TRAGIC DEATH OF UK TECH TYCOON

■ Much-loved Autonomy founder was “visionary unlike any other”

THE BRITISH tech industry was left stunned this week by the shocking death of tycoon Mike Lynch, who died when his luxury yacht was sunk by a freak storm off the coast of Sicily early on Monday.

Six bodies have now been brought to shore after the sinking of the 183ft luxury yacht Bayesian, which was hit by a waterspout while anchored off the fishing village of Porticello, east of Palermo.

The one person who is still missing is Mr Lynch's 18-year-old daughter, Hannah.

Of the 22 passengers and crew on board, 15 people survived the sinking, including a one-year-old child and Mr Lynch's wife Angela Bacares.

Lynch, his daughter Hannah, Morgan Stanley International bank chairman Jonathan Bloomer, his wife Judy Bloomer, Clifford Chance lawyer Chris Morvillo, his wife Neda Morvillo and the boat's chef Recaldo Thomas were lost when the Bayesian sank.

According to Italian law, officials are not allowed to share the names of the deceased until formal identification has taken place.

A decision on whether to raise the sunken yacht from the seabed is “not on the agenda”, but will be in the future, a spokesman from the Italian Coastguard has said.

“deeply saddened”

Vincenzo Zagarola told the PA news agency that the Italian Coastguard's working theory is still that the missing woman is somewhere inside the boat.

The wreck of the Bayesian is on the seabed at a depth of 164ft.

Rescuers have described the operation as “complex”, with divers limited to 12-minute underwater shifts.

In a statement confirming their parents' deaths, the Bloomer family described the couple as “incredible people and an inspiration to many”.

Mr Thomas was described by his friend, Gareth Williams, as being a “well-loved, kind human being with a calm spirit”.

A spokesperson for Clifford Chance, the law firm where Chris Morvillo was a partner, said the team was “in shock and deeply saddened”.

Mike Lynch had been a significant figure in the UK tech industry since helping to establish Cambridge Neurodynamics - a firm that specialised in using computer-based detection and recognition of fingerprints.

Five years later, he

Autonomy founder Mike Lynch was described as “the Steve Jobs of Britain”

co-founded the British tech firm Autonomy. In 2011, Lynch made his riches by selling his company to US computing giant Hewlett-Packard (HP) for $11bn (£8.6bn).

But an intense legal battle following the high-profile acquisition loomed over Mr Lynch for over a decade. He was acquitted of multiple fraud charges in the US in June, over which he had been facing two decades in jail.

The yacht trip with family and friends has been described as a celebration of his acquittal. Those who have paid tribute to Mr Lynch – dubbed “the Steve Jobs of Britain” – include BBC director general Tim Davie and fellow co-founder David Tabizel.

Mr Davie called Mr Lynch, who served as a non-executive director for the BBC in 2007, “wise, generous and insightful”, adding that he had played a key role in the Corporation's digital transition.

The chief executive of legal AI company Luminance, Eleanor Lightbody said its founder Mike Lynch, was a “visionary unlike any other”.

And fellow co-founder of Autonomy, David Tabizel, called Mr Lynch a “human supercomputer” and a great polymath with an inquisitive mind.

“To me he's the Steve Jobs of Britain. I miss him. I loved him.”

News from Britain

How the son of a firefighter battled to become the king of silicon fen

MIKE Lynch was once described as Britain's Bill Gates and was feted in the worlds of technology, business, politics and sport.

A self-made man, 59, he became the "King of Silicon Fen" – the Cambridge epicenter of England's tech industry.

He made a £500million fortune when he sold Autonomy, his digital analysis business, to Hewlett Packard for £7billion in 2011.

The deal turned sour when HP accused him of falsifying the company's profits through fake accounting procedures – but his response was that HP had run the business badly.

Mr Lynch was extradited to the US after a 12-year legal battle in May last year. But in June he was found not guilty on 15 counts by a jury in San Francisco. He said afterwards he feared he would die in a US jail and crusaded against the extradition procedure between the UK and US. The Irish-born multi-millionaire grew up the son of a firefighter and a nurse in Chelmsford, Essex.

His father told him "not to get a job that involved running into burning buildings" which he took as "good advice".

Aged 11, he won a scholarship to the private Bancroft's School in Woodford Green, London, where his intelligence took him on to Christ's College, Cambridge. He followed a degree in natural sciences with a PhD in mathematical computing and took a research fellowship.

One tutor recalled: "Mike didn't do any work at all until a quarter of an hour before the exam. But he would always come up with very creative solutions."

In the late 1980s, Mr Lynch formed Lynett Systems, producing software for the music industry. He is said to have secured a £2,000 loan "from what we called in those days an English eccentric".

Mr Lynch added: "He made a lot of money discovering a rock band but by then his life consisted of sitting in a Soho wine bar. I met him about six in the evening, by which time he was well on his way. He lent me £2,000."

Mr Lynch founded Cambridge Neurodynamics, a firm that developed fingerprint recognition technology that could do in five minutes what a team of 30 people needed three weeks to do.

In 1996, he formed Autonomy with Richard Gaunt, a South African mathematician.

Their key insight was that the probability equations of an 18th century minister, Thomas Bayes, could be used by computers to search and understand unstructured data. Bayes' theories have been adopted in the industry but Mr Lynch was the first to recognise the potential and put it to use. He renamed the superyacht "Bayesian".

Mr Lynch was awarded an OBE in 2006, took a seat on the BBC board, became an adviser to former PM David Cameron and a multi-million-pound sponsor of the Mercedes Formula One team as well as Tottenham Hotspur. In his spare time, he built model railways and bred koi carp while indulging a passion for James Bond, driving an

Oldies have a 'menty B' over Gen Z's lingo

A HOST of abbreviations sweeping the nation are leaving Brits confused, with no idea what "Savvy B", "Panny D" and "Jackie P" mean.

Research found that most people over 50 are in the dark about the phrases being increasingly used by millennials and Gen Z.

And 45% of all ages admit being in the dark over abbreviations such as "Holijobs" (holiday work), "Cozzie Livs" (cost of living) and "Banny Hols" (bank holiday).

It is even baffling tourists and has led to calls for new phrase books to be made to deal with the problem.

And research by tour company Evan Evans found a third of millennials find the phrases confusing.

Just 5% knew "Corrie Nash" was a term used for the King's Coronation.

Some 24%, perhaps understandably, think it means "watching back-to-back episodes of Coronation Street".

Savvy B

Meanwhile 3% thought it was a curry dish, whilst 2% guessed it meant a singer from Nashville. Other baffling terms include "Platty Joobs" (platinum jubilee), "Panny D" (pandemic), "Jackie P" (jacket potato) "Savvy B" (Sauvignon Blanc) and "Menty B" (mental breakdown).

Google Trends figures confirm how people are turning to the internet to help them understand abbreviations.

Searches for "Cozzie Livs meaning" increased by 60% over the last year, whilst "Geny Lec" (general election) searches jumped by 100% between May and July this year.

A blog post on British slang words on Evan Evans's website has become its most viewed page and it has now introduced a guide on abbreviations to help tourists and UK residents alike.

Kayon Hibbert, of Evan Evans, said: "It's fascinating to see how common words and phrases are being developed in the 2020s."

19,000 across Channel so far this year

Over 19,000 migrants have crossed the Channel in small boats this year, including 500 at the weekend.

The numbers heap more pressure on Sir Keir Starmer to end the crisis. Meanwhile, there were claims of "guerilla warfare" in Grand-Fort Phillipe on the French coast near Calais amid rising violence between police and those hoping to cross to Britain.

So far this month 2,185 have crossed the Channel in 41 dinghies. On Saturday eight people had to be rescued by French authorities off Calais and Boulogne-sur-Mer, and 492 arrived in the UK after being picked up by Border Force officials.

Since Sir Keir arrived at No10 some 5,500 have made the journey.

The Home Office said: "The new Government is taking steps to boost our border security, setting up a new Border Security Command."

Andrew Tate put under house arrest

■ New allegations emerge against controversial influencer

The controversial internet influencer Andrew Tate has been placed under house arrest by a Romanian judge, as prosecutors investigate new and serious allegations, including sex with a minor and trafficking underage persons.

He and his brother Tristan appeared in court on Thursday afternoon. Tristan Tate was placed under special judicial control.

Prosecutors had asked the judge to remand the brothers in custody for 30 days while they continued a new investigation involving a total of 35 alleged victims, including a woman who was 15 at the time.

In a statement, Romania's agency against organised crime, DIICOT, said six people had been detained in total, both Romanians and foreigners.

Andrew Tate made a furious statement to the press outside denouncing the case against him as a "stitch-up" and lies.

"This is a set-up. It is absolutely disgusting. Thirty of those girls say we have done nothing wrong. Two are the mothers of our children, two have never even been here to Romania" he said.

human trafficking

When pressed about the allegations of sex with a 15-year-old girl and trafficking underage persons by reporters, Tate, who carefully cultivates the image of a macho Alpha male, hurried away, refusing to reply.

The Tate brothers have previously been charged with human trafficking - and Andrew Tate charged with rape - and are awaiting trial on those charges. They were released from house arrest a year ago and told not to leave Romania.

They have always strongly denied any wrongdoing and deny the formal charges they face. These are new and separate allegations.

The anti-organised crime agency says the accused were grooming "vulnerable" people, who were then housed in different locations and forced to produce pornographic material for online broadcast.

One of the foreign men is accused of forcing a 17-year-old foreign citizen to "perform sexual acts" in order to make online video content. He is said to have kept all the $1.5m (£1.1m) profit. The statement does not name him.

The same man is accused of repeatedly having sexual relations with a girl who was 15 years old when they met.

Andrew Tate (center) was taken in custody late Wednesday night

After questioning for several hours at the DIICOT offices, Andrew Tate had previously claimed that the latest allegations were "pathetic" and that prosecutors were "desperate". He said they had "made up a lot".

He also said he was accused of "lover-boying" the mother of his children - a technique used by criminals to prey on victims' vulnerabilities and then exploit them.

A notorious misogynist with a giant online following, Andrew Tate has referred on Twitter/X to the case against him as some kind of mainstream "conspiracy" to silence him.

In the new statement, prosecutors accuse the brothers of buying four luxury cars, and registering them in the names of other people in order to hide the proceeds of what they describe as their illicit activity.

In total, it is alleged that the accused made some $2.8m through sexual exploitation.

Pakistan man arrested over false claims which sparked a riot

A PAKISTANI web developer is facing a criminal charge over claims he helped spread misinformation about the accused Southport attacker.

Farhan Asif, 32, is suspected of cyber terrorism after false details quickly spread online that the suspect was a Muslim immigrant to the UK, when in fact he was born in Wales and comes from a Christian family.

Pakistani police announced the charge and said Asif insisted he was not the original source of the mis-information, but reposted it from social media after

Taylor Swift gives some traumatized fans the treat of a lifetime

Taylor Swift invited young fans affected by the Southport attack to meet her backstage at her London concerts, it was revealed this week.

The US singer previously said she was "in complete shock" at the "horror" of the incident on July 29 when three girls were fatally stabbed at a Swift-themed dance class. Eight more children and two adults were injured.

Taylor, 34, contacted their families before returning to Wembley Stadium for the final European dates of her tour.

Some of those who were injured went to her shows at the weekend. As well as meeting their idol they were given merchandise in a bid to raise their spirits.

Taylor's mum Andrea was said to have been instrumental in arranging the meet.

The singer said in a statement after the stabbings: "The horror is washing over me continuously. I'm just completely in shock..."

"The loss of life and innocence, and the horrendous trauma inflicted on everyone who was there, the families and first responders. These were just little kids at a dance class.

"I am at a complete loss for how to ever convey my sympathies to these families."

The children who died were Bebe King, six, Elsie Dot Stancombe, seven, and Alice Da Silva Aguiar, nine.

Instructor Leanne Lucas, 35, who shielded youngsters with her body, was re-admitted to hospital for her injuries last week.

Her family posted an update on her fundraising page on Thursday, revealing that she had

Disgraced Prince Andrew dealt a fresh blow

King axes funding for 10-man personal security team

DISGRACED Prince Andrew has been dealt a fresh blow after the King axed funding for his 10-man personal security team.

The decision to lay off his guards is seen as a further attempt to persuade the jobless Duke to finally leave his Royal Lodge mansion.

Andrew, 64, still lives at the 31-room Grade II listed house in Windsor Great Park, Berkshire, despite a long-running attempt to evict him and his armed police protection being withdrawn.

King Charles has been funding private guards at the sprawling estate, formerly the Queen Mother's home, but it is understood his detail will be stood down in the autumn.

no way back

Andrew shares Royal Lodge with ex-wife Sarah Ferguson.

The latest indignity comes after the King is believed to have decided there was no way back for his errant sibling.

After the late Queen's death in September 2022 there was thought to be a glimmer of hope the Duke might one day return to royal duties.

But a royal source said:

"Everyone is speculating this means the Duke will have to leave the Royal Lodge because what other reason could there be to take his security away? They are all working the final weeks of their contract till the end of October. It's not thought anyone is being lined up to replace them. It isn't a secret that the King wants him out."

75-year lease

Duchess of York, Fergie, married Andrew at Westminster Abbey in 1986 in a wedding broadcast to a global television audience of 500 million. A crowd of 100,000 gathered to see the couple's first public kiss on the balcony of Buckingham Palace.

Their decade-long union produced two daughters, Beatrice, 36, and Eugenie, 34. The couple also have grandchildren August and Sienna, both three, and Ernest, one.

The Duchess describes their unconventional relationship as "the happiest divorced couple we know" with the pair spending more time together than when they were married.

Allies of the Duke claim his "cast iron" 75-year

King Charles has been funding private guards at the sprawling Windsor estate where Andrew has been living, despite a long running attempt to evict him lease on Royal Lodge is reason enough not to vacate the place he has called home for the past 20 years.

He is said to pay about £260,000 annual rent on the £30million property. But Charles, who gives Andrew £4million annually, reportedly wants to rent it out for £1million a year.

Claims emerged last year that Andrew could not meet the £400,000-a-year upkeep of the run-down Royal Lodge and it was reported that the Duke was told he must leave.

Instead he was offered the empty smaller Frogmore Cottage on the same estate where Harry and Meghan used to live.

Meanwhile, Palace sources have made clear Andrew "remains the King's brother" and is welcome at family events, but will never return to public duty.

The royal pariah was stripped of royal duties and patronages in the wake of a scandal in which Virginia Roberts, now known as Giuffre, said she was a victim of his paedophile friend Jeffrey Epstein's sex trafficking ring.

Ms Giuffre alleged he had sex with her in the London home of Ghislaine Maxwell when she was 17. Andrew has consistently and vehemently denied all allegations claiming he had never met her. He paid millions to settle a civil sex assault case on no admission of liability. The late Queen stripped him of his military affiliations and royal patronages in a move that saw Andrew, born His Royal Highness, no longer able use the style in any official capacity.

The Duke is currently staying with Charles at the Balmoral estate in Scotland where their mother died.

Yet despite outward signs of unity the family now headed by the elder brother is said to be adamant in its decision there is no way back and Andrew's public life is finished.

Visiting Southport, Charles tells of 'profound shock'

The King told of his "profound shock" and sympathy as he visited Southport where he met survivors of the knife rampage in which three little girls were killed.

Charles, 75, interrupted his traditional Scottish summer break at Balmoral to speak to those at the centre of the July 29 horror.

The monarch spent about 45 minutes in a private meeting with the survivors and their families before signing a book of condolence opened soon after the attack.

He used his own fountain pen to write his name and the date, then added: "In deepest sympathy."

Today the King will host a meeting with the families of victims Bebe King, six, Elsie Dot Stancombe, seven, and Alice da Silva Aguiar, nine, in London.

The children were stabbed to death as they attended a Taylor Swift-themed dance workshop in the Merseyside town.

Ten others, including eight children, were seriously injured.

Arriving to loud cheers and applause from the appreciative waiting crowds, he viewed tributes of flowers and toys outside Southport's town hall before going inside to meet the survivors.

He expressed his "profound shock" over the tragedy and spoke of his heartfelt appreciation of the way the community rallied round in its aftermath as he met emergency crews, faith leaders and those who opened their doors in extraordinary acts of kindness.

They included Diane, 50, and her husband Dan, 48, whose home backs on to Hart Community Centre, where the horror unfolded.

Their shocked 12-year-old daughter witnessed the events from a window at home.

Charles heard how the couple comforted the families of some of the victims – and continue to allow police to use their facilities.

Diane said afterwards: "It was a surreal conversation with the King, because we've opened our doors to the six or eight police officers who were manning the cordon each day.

"They get tea and coffee and food, but nowhere to go to the toilet. At night we leave our back door open for them to use the toilet too.

"The King laughed and I said, 'Well everyone's got to go!'

"The King said he was shocked, really shocked at what happened, and said it was kind of us to open our house. We

Liverpool to get £15m Sir Ken Dodd "Happiness Center"

Sir Ken Dodd's joke books, tickling sticks and other artefacts are to be preserved in a new £15m centre dedicated to the late comedy legend in his home city of Liverpool.

The Sir Ken Dodd Happiness Centre will provide a permanent home for his archive, as well as hosting comedy performances and events.

The four-storey centre will be attached to the city's Royal Court theatre, where Sir Ken regularly performed during his career. He died in 2018.

The plans were submitted in November and were approved by Liverpool City Council last week.

His widow Lady Dodd said he would be "honoured" and "amazed".

"I know he'd be thrilled to bits," Lady Dodd said, adding that her husband had helped to save the theatre from closure in 1979, and it is "in the city he loved and where he lived all his life".

The centre will have exhibition space for Sir Ken's possessions, like his Diddymen puppets and the notebooks that he filled with jokes and thoughts about his life and seven-decade career.

He left about 1,000 books, which he used to record jokes - marking the best with the acronym GOG for "good old gag".

He also made observations about the art of comedy, while some pages give insights into intimate and revealing thoughts.

However, he also left a lung infection and required surgery.

They said: "Leanne had barely begun her road to recovery. Please keep her in your thoughts and continue supporting her as you have been by sharing the page & donating anything you can."

Axel Rudakubana, now 18, from Banks, Lancashire, has been charged with three counts of murder.

Taylor's Wembley shows were her first live dates since an alleged Isis terror plot targeting her concerts at the Ernst Happel Stadium in Vienna was uncovered by police.

Three people have been arrested in connection with the plot.

Charles:

said it was the right thing to do.

"You don't imagine it happening in your own town, let alone at the end of your back yard."

Diane added: "We were able to be there, even in a small way, for one of the deceased parents. We were able to support them.

"I just said to them, 'If you want to come and sit in the quiet'.

"I won't repeat what happened or what was said, but as a parent, your heart goes out to them. It's heartbreaking.

"We are Christians and I've prayed for the families of the deceased but I've also prayed for [the accused's] parents."

Diane continued: "We think a lot of the Royal Family. [Charles's] visit shows that they have a compassionate heart.

"He's very easy to talk to, I was surprised. I think [criticism of him not coming down earlier] is undeserved. This was the right time."

The King appeared taken aback by the large makeshift memorial dedicated to the victims of the tragedy, gesturing in appreciation at its breathtaking scale.

I know he'd be thrilled to bits," Lady Dodd said of her late husband, who died in 2018 instructions for his wife to burn them after his death. But she decided to save them, explaining that they were "unique" and "invaluable".

The centre will also celebrate other comedians, because Sir Ken had always wanted to open a museum of comedy to honour the British sense of humour, Lady Dodd said.

"We will make sure that his dream comes to life, and it is a history of comedy as well as showing the artefacts."

The centre will be built on the site of the theatre's current Courtyard Bar, with the aim of opening in time for the 100th anniversary of Sir Ken's birth in 2027.

Royal Court chief executive Gillian Miller said: "There is no better city than Liverpool to create a centre for happiness and wellbeing in, and we are looking forward to delivering a unique building for the city that epitomises happiness."

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF C KENNETH GRAILER AKA CHARLES KENNETH GRAILER

CASE NO. 24STPB08532
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: C KENNETH GRAILER AKA CHARLES KENNETH GRAILER
A Petition for Probate has been filed by MARY JO FEHR in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

The Petition for Probate requests that MARY JO FEHR be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 9/12/2024 at 8:30 A.M. in Dept. 5 Room N/A located at 111 N. HILL STREET, LOS ANGELES, CA 90012.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for Petitioner: DAVID SCHECHET, ESQ., 1901 AVE OF THE STARS, 2ND FLOOR, LOS ANGELES, CA 90067, Telephone: 310-286-9925

Ailing Sven says goodbye to fans in touching film

STARING out towards the camera, Sven-Goran Eriksson knows he does not have much time left as he delivers a final poignant goodbye.

The former England manager, 76, who has pancreatic cancer, says: "I had a good life.

"I think we are all scared of the day when we die, but life is about death as well.

"You have to learn to accept it for what it is.

"Hopefully at the end people will say yeah, he was a good man. But everyone will not say that. I hope you will remember me as a positive guy trying to do everything he could do. Don't be sorry, smile.

"Thank you for everything, coaches, players, the crowds, it's been fantastic. Take care of yourself and take care of your life. And live it. Bye."

The emotional moment is the climax of a new Prime Video documentary which charts Sven's remarkable career as a football coach and what are expected to be his final months.

The 76-year-old managed England from 2001-2006 but also took charge of Mexico, Ivory Coast and the Philippines and club sides in Italy, China and his native Sweden.

Since becoming ill though, Sven has spent almost all his time at home in Sunne in Sweden and has reconnected with his family.

The film shows quiet happy days spent reading, playing cards and enjoying simple meals with his son, daughter Lina and partner of the last 15 years Yaniseth Bravo.

On a trip near his house last autumn, Sven pointed to the Fryken lake and said: "I always thought it's a great place to sleep. The ashes could be thrown into the water here. It feels like home."

Sven was not well enough to come to Lon-

Why you need dental insurance in retirement.

Medicare doesn't pay for dental care.<sup>1</sup>

As good as Medicare is, it was never meant to cover everything. If you want protection, you need to purchase individual insurance.

Early detection can prevent small problems from becoming expensive ones.

The best way to avoid large dental bills is preventive care. Experts recommend checkups twice a year.

Previous dental work can wear out.

Your odds of having a dental problem only go up as you age.<sup>2</sup>

Treatment is expensive — especially the services people over 50 often need.

Unexpected bills, like $190 for a filling, or $1,213 for a crown<sup>3</sup> can be a real burden, especially if you're on a fixed income.

The Joy of Trivia

Happy people, fun prizes and good times are always on the menu each Tuesday at Brits in LA Pub Quiz at O'Briens in Santa Monica.

Democrats for Humanity (pictured, top) were the winning team last time out, but they faced tough competition from a talented gaggle of teams, including The Latecomers (pictured, above). In the end everyone was a winner thanks to free samples for trivia players from drinks sponsor Irlandes Tequila.

All welcome to join the fun next time, Tuesday August 27, Sandro Monetti hosts.

Stargazing with Annie Shaw

ARIES: You might be feeling a bit too busy recently due to your boss Mars cruising through Gemini. This can bring forward past situations and people, so you resolve it soonest.

TAURUS: Time to sort out some things in your current headspace. Now that Mercury is heading forward soon it's time to clear out all the dead wood.

GEMINI: Now you are ready to do what is overdue in your general life. Mercury your boss is heading forward soon and while life is ok it might be time to get motivated.

CANCER: As a water sign you are likely feeling at odds of late and you may not know why. Not to worry, now that the Sun has moved in to organized Virgo life is bringing some resolution.

LEO: You are a leader so get your thoughts aligned and ready to start moving ahead now you are in your new year. Mercury in house going forward soon brings an unexpected opportunity to resolve a family situation.

VIRGO: Life in some way has been on hold and Mercury your boss is in house and about to go forward...meaning it's the perfect time to catch up and clean up. Happy Birthday!

LIBRA: You have likely of late found some new area of interest which is starting to eat up your time; but beware that you must finish off some outstanding stuff - either personal or professional - first.

SCORPIO: Your health is important now, however be sure you are not living on your nerves in this area. Make sure you take care of any issues in a timely fashion. You are about to get busier in most areas of life. Life will be more social soon.

SAGITTARIUS: This is your time of the year to check in on any area that needs attention. Your boss Jupiter in Gemini now will make you motivated to get things in order. Be cool and relax.

CAPRICORN: Life has been better and it will continue, however life did slow down somewhat. Mercury is in your cousin sign of Virgo and will move faster soon, bringing relief in some areas.

AQUARIUS: While times have been a little uncertain knowing you help other people should really help you in your own life. Try to give yourself some downtime and you will benefit by relaxing somewhat.

PISCES: While the karmic planet Saturn is living with you it is likely you will feel moody at times. Life is due to be more social soon so make sure you take time enjoy life...it's time.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 855 238-5118 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-20-886871-AB. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 855 238-5118, or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-20-886871-AB to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE OWNER-OCCUPANT: Any prospective owner-occupant as defined in Section 2924m of the California Civil Code who is the last and highest bidder at the trustee's sale shall provide the required affidavit or declaration of eligibility to the auctioneer at the trustee's sale or shall have it delivered to QUALITY LOAN SERVICE CORPORATION by 5 p.m. on the next business day following the trustee's sale at the address set forth in the below signature block. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the Trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney. If you have previously been discharged through bankruptcy, you may have been released of personal liability for this loan in which case this letter is intended to exercise the note holders right's against the real property only. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF THOMAS MacLEAN aka THOMAS MACLEAN

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of THOMAS MacLEAN aka THOMAS MACLEAN

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Jessie McLachlan in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Jessie McLachlan be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Sept. 26, 2024 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 99 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF MICHAEL E. MCCARDLE

Case No. 24STPB09026

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of MICHAEL E. MCCARDLE

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Marytelma Thompson in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Marytelma Thompson be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Sept. 26, 2024 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 99 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Award-winner Foden focused on more City success

PHIL FODEN has been honoured by his fellow pros – and then set his sights on even more success with Manchester City. Foden was crowned Professional Footballers' Association Player of the Year at an awards ceremony this week in Manchester after the England star helped City win a fourth consecutive title last season. That comes on top of Foden also being crowned Football Writers' Association Footballer of the Year – and Bunny Shaw made it a clean sweep for City as she also collected both awards on the women's side of the game. City also had Erling Haaland, Kyle Walker and Rodri in the PFA Premier League Team of the Year, with all the awards voted by PFA members. Foden said: "To win

Foden picked up his PFA Player of the Year Award on Tuesday night. "Last season was another very special one for everyone at the club, but now all our focus is on trying to achieve more success this term."

Felix in, Gallagher out at Blues

Chelsea have signed Portugal forward Joao Felix from Atletico Madrid for a fee in the region of £45m, with England midfielder Conor Gallagher going the other way for about £33m. Felix, 24, who has signed a seven-year deal to begin a second spell at Stamford Bridge, scored four goals in 20 appearances during a loan spell in west London in 2023. "I'm really happy to be back at Chelsea and I can't wait to get started," said Felix. "I can see some familiar faces from the last time I was here, which is always nice." Gallagher meanwhile has signed a five-year contract with the Spanish top-flight club. Gallagher joined Chelsea at the age of six and went on to make 90 appearances, scoring 10 goals. He had entered the final year of his contract at Stamford Bridge so Chelsea wanted to sell now to avoid losing him on a free transfer next summer. "To everyone at Chelsea, thank you for making my dreams come true," Gallagher wrote on Instagram. "It's been an absolute honour every time I put on the shirt, and it was a dream come true to captain the team on many occasions. I loved every moment. These memories will last forever. I appreciate all the love and support from the fans." But Chelsea's bloated squad means a mass exodus is on the cards with a week left in the transfer window, dring which the club hope to net about £200m. Among the big names in the shop window are Raheem Sterling, Ben Chilwell and Romelu

Kiernan Dewsbury-Hall, Guiu, Renato Veiga and Pedro Neto.

Portugal forward Neto, a £54m buy from Wolves, produced a bright performance and at times showed an explosive change of pace before being replaced by Madueke. There will be bigger tests to come for Chelsea, who were captained by Moises Caicedo - the other player, alongside Nkunku, who started Sunday's league defeat. But after a chaotic summer which has seen another change of manager and their transfer policy come under heavy scrutiny, the Blues were at least able to celebrate a victory.

Sterling, Chilwell, Wesley Fofana and Tosin Adarabioyo were all left out of Chelsea's squad for their Europa Conference qualifier against Servette on Thursday.

Trippier:

Trippier, who has 54 international caps, started England's first six matches at Euro 2024 but was dropped for the final in favour of Luke Shaw.

The former Tottenham player has two years to run on his contract in the north-east.

HERE WE BLOW!

■ Conference League win lifts Chelsea gloom

Christopher Nkunku's penalty helped Enzo Maresca earn his first win as Chelsea boss as the Blues secured a two-goal advantage against Servette in their Conference League play-off first leg on Thursday night.

A much-changed Chelsea side had been struggling to open up their Swiss opponents until Nkunku was sent sprawling by goalkeeper Jeremy Frick early in the second half.

The France forward, one of just two survivors from the Blues team that started the 2-0 home defeat by Manchester City on Sunday, picked himself up to score the first goal of the Maresca era from the spot.

The former Paris St-Germain player then celebrated in trademark fashion, producing a blue balloon which he inflated in front of jubilant Chelsea fans.

Chelsea should have doubled the lead moments later when Frick was caught dithering on the ball by 18-year-old Marc Guiu.

The Spain youth forward looked certain to score but lost his composure and Frick was able to get back and save.

However, substitute Noni Madueke did make it 2-0 with a ferocious 72nd-minute finish from a tight angle inside the penalty area.

Chelsea will be confident of finishing the job and advancing to the group stage of European football's third-tier club competition when they travel to Geneva for the second leg on 29 August.

There was relief around Stamford Bridge at the full-time whistle as Chelsea were made to work hard for their win and survived some awkward moments.

Servette registered 22 attempts to the hosts' 14, with substitute Tiemoko Ouattara hitting the bar with a deflected effort in the 86th minute.

However, Chelsea eked out a victory to help put the disappointing opening defeat by Manchester City behind them and get Maresca's reign up and running.

OVER INFLATED? Christopher Nkunku with his trademark celebration

"I was a bit worried because in the last 10 minutes we played a little bit with fire," said Mares-

ca. "It was good that we didn't concede but we can learn."

Trippier seeks Toon exit

Kieran Trippier joined Newcastle United in 2022 from Atletico Madrid

Newcastle United defender Kieran Trippier wants to leave the club this month in search of first-team football.

The 33-year-old England international was an unused substitute in the Magpies' 1-0 win against Southampton on Saturday.

Trippier, who joined the club from Atletico Madrid in 2022, is behind former Saints full-back Tino Livramento in the pecking order for the right-back position.

Newcastle blocked Trippier from leaving the club in January following interest from Bayern Munich and Saudi Arabia.

Trippier has been linked with a move to Everton to reunite with Sean Dyche, who managed him for three years at Burnley.

Asked about the links in a news conference on Thursday, Dyche said: "He's one of many names that has come up here."

"As if by magic, his name comes up when we don't have a right-back available".

Everton will be with cont. on page 19, col. 6
