Rolling with it: Oasis reunion confirmed

■ Gigs will mark 16 years since Liam and Noel Gallagher split after festival bust-up

NO MORE looking back in anger: rock's biggest will-they-won't-they finally has an answer. Oasis have announced that they will reunite for a 14-date tour of the UK and Ireland in 2025.

They will not, however, be headlining Glastonbury festival as was rumoured over the weekend, nor playing 10 dates at Wembley and the Etihad Stadium respectively.

Instead, the concerts will take place in July and August, at stadiums in Cardiff, London, Manchester, Edinburgh and Dublin. Tickets went on sale at 9am GMT today, with prices not available at press time.

A press release billed the dates as the "domestic leg" of the tour and said that "plans are under way" for it to go beyond Europe later in 2025.

Of the famously feuding Gallagher brothers' decision to reunite, the release stated: "There has been no great revelatory moment that has ignited the reunion – just the gradual realisation that the time is right."

In a joint statement, the band said: "The guns have fallen silent. The stars have aligned. The great wait is over. Come see. It will not be televised."

The dates for the 2025 UK and Ireland tour are: 4, 5 July, Principality Stadium, Cardiff; 11, 12, 19 and 20 July, Heaton Park, Manchester; 25, 26 July, 2, 3 August, Wembley Stadium, London;

8, 9 August, Murrayfield Stadium, Edinburgh; and 16, 17 August, Croke Park, Dublin.

The concerts will come 16 years after the band split acrimoniously when Noel Gallagher quit before a show at a French festival, and 30 years since the release of their second album, 1995's (What's the Story) Morning Glory? Unlike Liam Gallagher's continuing 30th anniversary tour of the band's 1994 debut Definitely Maybe, the setlist for the 2025 reunion shows will not be explicitly geared around that album.

Gen Z audience

The Oasis lineup has not been confirmed; the band also have no plans to re-enter the recording studio to make new music. The Gallaghers had been teasing the news on social media in recent days, sharing a clip of the date "27.08.24" in the same font as the Oasis logo on their respective social media accounts, as well as the official Oasis accounts.

Liam and Noel Gallagher have announced a 14-date UK tour for next year

The clip was also shown at the end of Liam's headline set at Reading festival last weekend, where he dedicated their 1994 B-side Half the World Away to Noel, and 1994's Cigarettes & Alcohol to people who say they hate Oasis.

The band are yet to go into greater depth about how they buried the hatchet in the years since Noel walked out at Rock en Seine in 2009. Since then the brothers have publicly sniped at each other and denied that a reunion would ever happen. In recent years, however, relations appeared to have softened: in 2017, Liam tweeted Christmas wishes at his brother and said he was "looking forward to seeing you tomorrow".

And this week, in a video to mark the 30th anniversary of their landmark Definitely Maybe release, Noel praised Liam's singing abilities. "When I would sing a song, it would sound good. When he sung it, it sounded great ... I can't sing Cigarettes & Alcohol, Rock'n'Roll Star and all that. I don't have the same attitude as him. My voice is half a Guinness on a Tuesday – it's all right. Liam's is 10 shots of tequila on a Friday."

Despite Oasis's inactivity, the band's legend has not waned: they have 21.6 million monthly listeners on Spotify and command a huge gen Z audience. Some have speculated that one motivation for a lucrative reunion might be Noel's recent divorce from his second wife, Sara MacDonald, in a settlement reported to cost around £20m.

Starmmer hints at ban on outdoor smoking

■ Proposed policy leaves hospitality industry fuming

Sir Keir Starmer has confirmed the government is looking at tougher rules on outdoor smoking to reduce the number of preventable deaths linked to tobacco use.

Responding to reports that smoking could be banned in some outdoor spaces in England, the prime minister said "we have got to take action" to reduce the burden on the NHS.

The details remain unclear but smoking could be banned in pub gardens, outdoor restaurants, and outside hospitals and sports grounds.

Health experts have welcomed the plans, but some ministers have raised concerns about the impact the ban could have on the hospitality sector.

Some business owners have already raised concerns. Pub landlady Lisa Burrage, 55, said pubs should be able to choose whether or not to go smoke-free and "it is not up to the government to make that decision".

NHS 'on its knees'

"This will be just another hurdle we have to face in hospitality and one we can do without," Ms Burrage said.

Tony Harding, 57, a publican in Salisbury, said residents who live near his pub would probably not be happy if his punters began smoking and "blocking the pathway in the street, instead of [using] my nice comfortable garden".

But the PM stressed the health impact in his message.

Tobacco use is the UK's single biggest preventable cause of death, killing two-thirds of long-term users and causing 80,000 deaths every year.

Health authorities also say there is no safe level of exposure to second-hand smoke.

VERY BRITISH: but smoking on pub terraces could soon be a thing of the past

Any new ban would apply only to England. It is not yet clear if it would apply to the rest of the UK though devolved governments could choose to bring in similar rules.

When questioned on the proposals, Sir Keir said the government was "going to take decisions in this space" and more details would be revealed.

"I think it's important to get the balance right," he said, adding that the NHS was "on its knees". The King's Speech at the state opening of Parliament last month promised to reintroduce legislation proposed by the previous government, which would have outlawed the sale of tobacco to anyone born on or after January 2009.

Search to begin for remains of British soldier executed by the IRA in 1977

■ Capt Robert Nairac was kidnapped, then killed and secretly buried while on undercover operation during The Troubles

A search is to begin for the remains of a British army captain and undercover officer who was kidnapped, murdered and secretly buried by the IRA in 1977.

Capt Robert Nairac was kidnapped by the IRA while on an undercover operation in The Three Steps pub in Dromintee in south Armagh close to the border. After a struggle he was taken across the border to a field in Ravensdale woods area in north Louth where he was beaten up and questioned before being murdered.

His body has never been found and the Grenadier Guard is considered to be one of 17 people known as the "disappeared" who were killed and secretly buried by the republican paramilitary group during Northern Ireland's Troubles.

In 2019, a preliminary examination of a site at Ravensdale Forest in County Louth was carried out.

The Independent Commission for the Location of Victims' Remains (ICLVR), which has located the remains of a number of the "disappeared", said it would be its first search for Capt Nairac.

It is to take place in the Faughart area, also in County Louth.

Jon Hill, the lead investigator of the ICVR, said that while Capt Nairac was one of the highest profile of the disappeared, they have had "very little to go on".

"We believe that we do now have sufficient credible information to warrant a search," he said.

It is unclear what new information has been passed on to the commission but former paramilitary members can give details to the ICLVR without fear of legal consequences under the terms of legislation that was enacted in both the UK and Ireland when the body was set up.

The commission is not saying where the search is taking place other than it will be on less than an acre of private farm land in the vicinity of the Hill of Faughart 14th-century battle site in north Louth.

As a result, the ICLVR said the search for Capt Nairac's remains may result in finding other historical and archaeological items.

Hill said: "I want to make it clear that neither the landowner nor the tenant have any connection whatsoever with our decision to search in this particular location."

Capt Nairac was born to an English mother and a father of French Mauritian origins, and was educated at Ampleforth and Oxford and graduated from Sandhurst. He did four tours of duty in Northern Ireland and his high-profile kidnapping and murder gave rise to all sorts of rumour and speculation including – falsely – that his remains were put through a meat grinder.

In 1979, Nairac was posthumously awarded the George Cross after reportedly refusing to break during his torture.

Tributes flow as Sven-Goran Eriksson dies aged 76

Former England manager Sven-Goran Eriksson has died at the age of 76.

Eriksson, the first non-British manager of the England team, led the Three Lions to the quarter-finals at three major tournaments during his five-year spell in charge between 2001 and 2006.

In January, Eriksson said he had "at best" a year to live after being diagnosed with cancer.

His children, Lina and Johan, said on Monday: "Our father Sven-Goran Eriksson fell asleep peacefully in his home at Bjorkefors outside Sunne this morning. He has for a long time fought bravely with his illness, but now it came to an end.

"Dad told us at the beginning of this year about his serious illness and received an amazing response from friends and football fans around Europe.

"He was invited to several football teams in England, Italy, Portugal and Sweden. They shared their love for football and for dad.

"It was unforgettable for both him and us. He expressed his appreciation and joy and stated that such beautiful words are usually only uttered when someone has died.

"We hope that you will remember Sven as the good and positive person he always was both in public and at home with us."

Eriksson managed 12 clubs, including Manchester City, Leicester, Roma and Lazio, winning 18 trophies.

The Swede also had spells in charge of Mexico, Ivory Coast and the Philippines.

After retiring as a player at the age of 27, he began his managerial career with Degerfors in 1977 before joining fellow Swedish side Gothenburg, where he won the league title, two domestic cups and the 1982 Uefa Cup.

He then went on to enjoy two spells with Portuguese giants Benfica as well as managing Italian sides Roma, Fiorentina, Sampdoria and Lazio - where he won seven trophies including the Serie A title, two Italian Cups and the European Cup Winners' Cup.

Following his diagnosis, Eriksson spent the year visiting some of his former clubs, including Lazio and Sampdoria.

In March the Swede, a lifelong Liverpool fan, helped lead a Liverpool Legends team

Three quarter finals: Eriksson with Steve McLaren at the 2006 World Cup which beat an Ajax Legends side 4-2 at Anfield.

He shared a poignant message at the end of his new documentary 'Sven', which was released earlier this month.

In the closing scene of the Amazon film, Eriksson says: "I had a good life. I think we are all scared of the day when it is finished - when we die.

"But life is about death as well. You have to learn to accept it for what it is.

"Hopefully at the end, people will say: 'Yeah, he was a good man.' But everyone will not say that. I hope you will remember me as a positive guy trying to do everything he could do.

"Don't be sorry, smile. Thank you for everything - coaches, players, the crowds. It has been fantastic. Take care of yourself and your life and live it. Bye."

Beckham praises 'true gentleman'

David Beckham paid tribute to "true gentleman" Sven-Goran Eriksson and said he will be "forever grateful" to the former England manager.

Eriksson, named Beckham as his captain after being appointed in 2001.

The Swede was manager for all but two of the 59 matches Beckham captained England.

"passionate, caring"

"Sven, thank you for always being the person you have always been, passionate, caring, calm and a true gentleman," said the former Manchester United and Real Madrid midfielder.

"I will be forever grateful for you making me your captain."

Beckham posted his message on social media alongside a video of the pair from his visit to see Eriksson earlier this year.

Eriksson revealed in January he had been diagnosed with cancer and given "at best" a year to live.

"We laughed, we cried and we knew we were saying goodbye," Beckham said.

"special man"

"Thank you Sven and in your last words to me "It will be OK"."

Striker Wayne Rooney made his England debut under Eriksson as a 17-year-old and described him as a "special man".

"Rest in peace, Sven," Rooney said.

"Thanks for the memories and all your help and advice. Thoughts and prayers with all his family and friends."

Tributes were also added by a number of England players who were part of the so-called 'Golden Generation' under Eriksson's management.

Striker Peter Crouch said: "What a great person he was.

"Sven gave me my England debut when plenty doubted it. I will forever be grateful to him. He will be missed."

"trust and support"

John Terry, who was also given his debut by Eriksson, described him as a "great manager and superb man-manager".

Midfielder Frank Lampard said Eriksson was "always there for you on and off the pitch".

"I will always be grateful to him for the trust and support he gave me in my England career," he said.

England's current captain Harry Kane said: "I didn't have the privilege of playing under Sven but I know how well liked and respected he was by those who played under him as England manager.

"My thoughts are with his family and friends at this time."

River clean up reaches truly Biblical proportions

CONSERVATIONISTS at work at a river in Northern Ireland are hopeful that their public appeal has stemmed the tide of plastic bottles in the water has worked - even if it does mean stemming a tide of Bible verses.

In recent years the River Bann, in Coleraine, County Derry, has been the victim of large scale dumping of bottles, all of which featured religious messages tucked inside. Earlier this year, an environmental group called Sea2it appealed publicly to whoever was behind the bottles to cease their activities - and it seems they have heeded that message.

"There are still some of the older bottles in the river system and caught in the reed beds but there's definitely a substantial decrease in any new bottles," said Andrew Bratton from Sea2it.

"In fact, I don't think any of us have lifted out fresh bottles in the past two months. We can tell by the condition of bottles that they're older and the messages are faded.

"I think the message we put out earlier in the springtime has hit home and the people behind this have decided that it's not a good idea."

All the bottles recovered seemed to have been meticulously cleaned and dried, before the Bible messages were rolled up, placed inside and the top screwed on tightly, and thrown into the river.

There were thousands of them, suggesting someone had put a lot of time and effort into this.

However, a big part of the mystery remains unsolved.

"We still don't know who was doing this," said Andrew Bratton.

"No specific groups or individuals came forward. But whoever it was, we would like to thank them for stopping."

Mobility scooter thief who left man to die is jailed

■ Six year sentence for woman who left "incredibly vulnerable" disabled man on the road in bitterly cold weather

A woman who stole a disabled man's mobility scooter, dragged him along the ground, and left him for dead has been jailed.

Kimberley Ann Hawkins, 41, pleaded guilty to the manslaughter of Neil Shadwick, 63, in Gloucestershire, following the incident in January 2023.

Mr Shadwick's eldest daughter, Victoria Bentley, said her "incredibly vulnerable" father must have been "terrified" at being left to die in a supermarket car park in sub-zero temperatures.

Hawkins, of no fixed address, was sentenced at Gloucester Crown Court to six and a half years in jail.

Mr Shadwick was found unresponsive in a Tesco car park on Stratford Road in Stroud on 22 January, when the Met Office had forecast temperatures as low as -6°C overnight.

CCTV footage showed Hawkins and Mr Shadwick, who had severe Parkinson's, arriving at the supermarket at about 02:30 GMT to use the cash machine.

When Mr Shadwick appeared unable to withdraw money for Hawkins, she became "frustrated" and took his mobility scooter while he was still partially on it.

'horrific'

She dragged him along the road for just under a minute before he eventually let go, then she rode away, leaving him on the ground.

He was found by supermarket staff who arrived for work at about 05:45 GMT.

Mr Shadwick had severe hypothermia, pneumonia and lung injuries.

Kimberley Ann Hawkins lost her temper when the victim was unable to get cash from an ATM in Stroud, Gloucestershire early last year

In the ambulance, all he was able to say was "robbed" and "Kim".

He later died in hospital.

In a statement, his daughter, Mrs Bentley, said it was "horrific" to identify her dad "under such terrible circumstances".

"Kimberley Hawkins knew by leaving Dad in that car park, on a freezing cold night, that she was leaving an incredibly vulnerable man who had no way of communicating as he could barely talk," Mrs Bentley said. "He didn't have a phone and he had no way of getting any help.

"He must have been terrified realising that he'd been abandoned and not knowing when or if help would arrive."

The court heard the pair had gone to the cashpoint after Hawkins provided "sexual services" for Mr Shadwick.

Mr Shadwick's younger sister, who lost both of her brothers within three months, said he "did not deserve to be treated and abandoned in this way".

Tania Rickards said her brother had health problems "from a young age", and eventually had to give up his career as a HGV driver in 2003 following a Parkinson's diagnosis in his early 30s.

See the world...if you don't get stuck in Belfast

■ World cruisers just can't get out of port

Passengers who paid more than half a million pounds for a three-year world cruise have been stranded in Belfast for three months.

The Odyssey, operated by the Villa Vie Residences cruise line, was meant to sail from the Northern Ireland capital on May 30 for the first leg of its voyage.

But instead of setting out on a journey that will circle the globe, visiting 425 ports and more than 100 islands in Europe, Asia and the Americas, the ship has been plagued by delays and problems with its rudder and gearbox.

It remains in dock near the yellow cranes of the Harland & Wolff shipbuilding company that built the doomed liner Titanic in 1911.

That has left its passengers with no choice but to sample the Belfast craic this summer, rather than sipping cocktails in the Caribbean.

Holly Hennessy, 67, from Florida, a self-confessed "cruise addict", who is travelling with her cat Captain, is trying to make the most of the ship's time in Belfast but is eager to get to sea. She said: "I have always wanted to live on a ship, and it will be a dream come true for me."

On the weather in Belfast, Ms Hennessy told The Telegraph: "It hasn't felt like summer. It has been winter as far as I'm concerned. I'm used to the Florida sunshine. I had to go out and buy vitamin D tablets.

"There have been a few days of sunshine when I

Captain the cat is travelling with owner Holly Hennessy on Villa Vie's Odyssey have been able to get out and walk along the river. The people are so nice.

"You have to make the best of it. I have been walking everywhere and getting to know all the shopkeepers in Belfast. There's a bunch of us that have been here so we have really contributed to the Belfast economy."

Ms Hennessy usually spends the summer months in Milwaukee, and she said she was "homesick" for the Midwestern city.

"If you're a traveller, things don't always go to plan, but it's rare for something like this to happen for three months," she said. "I have taken three cruises around the world already so I'm not doing this to visit countries, it's more to be able to live at sea.

She said Captain has enjoyed life in Belfast but has taken time to adjust to "the noise of a big city". "He's used to the water," she said.

Shetland turbines the most productive windfarm in UK

■ But locals see little benefit as high energy costs leave many unable to heat their homes

Power is flowing from the Shetland Isles to mainland Britain for the first time as the UK's most productive on-shore windfarm comes on stream.

Power company SSE says its 103-turbine project, known as Viking, can generate 443 megawatts (MW) of electricity, enough to power nearly 500,000 homes.

Shetland is the windiest part of the UK, which means it will be rare for the blades, which reach a massive 155m at their tip, not to be spinning.

Chief executive Alistair Phillips-Davies told reporters a "significant acceleration" in renewable energy infrastructure is now urgently needed if the UK is to meet its climate change targets.

"We need to do a lot more of these projects, a lot more offshore wind projects as well, to make sure that we can decarbonize the energy system," he said.

But critics of windfarms – and the pylons required to carry the electricity they generate – say a new era of mass industrialization for private profit will ruin swathes of the British countryside.

SSE has built a 160-mile long undersea cable to carry the power from Viking to Noss Head, near Wick, on the Scottish mainland.

The company said it has invested more than £1bn in the windfarm and cable projects, and plans to plough another £20bn into renewables by the end of the decade.

Mr Phillips-Davies said that would amount to "the biggest construction that we've seen since the Second World War."

"Shetland's got a great wind resource. This is the first of the really big wind farms that may be built here. There'll be more projects to come," he said.

'Crucial'

The UK's Energy Secretary Ed Miliband said Viking was "a crucial part" of reducing the UK's reliance on "volatile fossil fuel markets, boosting our energy independence and protecting consumers."

The Labour government has set a target for 100% of the UK's electricity to be generated from renewable sources by 2030, phasing out gas-fired power stations.

Ministers have promised to accelerate the development of wind, hydrogen and carbon capture projects by investing £8.3bn over five years in a publicly-owned power company called Great British Energy.

'justifiably angry'

The Conservatives have previously said that GB Energy is a "financial black hole" which will funnel taxpayers' money "into reducing risk for multi-million pound energy companies."

Mr Miliband also claims the Viking project will ensure "hundreds of thousands of homes in the Shetlands and right across the country will benefit from cheap, homegrown energy," but that is hotly contested on the archipelago.

Morag Lyall, chair of the environment and transport committee of Shetland Islands Council, said annual household bills in the islands were often more than double the UK average of £1,700 and showed no sign of falling as a result of hosting Viking.

Locals are also worried about the turbines' impact on the landscape

"People look out their windows now, they see all these turbines that are generating lots and lots of energy, but they're not seeing the benefit here," she said.

"They're still sitting in their homes having to decide, can I afford to put on my heating, and so people are justifiably angry about that."

She added that islanders were also worried about Viking's impact on the landscape; the peat bog environment on which it was built; and tourism.

Like most renewable projects it will generate a "community benefit fund" but islanders say the gains will be small - about £72m over 25 years - in comparison to the revenue from the windfarm.

There has also been anger on the island that the windfarm operator has received more than £2m already in "constraint payments" which pay for it not to generate power.

These payments are made during times when the amount of energy being generated exceeds the capacity of the network to transfer it where it is needed – mainly England.

DEPARTMENT OF

COLLECTOR
Notice of Divided Publication
NOTICE OF DIVIDED PUBLICATION OF THE
PROPERTY TAX-DEFAULT LIST
(DELINQUENT LIST)

Made pursuant to Section 3371,
Revenue and Taxation Code

Pursuant to Revenue and Taxation Code Sections 3381 through 3385, the County of Los Angeles Treasurer and Tax Collector is publishing in divided distribution, the Notice of Power to Sell Tax-Defaulted Property in and for the County of Los Angeles (County), State of California, to various newspapers of general circulation published in the County. A portion of the list appears in each of such newspapers.

I, Elizabeth Buenrostro Ginsberg, County of Los Angeles Treasurer and Tax Collector, State of California, certify that:

Notice is given that by operation of law at 12:01 a.m. Pacific Time, on July 1, 2022, the Tax Collector declared the real properties listed below tax defaulted. The declaration of default was due to non-payment of the total amount due for the taxes, assessments, and other charges levied in tax year 2021-22 that were a lien on the listed real property. Non-residential commercial property and property upon which there is a recorded nuisance abatement lien shall be subject to the tax collector's power to sell after three years of defaulted taxes. Therefore, if the 2021-22 taxes remain defaulted after June 30, 2025, the property will become subject to the tax collector's power to sell and eligible for sale at the County's online auction in 2026. All other property that has defaulted taxes after June 30, 2027, will become subject to the tax collector's power to sell and eligible for sale at the County's online auction in 2028. The list contains the name of the assessee and the total tax, which was due on June 30, 2022, for tax year 2021-22, opposite the parcel number. Payments to redeem tax-defaulted real property shall include all amounts for unpaid taxes and assessments, together with the additional penalties and fees as prescribed by law, or be paid under an installment plan of redemption if initiated prior to the property becoming subject to the tax collector's power to sell.

The Treasurer and Tax Collector's Office will furnish, upon request, information concerning making a payment in full or initiating an installment plan of redemption. Requests must be made at 225 North Hill Street, First Floor Lobby, Los Angeles, California 90012. For more information, please visit our website at tcc.lacounty.gov or contact us at (213) 974-2111.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed at Los Angeles, California, on August 6, 2024.

COLLECTOR

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF C KENNETH GRAILER AKA CHARLES KENNETH GRAILER

CASE NO. 24STPB08532

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: C KENNETH GRAILER AKA CHARLES KENNETH GRAILER A Petition for Probate has been filed by MARY JO FEHR in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

The Petition for Probate requests that MARY JO FEHR be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 9/12/2024 at 8:30 A.M. in Dept. 5 Room N/A located at 111 N. HILL STREET, LOS ANGELES, CA 90012.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 855 238-5118 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-20-886871-AB Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 855 238-5118, or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-20-886871-AB to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE OWNER-OCCUPANT: Any prospective owner-occupant as defined in Section 2924m of the California Civil Code who is the last and highest bidder at the trustee's sale shall provide the required affidavit or declaration of eligibility to the auctioneer at the trustee's sale or shall have it delivered to QUALITY LOAN SERVICE CORPORATION by 5 p.m. on the next business day following the trustee's sale at the address set forth in the below signature block. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the Trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF THOMAS MacLEAN aka THOMAS MACLEAN

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of THOMAS MacLEAN aka THOMAS MACLEAN
A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Jessie McLachlan in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.
THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Jessie McLachlan be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Sept. 26, 2024 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 99 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Why you need dental insurance in retirement.

Medicare doesn't pay for dental care.¹
As good as Medicare is, it was never meant to cover everything. If you want protection, you need to purchase individual insurance.

Early detection can prevent small problems from becoming expensive ones.
The best way to avoid large dental bills is preventive care. Experts recommend checkups twice a year.

Previous dental work can wear out.
Your odds of having a dental problem only go up as you age.²

Treatment is expensive — especially the services people over 50 often need.
Unexpected bills, like $190 for a filling, or $1,213 for a crown³ can be a real burden, especially if you're on a fixed income.

When you're comparing plans ...

- ▶ Look for coverage that helps pay for major services.
- ▶ Look for coverage with no deductibles.
- ▶ Shop for coverage with no annual maximum on cash benefits.

Simply put – without dental insurance, there may be an important gap in your healthcare coverage.

Stargazing with Annie Shaw

ARIES: Time to make way for better days around the corner. Life is nudging you right now, and if you listen to your intuition you will find your direction. Rest assured nothing can stop you.

TAURUS: You have a lot going for you, however patience is required for a while. Mercury in Virgo going slowly forward can pick up and complete an unfinished situation. Just give it a few days.

GEMINI: Wherever life takes you, as is your way, you find a way through. Mercury your boss is moving forward now, however he is not in a hurry yet so be prepared for a slower pace.

CANCER: The recent slowdown of Mercury in your area of communication is still affecting you for a few more days. It's good to just lay low for a while longer. Social life will soon pick up.

LEO: You are raking over the coals of a recent past upset or some possible unfinished business. There is probably not much you can do to change it so best to try hard to let it go.

VIRGO: There are times when even you cannot make things change or move faster. Mercury in house is currently moving forward for now it's time to relax. Happy Birthday!

LIBRA: Now that Mercury is going forward something you have waited for is coming back into your life. You can expect to see some plans come to fruition and a possible surprise offer.

SCORPIO: The best way to handle the power of the current planets affecting you is to not plan ahead too far but relax instead. Your healthier lifestyle should be a priority until you feel more upbeat.

SAGITTARIUS: Make the most of the change of direction in life now. Its good to get rid of stuff (mentally or physically) for better days ahead. Mercury is slowly speeding up and can make you a little tired. If it can wait put it on hold for now.

CAPRICORN: Like many others just when you thought it was time to move on things are stagnant. Mercury just moved forward so hold on as there is nothing much else you can do for a few days.

AQUARIUS: You should be enjoying some downtime now your boss Uranus is on a go slow. Take it easy for a few days then life lightens up somewhat and new opportunities will arise.

PISCES: Saturn going backwards in your sign will probably bring up past memories, maybe even some regrets. Let yourself feel and move through this short time frame.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (844)477-7869 or visit this Internet Website www.stoxposting.com, using the file number assigned to this case 631-019708. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (844)477-7869, or visit this internet website www.stoxposting.com, using the file number assigned to this case 631-019708 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. 8/22/2024 PLM LOAN MANAGEMENT SERVICES, INC., as Trustee Phone: (408) 370-4030 5446 Thornwood Drive, 2nd Floor San Jose, CA 95123 Elizabeth Godbey, Vice President

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF JENNIFER LYNN COLE

Case No. 24STPB09511
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of JENNIFER LYNN COLE

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Paula Eulan Fitch in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Paula Eulan Fitch be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Sept. 26, 2024 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 62 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Carsley calls up young guns

Interim manager signals new dawn for England

Lee Carsley has handed call-ups to Angel Gomes, Tino Livramento, Morgan Gibbs-White and Noni Madueke in his first squad since being named England interim manager.

Lille winger Gomes, Newcastle defender Livramento, Nottingham Forest midfielder Gibbs-White and Chelsea winger Madueke all played for Carsley during his time as England Under-21 manager.

Manchester City playmaker Jack Grealish, who was cut from England's preliminary Euro 2024 squad, has been recalled as well as Manchester United defender Harry Maguire.

England take on the Republic of Ireland in Dublin on 7 September (17:00 BST) and Finland at Wembley on 10 September (19:45) in the Nations League.

Carsley, who played for the Republic of Ireland, spent three years as England's Under-21s boss after his appointment in 2021.

Six members of Carsley's first squad - Gomes, Madueke, Gibbs-White, Cole Palmer, Anthony Gordon and Levi Colwill - won the Under-21 European Championship under him in 2023.

chester United for Lille in 2020. At United, he had broken into the first team in 2017, aged 16 years 263 days, the youngest player to make his debut from the club since Duncan Edwards in 1953.

"Angel is very technical, he controls the game with his skill and his technique. He is very determined, has a great attitude and loves football," Carsley said.

"I think he is a player people will be excited to see."

Gomes was taken to hospital on 17 August after suffering a head injury in a Ligue 1 fixture against Reims. He later

NEW FACES: Livramento, Madueke, Gibbs-White and Gomes have all been called up to the England squad said he was "all good" after receiving treatment.

Gibbs-White, a regular under Carsley in the Under-21 set-up, has also been handed his first cap following his impressive start to Nottingham Forest's Premier League campaign.

"Morgan is a very attacking player, full of energy, very creative, very exciting," said Carsley.

"He has been really successful with England and I thought that was important."

NO HAPPY RETURNS: Raducanu exited the US Open at the first hurdle

Emma: I need more matches

Emma Raducanu says she wants to play more matches before Grand Slam tournaments after losing to Sofia Kenin in the US Open first round on Tuesday.

Britain's Raducanu, who lost 6-1 3-6 6-4, was searching for her first victory in New York since unexpectedly winning the title in 2021 as a teenage qualifier.

She fell in the first round in 2022 and missed last year's tournament as she recovered from wrist and ankle surgery.

Raducanu played just one tournament between Wimbledon in July and the US Open, reaching the quarter-finals in Washington earlier this month.

The 21-year-old fought back tears in a news conference after her loss to fellow Grand Slam champion Kenin and said she felt "sad" and "down".

She said she would "learn from it" and "manage my schedule slightly differently" for future Grand Slams.

"I would like to play more matches," Raducanu added.

"I wouldn't probably still play every single tournament leading up, but I would probably play more than I did this time.

"It's a lesson to learn for next year."

Having opted to skip this summer's Olympic Games in Paris, Raducanu also missed WTA 1,000 events in Toronto and Cincinnati in the lead-up to the US Open.

Raducanu admitted afterwards that she lacked some match sharpness against Kenin.

"I got off to a bit of a slow start, but did really well to fight back in sets two and three and there wasn't much in it," Raducanu said.
