

ROYAL ACCLAIM FOR GB'S OLYMPIC HEROES

"Well done on all you've achieved, you've been an inspiration to us all."

THE King has hailed the "raw talent, true grit and hard toil" of Team GB after our sporting heroes matched the Olympic medal count from London 2012.

The curtain came down on the Paris Games on Sunday with British athletes winning a total of 65 medals – 14 golds, 22 silvers and 29 bronze – beating by one the haul from Tokyo three years ago.

The thrilling final day saw cyclist Emma Finucane taking bronze in the individual sprint to become the first British woman in 60 years to win three medals at a single Olympics. Emily Campbell completed the medal tally with a brilliant bronze in the 81kg+ weightlifting.

Charles, with Queen Camilla, released a moving message at the end of the two-week sporting extravaganza. He wrote: "My wife joins me in sending our warmest congratulations to the competitors and their support teams from Team GB, and across the whole Commonwealth, for their many outstanding successes at the Olympic Games in Paris. "Your achievements, across so many disciplines, were forged from that invaluable combination of raw talent, true grit and hard toil over many years, burnished these past weeks by sportsmanship and team spirit in the finest tradition of the Games.

'entertaining a nation'

"To those who missed out on the greatest prizes, you have most certainly not fallen short in the pride that you, too, have generated for your nations. As we thank France for hosting such a wonderful tournament and look to the Paralympics ahead, I can only say that you have all been an inspiration."

The Prince and Princess of Wales posted a video message on social media, which included an introduction by US rapper Snoop Dogg and a clip from David Beckham.

Kate, in a rare appearance due to her cancer fight, said: "From all of us watching at home, congratulations to Team GB."

And unshaven William, wearing a Team GB shirt, added: "Well done on all you've achieved, you've been an inspiration to us all."

Prime Minister Sir Keir Starmer posted: "You're bringing home more than just medals. You've inspired a new generation of athletes while entertaining a nation. Thank you."

'on top of the world'

Sunday's final sporting action began at 7am with the women's cycling marathon.

The first British medal came from Belfast-born Emma, 21, who had already won bronze in the keirin and gold in the team sprint. She beamed: "I feel on top of the world."

"This week has been a rollercoaster, so many highs and so many lows. That bronze medal felt like a gold medal to me."

The spirit of Team GB could not be better highlighted than in the performance of Nottingham's Emily.

Though she had hoped to upgrade her silver from Tokyo, the 30-year-old celebrated her third place with a cartwheel across the stage after lifting a personal best of 288kg in total. She said: "In Tokyo, I was new to the sport and enjoying things, it was a bonus medal. This one has come from the heart."

But cyclist Jack Carlin missed out on a medal after crashing at 30mph in the final straight of the men's keirin final.

On-stage prankster leaves Truss seething

Liz Truss walked off stage at a public event this week after a banner showing a picture of a lettuce and the words "I crashed the economy" was unfurled above her.

The former prime minister was on stage at Beccles Public Hall, Suffolk, when the banner appeared.

A video posted on X showed the speech being stopped and Ms Truss saying "that's not funny" before walking off stage.

The activism group Led By Donkeys claimed responsibility for the stunt, while Suffolk Police said a man had been arrested and released without charge.

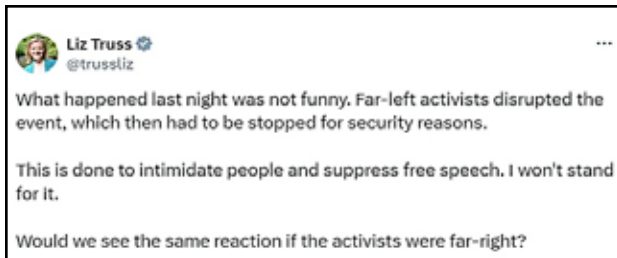

"Liz Truss is on a pro-Trump speaking tour. So we dropped a strategically-positioned remote-controlled lettuce banner," the group posted on social media.

"She didn't find it funny."

Ms Truss responded to the prank on X, claiming it was done to "intimidate people and suppress free speech".

Ms Truss was speaking in Beccles on Tuesday evening to promote her new book.

In the footage, she stops speaking when her attention is drawn to the banner behind her.

She is then heard to ask "what's that?", while the host said: "I have no idea where that has come from."

As she left the stage, laughter could be heard from some members of the audience, while others clapped.

'remain civil'

A spokesperson for Suffolk Police said: "A 50-year-old man was arrested on suspicion of burglary with intent to commit damage following an event at Beccles Public Hall and Theatre and was taken to Great Yarmouth Police Investigation Centre for questioning.

"He has since been released without charge and will face no further action."

Ben Stewart, co-founder of Led By Donkeys, who attended the event on Tuesday, said: "This is all about Liz Truss aligning herself with Trump and the far right in America."

"Sometimes, not always, but sometimes, one of the best approaches to the far right is to laugh at them."

Before the event, a spokesperson for Beccles Public Hall had urged people to "remain civil". An advert posted on Facebook last week said: "We recognise that people have differing opinions on politics.

"We would however encourage any dialogue to remain civil."

In 2022, during Ms Truss' 49 days as prime minister, the Daily Star newspaper created a live web-cam feed to test whether her term in office would outlast a 60p iceberg lettuce.

It was in response to her mini-Budget, which included £45bn of unfunded tax cuts and triggered economic turmoil.

Ms Truss lost the South West Norfolk seat, which she had held for the Conservatives since 2010, in July's general election.

"What Led By Donkeys did is the best thing I've ever seen happen at Beccles Public Hall," said Paul Williams, 54, a businessman in Beccles.

"I've seen increases in my mortgage payments and I'm sure everyone else has because of her mini budget.

"I fully back [Led By Donkeys] and I actually support them."

Leanne Howes, 43, visiting Beccles from nearby Lowestoft, defended Ms Truss' right to freedom of expression.

"I'm not a fan of Liz Truss but I think anyone who is on stage and expressing what they want to do have freedom of speech.

"We are entitled to say what we want... Everyone has the right to express how they feel, even if we don't agree with it," she added.

As Middle East tensions edge higher, officials scramble to move UK nationals out of harm's way

EMERGENCY plans have been drawn up by the Foreign Office to evacuate Britons from the Middle East if war breaks out.

In comments likely to alarm diplomats, Iranian President Masoud Pezeshkian told Prime Minister Sir Keir Starmer it has a "right" to attack Israel over the assassination of a Hamas leader in Tehran.

UK officials are now considering whether they will need to bring thousands back in the event of hostilities.

Embassy teams have been bolstered to assist with emergency plans and Border Force teams have also been sent to the region – as they were during the evacuation of Sudan and Afghanistan.

More than 1,000 military personnel have already been put on standby to possibly get Britons out of Israel and Lebanon, defence sources suggested.

A Government spokesman said: "While we continue to use all diplomatic levers to push for de-escalation, our staff are working around the clock to plan for all scenarios to keep British nationals safe. Our travel advice is constantly updated to reflect the latest guidance."

Western leaders have been urging the Iranian regime not to trigger an all-out regional war.

Intelligence experts have become increasingly concerned that Iran is ramping up preparations for a possible attack following the death of Hamas's political leader Ismail Haniyeh in Tehran.

A report by the Iranian news agency said President Pezeshkian had a late Monday night phone conversation with Sir Keir and added: "Pezeshkian stated that from the point of view of the Islamic Republic of Iran, war in any part of the world is not in the interest of any country, emphasizing that a punitive response to an aggressor is a legal right of states and a way to stop crime and aggression."

Mr Pezeshkian said that the West's silence about "unprecedented inhumane crime" in Gaza and Israeli attacks elsewhere in the Middle East was "irresponsible" and encouraged Israel to put regional and global security at risk.

Pezeshkian has acknowledged that he will follow the orders of Iranian Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, who has already said that Israel "paved the way for a severe punishment upon itself with this action".

Accusing Israel of having violated Iran's "sovereignty and territorial integrity" by killing Haniyeh in Tehran, Iranian Foreign Ministry spokesman Nasser Kanaani said in a statement shared on Telegram that calls for Iran to de-escalate "lack political logic" and "amount to open and practical support for the source of international crimes and terrorism in the region".

Two boys of 12 among those convicted following Southport riots

■ Pair are youngest rioters convicted of a criminal offence following widespread disorder across the UK

■ British justice system moves fast with almost 1,000 sentenced in past ten days to provide visible deterrent

TWO boys aged 12 have become the youngest rioters convicted of a criminal offence in the wake of the Southport attack.

The first youngster admitted two charges of violent disorder after throwing a missile at a police van and taking part in two separate incidents of unrest.

Magistrates heard the child, who cannot be named for legal reasons, was part of a group that gathered on July 31 outside a hotel housing asylum seekers.

petrol bombs

Prosecutors said the boy was "filmed by police kicking the front window of a vape shop" and was also seen kicking a bus as it drove past him in Manchester.

He will be sentenced at Manchester Magistrates' Court on September 2.

Another 12-year-old appeared at Liverpool Youth Court charged with violent disorder in Southport on July 30 and also pleaded guilty.

Jessica Pridding, prosecuting, said: "The defendant was seen on CCTV among the crowd and he appears on the footage to throw something towards the line of uniformed police officers carrying shields. He appears to mount a bicycle and ride away from the police officers."

He will be sentenced on September 17.

An 11-year-old boy has been charged with rioting and throwing petrol bombs after disorder in Belfast on July 15. He is due to appear at Belfast Youth Court on September 6.

Another man was jailed after punching a police officer in the face during disorder at an anti-immigration protest in Weymouth, Dorset.

'shameful disorder'

Jason Barry Francis, 38, was jailed for two years after pleading guilty to violent disorder and assault of an emergency worker at Bournemouth Crown Court yesterday.

Elsewhere, a man was jailed for two years and eight months at Sheffield Crown Court for his part in the rioting outside a hotel housing asylum seekers in Rotherham.

Ricky Hardman, 41, was arrested after a picture of him brandishing a piece of wood during the disorder on August 4 was published in a newspaper, a judge was told.

In Manchester, a man has admitted throwing a missile at police during "shameful disorder" in Bolton town centre on August 4. Niall Charnock, 31, was caught on social media footage breaking through a police barricade and throwing something at officers.

'celebrating'

At Teesside Crown Court, a 22-year-old who threw a vacuum cleaner through a house window and told a police officer, "I hope your children get raped", during riots in Middlesbrough was jailed for 26 months.

Thomas Rogers pleaded guilty to violent disorder and possession of an offensive weapon after he was seen throwing bricks at police. A teenager seen "celebrating" after throwing a rock which hit a police officer during riots in Darlington was detained for 18 months.

Meanwhile in Birmingham, a rapper who posted a video falsely accusing right wing ac-

15 months for housewife who told her FB group to "blow up mosques"

A housewife who told her local Facebook group to "blow the mosques up with adults in it" has been jailed for 15 months.

Julie Sweeney, 53, was one of a number of people appearing in court following rioting across the country sparked by misinformation about the killings of three girls in Southport.

At Chester Crown Court, Sweeney, 53, admitted posting the message from her home in Church Lawton, Cheshire, on August 3.

After she was arrested she said: "I'm not being rude but there are a lot of people saying it." Sweeney now admits posting the comment "in anger", insisting she had "no intention to put people in fear".

Sentencing, Judge Steven Everett said: "So-called keyboard warriors like her have to learn to take responsibility for their language."

Her jailing came as those held for allegedly being involved in the mayhem reached 1,024 with 575 charged. One judge said the leaders should face rioting charges with a 10-year sentence.

Judge John Thackray KC had to hand a three-year term to a yob who kicked a female police officer to the ground in Hull.

PRISON TIME: some of those already convicted and jailed for their part in rioting tivist Tommy Robinson of calling on people to attack mosques has appeared in court. Omar Abdirizak is charged with conveying information known to be false, intending to cause non-trivial psychological or physical harm.

But despite the government's determination to crack down swiftly and harshly on rioters, it has also emerged that many of them could be released from prison after serving just 40% of their sentence, Downing Street has admitted. The prison overcrowding crisis has forced ministers to take emergency action.

The 27-year-old Scot, his skin suit ripped, lay on the Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines Velodrome floor as medics rushed to his aid.

But he later said: "I'm all right. I'm just a bit sore, but that is part and parcel of racing. I mucked it up a little bit." Team GB finished the Olympics in seventh place. The athletes did not secure as many gold medals as previous games with the 14 this time compared with 22 in Tokyo and a record breaking 29 in London.

While it was an extraordinary performance from Team GB, it was even more so for Sam Reardon.

'non stop journey'

The accidental Olympian clinched two medals despite not knowing he would be competing until after the Games had started. Sam had been training at his local track at Bromley in South London, when he was called up as a replacement. A day later, he landed in Paris and by the end of the first weekend of athletics action, he had helped Britain's mixed 4x400m team to bronze.

And on the final night, he added men's 4x400m bronze.

Sam, 20, said: "It's been a crazy non-stop journey. I'm forever a double Olympic medallist. I could end my career here and be happy."

Thomas Bach, the International Olympic Committee president, revealed on Saturday he will stand down next year. World Athletics chief Lord Coe stopped short of officially throwing his hat in the ring but said: "I've always made it clear if the opportunity arose I would give it serious thought." Lord Coe, 67, and a former Tory MP, won four Olympic medals and is still the only man to have twice been crowned men's 1500m champion.

Scotch of the rocks!

Neolithic structure's famed Altar Stone transported from Scotland, new research reveals

THE iconic Altar Stone at Stonehenge came from Scotland, not Wales as previously thought – and may have been transported by sea, a study has found.

Research into the giant rock also suggests that long-distance trade networks existed in the Neolithic period some 5,000 years ago, say scientists.

It had been believed that the six-ton slab probably originated in the Brecon Beacons in Wales.

But Australian scientists now think that it hails from North East Scotland, more than 460 miles from its World-Heritage site on Salisbury Plain.

They employed advanced mass spectrometer devices to examine the composition of the Altar Stone.

The team's findings, published in the journal

Nature, point to the existence of "unexpectedly advanced" transport at the time of the stone's arrival in modern-day Wiltshire.

'chemical fingerprint'

Researchers from Perth's Curtin University studied the age and chemistry of mineral grains in fragments of the recumbent megalith. The 50cm-thick (20in) sandstone block measuring 5m by 1m (16ft x 3ft) sits at the centre of the landmark stone circle.

Study lead author Anthony Clarke said analysis matched the fragments with rocks from Scotland – and differentiated them from Welsh bedrock. He added: "This provides a distinct chemical fingerprint suggesting the stone came from rocks in the Orcadian Basin. The findings raise fascinating questions...as to how such a massive stone was transported over vast distances around 2,600 BC."

CREDIT WHERE IT'S DUE: It had long been believed that the six-ton slab originated in the Brecon Beacons in Wales

The PhD student revealed: "This discovery also holds personal significance. I grew up in the Mynydd Preseli [Preseli Mountains], Wales, where some of Stonehenge's stones came from. I first visited Stonehenge when I was one year old and now, at 25, I returned from Australia to help make this scientific discovery...I've come full circle at the stone circle."

Co-author Prof Chris Kirkland said the results had "significant" implications for understanding ancient communities: "Transporting such massive cargo overland from Scotland to southern England would have been extremely challenging, indicating a likely marine shipping route."

The study was done in collaboration with Aberystwyth University, Adelaide University and University College London. Prof Richard Bevins, of Aberystwyth, said the findings overturned the century-old view of the stone's origin, adding: "The hunt will still very much be on to pin down where exactly in the North East of Scotland the Altar Stone came from."

DOWN WONDER: healthy Aussies are living longer

THEY may be Down Under but their life expectancies are well over those of other English-speaking nations.

Research has revealed Australians outlive people in Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, the UK and the US by up to five years.

Most of the lifespan advantage accrues between the ages of 45 and 84 with death rates from drug and alcohol misuse, cancer, and cardiovascular and respiratory diseases all lower.

Experts said there are several explanations for Australia's high ranking, including the country's large proportion of people born overseas – nearly 30% in 2018 – from populations with high life expectancies. Other reasons include a low prevalence of smoking, public mental health initiatives and a highly rated healthcare system.

Study author Professor

Jessica Ho, of Pennsylvania State University, US, said: "Australia performs well. Overall, Australia offers a potential model for lower-performing Anglophone countries, such as the US and UK, to follow to reduce both premature mortality and inequalities in life expectancy."

Australia has a four to five-year life expectancy advantage over the US and a one to two-and-a-half-year advantage over Canada, New Zealand, Ireland and the UK. All regions in the UK and Ireland have life expectancies above 81 for women and 76.5 for men.

pleaded guilty to violent disorder and assaulting an emergency worker, after playing a "prominent role" on August 3. Hull Crown Court heard he led a group confronting police trying to protect a hotel housing asylum seekers and was seen charging at officers.

Whiteley was also in a group that targeted a garage, setting cars alight and threatening staff.

Sentencing him, the judge said: "The prosecution do need to look, for those who are playing front and central roles, at the alternative charge of riot rather than violent disorder."

In Sheffield, Glyn Guest, 60, was jailed for two years and eight months.

He pulled a female officer to the ground and grabbed her riot shield near a Rotherham hotel housing asylum seekers.

At the same court, dad-of-three Trevor Lloyd, 49, who was part of a mob that stormed the hotel, was also jailed for three years.

At Manchester Magistrates' Court, Warren Gilcrest, 52, was convicted of encouraging violence in the city's Piccadilly Gardens. He told a judge: "I'm guilty, Miss, but I'm not sure what it means."

In Birmingham, Habeeb Khan pleaded not guilty at the city's crown court to a charge of possessing an imitation AK-47 assault rifle with intent to cause "members of the [English Defence League]" to believe violence would be used against them.

Khan, 49, also denied sending a threatening communication on social media. He was remanded ahead of his trial in November.

The Crown Prosecution Service said it has worked around the clock to ensure people "face the consequences of their actions".

Graham Thorpe threw himself in front of train, inquest hears

English cricketing great had suffered long battle with depression and had attempted suicide before, heartbroken wife reveals

The former England cricketer Graham Thorpe died after being struck by a train at a railway station in Surrey, the opening of an inquest into his death has heard. The 55-year-old took his own life, his wife, Amanda, revealed on Monday.

Thorpe died on the morning of 4 August having suffered "traumatic injuries" during the incident at Esher railway station, Surrey coroner's court in Woking heard on Tuesday.

The area coroner for Surrey, Simon Wickens, recorded his cause of death as one of multiple injuries. He offered his condolences not just to Thorpe's family, but to "all those touched by his life and career". A date for the full inquest will be fixed at a later time.

The coroner had received a referral from British Transport Police. The force said previously: "Officers were called to Esher railway station at 8.26am on August 4 to reports of a casualty on the tracks.

Paramedics also attended, however sadly a person was pronounced dead at the scene. The incident is not being treated as suspicious."

Amanda Thorpe told The Times that her husband attempted suicide two years ago. "Graham was renowned as someone who was very mentally strong on the field and he was in good physical health," she said. "But mental illness is a real disease and can affect anyone. Despite having a wife and two daughters whom he loved and who loved him, he did not get better.

"He was so unwell in recent times and he really did believe that we would be better off without him and we are devastated that he acted on that and took his own life."

She and their two daughters – Kitty, 22, and 19-year-old Emma – have detailed his long-term battle with mental health in the hope this will inspire others to seek help.

Amanda said he always played down, especially to their daughters, his achievements. But she stressed the family held wonderful memories, how "Thor-

Graham Thorpe's widow described her husband as 'a free spirit' pey" treasured them and how he would "get up and dance anywhere, to anything".

Amanda went on: "That's the Graham I know and remember and loved. Graham was a free spirit."

She said she would now fight for others struggling with mental health issues by creating a foundation in her husband's name.

Kitty said of his health battles: "We are not ashamed of talking about it. There is nothing to hide. This is the time to share the news, however horrible it is. He loved us but he just couldn't see a way out."

Emma said: "I didn't really realise how good he was until reading all the tributes. If someone asked him what he did, he'd say he knocked a ball about a bit."

In reality, he hit 16 Test hundreds for England and represented his country 182 times.

Thorpe, who also had children Henry and Amelia from his first marriage, made his international debut in 1993 and retired from playing in 2005.

Local Consul-General Emily Cloke stepping down after four years

“I have been proud to champion and embed the UK’s values throughout our work and activities.”

AFTER FOUR years’ service as HM’s Consul General in Los Angeles, Emily Cloke’s term will step down at the end of this month.

Before joining the diplomatic service Ms. Cloke started her career as a lawyer in the City of London after studying law at Cambridge University. She later worked overseas as Trade Director for the British Embassy in Tehran, setting up and leading the UK’s trade section and strategy following the re-opening of the British Embassy in 2015, and as Head of Trade at the British Embassy Sweden, before coming to Los Angeles in 2020.

‘four wonderful years’

As the senior representative of the UK government in Southern California, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and Hawaii, her remit is to promote trade and investment, scientific cooperation, tackling climate change, creative and media collaborations and educational partnerships between the UK and the southwestern United States. She also oversees delivery of essential consular services to a 600,000-strong British resident community and British visitors.

Confirming her departure this week, Ms Cloke penned the following goodbye to members of the British American Chamber of Commerce:

“After four wonderful years as His Majesty’s Consul General for the US South West and Hawaii, my term comes to an end in August 2024. It has been an honour to represent the UK in such a dynamic part of the world and work closely with US partners to strengthen the UK-US relationship economically, culturally and diplomatically.

“I want to thank the British American Business Chamber LA – its board and members – for wonderful partnership and dedication during this time. From engaging business events and mixers, through to celebrations for the Queens’ Jubilee, King’s Coronation and the annual holiday lunch. A final event with Manchester United to focus on ‘Invest in Manchester’ was another fantastic example of the value our partnership can bring.

“Highlights in Los Angeles during my time as Consul General include the UK this year becoming the largest foreign investor in the State of California by number of jobs created;

signing economic Memorandums of Understanding with the City of Los Angeles and State of Utah; championing UK-US partnerships in the creative industries; working on longer term opportunities like the Olympic and Paralympic Games in 2028; and despite the impact of the pandemic initially, welcoming many VIP visitors to Los Angeles from UK Government Ministers, Parliament, CEOs and wider organisations.

‘incredible role’

“I have been proud to champion and embed the UK’s values throughout our work and activities. Wonderful initiatives I have been proud to champion include partnering with Northern Irish Charity Cinemagic to make a film in an LA School on tackling climate change;

Cloke also paid tribute to “the large and vibrant British community in Los Angeles who play an incredible role across all parts of society...”

our first Black Founders Trade Mission to California; championing Gender equity through a series of networking events and initiatives, and more.

“I also want to pay tribute to the large and vibrant British community in Los Angeles, who play an incredible role across all parts of society – and are leaders in business, academia, science, social and community issues, creative industries, foreign policy and more. You have been wonderful to partner with, and I have been proud to see what you accomplish.

“From a personal perspective, the US will always have a special place in my heart. My daughter has grown from a 1 year old to a 5 year old with a lovely British-American blended accent, epitomising the UK-US special relationship!

“Thanks again for all that you do.”

Why you need dental insurance in retirement.

Medicare doesn’t pay for dental care.¹

As good as Medicare is, it was never meant to cover everything. If you want protection, you need to purchase individual insurance.

Early detection can prevent small problems from becoming expensive ones.

The best way to avoid large dental bills is preventive care. Experts recommend checkups twice a year.

Previous dental work can wear out.

Your odds of having a dental problem only go up as you age.²

Treatment is expensive — especially the services people over 50 often need.

Unexpected bills, like $190 for a filling, or $1,213 for a crown³ can be a real burden, especially if you’re on a fixed income.

When you’re comparing plans ...

▶ Look for coverage that helps pay for major services.

▶ Look for coverage with no deductibles.

▶ Shop for coverage with no annual maximum on cash benefits.

Simply put – without dental insurance, there may be an important gap in your healthcare coverage.

Smarty Pints

With at least 14 teams battling for the trivia title each week, you've got to be smart to win Brits in LA Pub Quiz.

And the brainiest of the bunch last time out at O'Briens in Santa Monica were Rogue Rubbers, pictured here with quizmaster Sandro Monetti (above).

But everyone's a winner at this game with prizes for various teams and a good time had by all.

Join the fun at the Santa Monica pub next time - Tue Aug 20 at 8pm - all welcome.

Stargazing with Annie Shaw

ARIES: Now you are ready to make some kind of move, probably because life has been somewhat stagnant of late. Good news is you will have more energy by later in the month.

TAURUS: For some of you, your relationships have not been all you desired. This can be in any area. So it's up to you as you can be the mellow influence that's needed.

GEMINI: You are under some kind of deadline and even if it's one you put there yourself it should be completed. The Sun is on your side in Leo so the outcome should not be a problem.

CANCER: You have had enough of some things in your life now. It's time to get moving to change the situation. The Sun in your house of financial affairs will move things forward soon.

LEO: You are due for an overall boost in your life. Since you are the one responsible to make the changes get a move on and get going. Do not hold on to old hurt feelings. Happy Birthday!

VIRGO: Stress is no stranger in your life and is probably more of a problem these past couple of weeks. This is due to Mercury your boss in house backing up. Have courage and let go.

LIBRA: Soon the Sun will head into Virgo. This is your time to get ready to let go and change things that no longer serve you. Venus your lovely boss is ready to follow the Sun so get ready to move quickly.

SCORPIO: Procrastination is not a choice for you right now. It is time to make a decision or surrender. These next few days can be an especially good time with some positive financial news.

SAGITTARIUS: Now you may be prompted to get on with the changes that you are hoping to make. Sooner is better, however you have to be sure it's overall the right time.

CAPRICORN: You are probably in a better place financially (or soon will be). The Sun heading into your cousin sign of Virgo will help you move forward. Look at what you can do and let the rest go.

AQUARIUS: This is not the time to get bent out of shape in any way so get going on releasing anything that is (or could be) holding you back. Time for a time out!

PISCES: You may feel like hibernating or at least laying low. Do not make long term decisions.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF C KENNETH GRAILER AKA CHARLES KENNETH GRAILER

CASE NO. 24STPB08532

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: C KENNETH GRAILER AKA CHARLES KENNETH GRAILER A Petition for Probate has been filed by MARY JO FEHR in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

The Petition for Probate requests that MARY JO FEHR be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 9/12/2024 at 8:30 A.M. in Dept. 5 Room N/A located at 111 N. HILL STREET, LOS ANGELES, CA 90012.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 855 238-5118 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-20-886871-AB. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 855 238-5118, or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-20-886871-AB to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE OWNER-OCCUPANT: Any prospective owner-occupant as defined in Section 2924m of the California Civil Code who is the last and highest bidder at the trustee's sale shall provide the required affidavit or declaration of eligibility to the auctioneer at the trustee's sale or shall have it delivered to QUALITY LOAN SERVICE CORPORATION by 5 p.m. on the next business day following the trustee's sale at the address set forth in the below signature block. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the Trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney. If you have previously been discharged through bankruptcy, you may have been released of personal liability for this loan in which case this letter is intended to exercise the note holders right's against the real property only. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF THOMAS MacLEAN aka THOMAS MACLEAN

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of THOMAS MacLEAN aka THOMAS MACLEAN

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Jessie McLachlan in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Jessie McLachlan be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Sept. 26, 2024 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 99 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Tom Daley hangs up his trunks

Tom Daley has announced his retirement from diving as Team GB's Olympic superstars returned home from Paris 2024 to a rapturous welcome.

Five-time medallist Daley, 30, confirmed the end of his competitive career, retiring as Britain's most decorated diver ever.

The Olympians arrived back in London on the Eurostar on Monday morning, disembarking at St Pancras station where they were met by fans and London Mayor Sadiq Khan.

met by cheers from waiting fans.

For Daley, it was a bitter-sweet moment as he confirmed his retirement, while also revealing he had accidentally left his silver medal behind in Paris.

Having stepped away from the sport in 2021 after the Tokyo Olympics, Daley made a return last year at the request of his son. His appearance in Paris made him the first British diver to compete at five Olympics.

Daley, who won Olympic gold at the Tokyo Games, said: "There was a lot of pressure and expectations. I was eager for it to be done.

"But when I walked out, and saw my husband and kids and my friends and family in the audience, I was like, you know what? This is exactly why I did this."

Asked what he would do next, he said he intends to spend more time with his children - and his knitting.

Triathlon gold medallist Alex Yee told the awaiting media he didn't have much time off to celebrate his big victory.

The Paris sensation said: "Well, we've got a race on Saturday. It's non-stop for us triathletes."

And it's goodbye from him: Tom Daley arrives London's St. Pancras Station this week

Delight for de Ligt at Ten Hag reunion

MATTHIJS de Ligt says Erik ten Hag will get the best out of him after sealing his £42.9million switch to Manchester United from Bayern Munich this week.

The club confirmed De Ligt's capture just minutes before announcing Noussair Mazraoui's £17m arrival from Bayern – to take their summer spending to close to £150m.

De Ligt, 25, is looking forward to teaming up with his former Ajax manager Ten Hag.

The Netherlands centre-half, who has signed a five-year deal with the option of another season, said: "As soon as I heard United wanted me, I felt an excitement about the opportunity for a new challenge at such a historic club.

"In the conversations that followed, I was impressed by the vision the football leadership set out and the role they saw for me in it.

"Erik ten Hag shaped the early stages of my career, so he knows how to get the best out of me and I cannot wait to work with him again. I know what it takes to succeed at the highest level. I'm determined to continue that record at this special club."

Mazraoui, 26, who has also agreed a five-year contract with a further 12-month option, also played under Ten Hag at Ajax.

The Morocco right-back said: "Erik ten Hag played an important part in my development as a player, so it's exciting to be reuniting with him as I enter the prime years of my career. I know what he expects from his players and I'll give everything to help the group be successful.

"I know that I'm joining the club at an exciting time. Everyone I've spoken to has the same ambition for us to win trophies together and I can feel the determination to achieve that."

The pair are set to make their debuts in Friday night's Premier League opener against Fulham at Old Trafford.

Ten Hag is still in the market for a holding midfielder to sit alongside Kobbie Mainoo and United have identified Paris Saint-Germain's Manuel Ugarte, Burnley's Sander Berge and Monaco's Youssouf Fofana as options.

Luke Shaw has suffered another injury blow, which United say will keep him out until next month's international break.

Vardy fairy tale opens new chapter with top flight return

JAMIE Vardy finds himself back in the Premier League this month, in the unlikely position of leading his team's front line at the ripe old age of 37.

But the Leicester City striker is used to bucking the odds, only turning professional at 24 and later firing his team to a Cinderella Premier League title and earning several England caps.

Vardy sold the film rights to his life story years ago. The only reason it has not been made is that his rags-to-riches tale may still have a way to go.

If he can lead Leicester to Premier League salvation this season, that will surely provide a fitting pay-off.

Vardy grew up in Sheffield, was rejected by boyhood club Wednesday, played part-time and was convicted of assault following a punch-up outside a nightclub before his aptitude in front of goal began to surface.

Fast forward through spells at Stocksbridge Park Steels, Halifax and Fleetwood before he ended up in the East Midlands.

Since then, he has helped the 5,000-1 outsiders lift the Premier League trophy, tasted Champions League football, enjoyed FA Cup success and, after Leicester were relegated, he helped return them at the first time of asking.

Vardy's Foxes – with whom he has spent 12 seasons – are odds-on favourites to return to the Championship at the first time of asking.

They still have a possible points deduction hanging over them for financial breaches.

Enzo Maresca, the manager who led them into the promised land has quit for Chelsea and Steve Cooper – whose last job was at rivals Nottingham Forest – has been charged with keeping them there.

If Vardy can inspire the Foxes to keep their hard-won top-flight status, it must compare with his earlier exploits, but Father Time waits for nobody and his lung-bursting runs are a thing of the past.

High-class defenders are unlikely to be outpaced by someone his age.

It is in front of goal, though, where his ice-cold instincts still surface.

Injuries have led to fewer matches, but he netted 20 goals in 37 games last season to finish as the club's leading goalscorer.

first time in 2021. The format was invented with the expectation that each match would last around two-and-a-half hours.

Stokes had appeared to have returned to full fitness this summer after recovering from surgery on a left knee injury that had limited his ability to bowl.

Stokes opted out of the Indian Premier League and T20 World Cup to assist with his recovery, then led England to a 3-0 series victory over the West Indies, taking five wickets at an average of 34.20 in three Tests.

He played three times for Northern Superchargers during The Hundred, scoring just four runs and taking no wickets.

England host Sri Lanka in the first Test at Emirates Old Trafford from 21-25 August, followed by matches at Lord's and the Kia Oval.

After Pakistan, Brendon McCullum's side face New Zealand in three Tests across November and December, before a landmark 2025 that includes five Tests at home against India and an Ashes series in Australia.

"It's a big blow for Ben and England as he's captained the Test team remarkably well," former England captain Michael Vaughan told reporters.

"Let's hope he can get fit for Pakistan, then New Zealand, then everyone will be thinking about next year - fingers crossed Ben can get this injury right and have a fully fit 2025."

Gallas: Blues now an 'average' club

Former Chelsea star William Gallas has accused the club's owners of turning the Blues into an "average club" that no one fears.

The two-time Premier League winner (pictured, right) played at Stamford Bridge during their trophy-laden era, but that has all changed under Todd Boehly and Clearlake Capital.

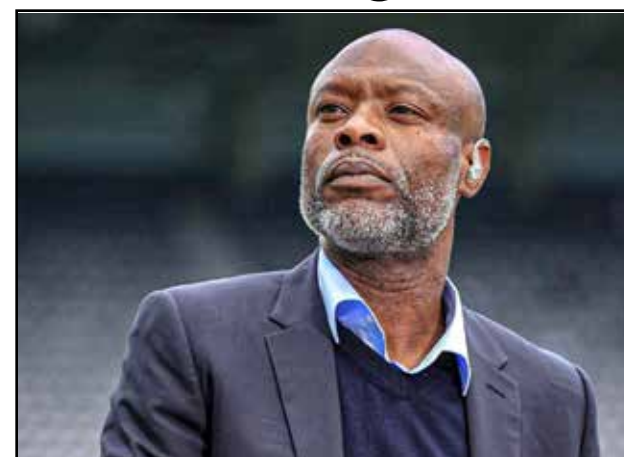

More than £1billion has been shelled out on new talent but Chelsea have had two of their worst seasons in recent memory and Gallas does not believe many would get near the Blues teams of old.

He said: "I'm looking at this squad and I don't see nearly enough quality. There are so many players in the squad that don't have the quality to play for Chelsea.

"I look at some of these guys and there is no way they would get into the best Chelsea teams from the past few years – half of them wouldn't get on the bench.

"These players aren't good enough to win a Premier League title and that should always be the aim of a club like Chelsea. Are they good enough to qualify for the Champions League? I have serious doubts."

BW SPORT/Community Shield

First blood to Pep's boys

■ City edge game United on penalties at Wembley in curtain-raiser as Walker declares: 'title is ours to lose'

Manchester City avenged their FA Cup final defeat by Manchester United as Pep Guardiola's side triumphed 7-6 on penalties after the Community Shield had finished level at Wembley last weekend.

Bernardo Silva levelled for the Blues in the final minute but then had City's first spot-kick saved by Andre Onana to give United the advantage.

However, Ederson saved Jadon Sancho's effort before veteran defender Jonny Evans fired over, allowing Manuel Akanji to secure victory in this competition for the first time since 2019 in front of 78,416.

Alejandro Garnacho thought he had given United victory nine minutes from time when he collected possession at the end of a flowing move deep into the City half, instiguated by skipper Bruno Fernandes, and then drove a low shot into the bottom corner.

Silva's initial bad-tempered response to that was to barge into Garnacho long after he had moved the ball on to earn himself a booking.

The Portuguese's next intervention was far more positive. As young Norwegian Oscar Bobb was spinning into space by the goal-line, Silva was pulling onto makeshift left-back Facundo Pellistri at the far post. Hardly the tallest, Silva had enough spring and intuition to climb above the Uruguayan and head in the equaliser at the far post.

It set up a climax that triggered elation in the City ranks and disappointment among the United support, many of whom left well before the trophy presentation.

The thrilling ending was hardly in keeping with a sometimes stodgy occasion as both sides struggled to reach their highest levels.

Both sides hit the post. James McAtee did so in the first half when he seized on a wayward Lisandro Martinez pass. Marcus Rashford did the same in the second, when he sent Garnacho's low cross against the base of the post with only Ederson to beat.

Following the win City defender Kyle Walker claimed a record fifth successive Premier League title for Manchester City "is our trophy to lose".

City begin their historic quest at Chelsea on Sunday and Walker believes no other side will ever have the chance to lift five consecutive titles.

The City skipper said: "I wouldn't say it's ego, but we've done this four times in a row, this is our trophy to lose.

"To go and do four in a row was a great achievement. Plus we won the Super Cup and Club World Cup as well.

"Why can't we do five in a row? Why can't we go and do something I don't think will ever be done again?"

Blow for England as Stokes out for the summer

Ben Stokes took over the England Test captaincy in April 2022

England Test captain Ben Stokes has been ruled out of the rest of the summer after tearing his left hamstring.

The all-rounder will miss England's three-Test series against Sri Lanka, which starts on 21 August, with vice-captain Ollie Pope to lead the side in Stokes' absence.

Stokes, 33, was left on crutches following the injury while batting for Northern Superchargers against Manchester Originals at Old Trafford on Sunday.

He is aiming to be fit in time for England's three-Test tour of Pakistan, which begins on 7 October.

Stokes, was playing in The Hundred, a 100-ball cricket tournament involving teams in major cities across England and Wales run by the England and Wales Cricket Board which took place for the
