTHER COOK SHERMAN AKA ESTHER SHERMAN AKA ESTER SHERMAN CASE NO. 21STPB05357

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of ESTHER COOK SHERMAN AKA ESTHER SHERMAN AKA ESTER SHERMAN.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by YOLA SHERMAN in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that YOLA SHERMAN be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 09/06/22 at 8:30AM in Dept. 29 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Brits in LA

Celebrating a rather big milestone!

Brits in LA turned 15 this week!

A big thank you to everyone who has joined us on this journey. When we first started out we had no idea that we would last this long and certainly didn't consider we would one day have over 17,000 members!

I think our first official event was 'Brits go to Mexico'. Craig and I rounded up a small group of approximately 20 - 30 people and hung out at a Mexican restaurant in Beverly Hills. It was such a nice night that we organized another jaunt. This one was called "Brits go to Memphis" which as I am sure you can guess was at a Southern style restaurant, this time over in Hollywood. To our surprise a huge crowd showed up - attendees from the last event brought their friends and everyone had so much fun they made us promise to organize another night out. Which of course we did!

Our initial plan was to explore the city of Los Angeles together and issued our friends an open invitation to join us. Looking back, I think one of the reasons for the popularity of our gatherings was that the majority of our circle were new to town and wanted a guide but the key component was the advancement in technology. We had all just got the hang of texting, instant messaging and following each other on MySpace. Not to mention the introduction of the Blackberry phone which really did give you the whole world at your fingertips.

along comes FB

Then along came Facebook and suddenly friends were able to invite their friends to our meet ups and before you knew it we were at 400 members. It only took a couple of years before we were in the thousands. With hindsight I would say the main reason we grew so rapidly is because of our open door/everyone is welcome policy. We always said 'you don't have to be British, you just have to like us' whereas most organizations required you to fit a certain criteria - e.g. be a British expat, alumnus, an actor or at least in the industry and more often a rather steep membership fee to even get a look in. A lot of this still stands today - which can make it really difficult for those of us not in 'the business' to find a community we can fit into. Los Angeles can be such a daunting place, especially if you don't really know anyone.

Brits helping Brits

Over the years we've had countless people

THE WAY THEY WERE: Eileen and Craig shortly after founding Brits in LA contact us because they are in some kind of bind and they mostly want just a bit of advice but didn't know where else to go - so don't forget we are always here for you, and if it's not urgent head over to our Facebook forums as our members are a mine of information and most can give far better advice than either Craig or I could.

As you can imagine this milestone has reminded me of how extremely proud and grateful I am to Brits in LA as I think my LA story could have been a very different one if it wasn't around and I know many of you feel the same way. So let's keep up the good work and see how we can build on it.

It is still just Craig and I running it so if any of you would like to get more involved please do get in touch - you can email us at hello@britsin.la. We definitely need some help planning our World Cup parties for later this year! Is it coming home (again)?

Cheers!

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF: ESTHER COOK SHERMAN AKA ESTHER SHERMAN AKA ESTER SHERMAN CASE NO. 21STPB05357

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of ESTHER COOK SHERMAN AKA ESTHER SHERMAN AKA ESTER SHERMAN.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by YOLA SHERMAN in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that YOLA SHERMAN be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 09/06/22 at 8:30AM in Dept. 29 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012 IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

The undersigned or its predecessor caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (844) 477-7869 or visit this Internet Web site WWW.STOXPOSTING.COM, using the file number assigned to this case 096727-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 096727-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. # Transfer roundup: Wolves sign Nunes, Fulham agree terms with Kluivert

Wolves have announced the signing of the Portugal midfielder Matheus Nunes from Sporting Lisbon for a club record fee.

The Premier League club have agreed to pay Sporting an initial €45m (38m) for the 23-year-old, with a further €5m in potential add-ons. That eclipses the €35m Wolves paid Porto for Fábio Silva – now on loan at Anderlecht – in 2020.

Nunes arrives on a five-year deal with a one-year option, after two and a half seasons with Sporting. The Brazil-born player made his Portugal debut last year and has won eight caps, scoring one goal.

Nunes, who will join up with the squad before this weekend's away game with Tottenham, said: "I'm very excited. For me, I could play tomorrow already, but I can't because the game is Saturday, but I'm looking forward to it. I think the club itself [convinced him] and also I spoke to some of my teammates because I play with them for the national team.

"The coach as well, he really wanted me and I wanted to play in the Premier League. I think it's the right next step for me and I'm very happy to be here."

Fulham, meanwhile, have agreed personal terms with the Roma winger Justin Kluivert. The two teams have yet to agree a fee for the son of the former Netherlands striker Patrick Kluivert, but will continue discussions over the weekend.

Roma signed Kluivert from Ajax in 2018. Since then the Dutch forward has had loan spells with RB Leipzig in the Bundesliga and Ligue 1 side Nice. The 23-year-old scored four goals and had six assists in 27 games for Nice last season.

After winning the Championship last season, Fulham have welcomed eight new players to bolster their squad, including the former Arsenal No 1 Bernd Leno and the former Manchester United midfielder Andreas Pereira. The most notable signing so far was of the highly rated defensive midfielder João Palhinha from Sporting in a transfer that cost £20m. Marco Silva's side have had a good start in the Premier League after promotion, taking a point from both Liverpool and Wolves.

Joshua dismisses retirement talk

Anthony Joshua has defended his record as a heavyweight boxer and insisted he will decide how long he continues to fight for, amid suggestions he would have no choice but to retire were he to lose his rematch with Oleksandr Usyk here on Saturday night.

Joshua (pictured, right) faces Usyk with the intention of reclaiming the WBA, IBF and WBO titles the Ukrainian took from him via a unanimous points decision at the Tottenham Hotspur Stadium 11 months ago. Joshua was comprehensively beaten by an opponent of great skill and resilience in what was only his third fight at heavyweight following an era of dominance at cruiserweight, and few are predicting a different outcome when the pair clash again this weekend.

the London Olympics almost exactly 10 years ago.

Joshua firmly believes he can avoid a third defeat in his 27 fights, the other being his shock stoppage at the hands of Andy Ruiz Jr in June 2019, and instead is setting his sights on becoming a three-time heavyweight world champion, having previously reclaimed his titles with victory in his rematch with Ruiz Jr in Riyadh six months after their initial contest.

In his return to Saudi Arabia, the 32-year-old also addressed the idea that a second defeat to Usyk would be a fatal blow to his future prospects, insisting that is unfair in as much as it has his call.

"It's up to me at the end of the day, it's not up to anyone else what I do with my career," said

Joshua. "I don't have to do this. Why do I do it? It's because it's all I know."

United close in on Casemiro

■ United offer €60m (£50.7m) initial fee plus €10m add-ons for Madrid star

Manchester United are closing in on the signing of the Brazil midfielder Casemiro, with Real Madrid expected to accept an offer of €60m (£50.7m) plus add-ons.

Erik ten Hag's side have been looking to reinforce their midfield all summer, and were expected to finalize the deal after press time on Friday, after submitting an official offer late on Thursday evening. The fee could rise to €70m (£59.2m) if certain clauses are met.

Talks will now continue with the player's camp, with United offering a four-year contract plus an option to extend for a further season. Casemiro's current deal at Real Madrid runs until 2025. United's football director, John Murtough, is working directly on the deal after coming under pressure for a slow summer of transfer business so far.

Now 30 years old, Casemiro has won five Champions Leagues and four Spanish titles with Real Madrid after joining them from São Paulo in 2013. Real have recruited Aurélien Tchouaméni from Monaco this summer and retain an interest in Bruno Guimarães – but Newcastle will not entertain offers for their midfielder.

United sit bottom of the Premier League after defeats to Brighton and Brentford in their first two matches. The club have been working frantically to bolster Ten Hag's squad after their dismal start, having recruited Tyrell Malacia, Christian Eriksen and Lisandro Martínez earlier this summer.

Talk of a medical for Casemiro on Friday appears premature, which means he would not be registered in time for Monday night's Premier League clash with arch-rivals Liverpool at Old Trafford. If the deal goes through, the Brazilian will be reunited with former Real teammates Cristiano Ronaldo and Raphaël Varane in Manchester.

The board have more irons in the fire as United look to kickstart their ailing campaign, with PSV winger Gakpo, a player suggested by Ten Hag, still on their shortlist. United could also try and revive a move for the Ajax winger Antony, although the Dutch side are currently unwilling to sell.

Protests are planned against the Manchester

United owners before and during Monday's clash with Liverpool. Chemical CEO of chemicals giant Ineos, Sir Jim Ratcliffe, has publicly declared his interest in buying the club from the Glazer family.

Italian off the mark as Hammers take lead in Europa play-off

Gianluca Scamacca scored his first West Ham goal as they beat Danish side Viborg 3-1 in their Europa Conference League play-off first leg at London Stadium on Thursday night.

The Italy forward, (pictured, right) a £30.5m signing from Sassuolo, was handed his first start and took just 24 minutes to make an impact when he headed in following neat play on the left from fellow new arrival Maxwell Cornet.

It set the hosts on their way to a welcome first victory this season, having lost their opening two Premier League games without scoring a goal.

Jarrod Bowen zipped a second into the bottom corner from distance with 26 minutes to go but the visitors hit back immediately through Jakob Bonde's header.

That threatened to make life uncomfortable for the Hammers until substitutes

Said Benrahma and Michail Antonio combined for the latter to tap into an empty net and secure a healthy advantage going into the second leg.

That game will take place in Viborg next Thursday, with the winners joining the group stage of the competition when it begins on 8 September.

West Ham, without captain Declan Rice and vice-captain Aaron Cresswell - and with boss

David Moyes banned too - following a heated Europa League semi-final exit last season, handed a debut to defender Thilo Kehrer and first starts to Cornet and Scamacca.

It was the Italian, signed after scoring 16 goals in 36 games for Sassuolo in Serie A last season, who met Cornet's cross with a smart header after good work from the former Burnley man to open the scoring in an otherwise quiet first half.
