Sticky start for Starmer!

■ Sir Keir now the most unpopular new Prime Minister in history, new survey suggests

Sir Keir Starmer is the most unpopular new Prime Minister in the nation's history, a poll has revealed.

An Ipsos Mori survey shows six in 10 voters – including more than a third of Labour supporters – are “dissatisfied” with his performance.

Just one in four were satisfied with how he had led the country.

Sir Keir's net satisfaction has plummeted to -34 since Labour won a landslide victory in July.

He has faced widespread fury over national insurance hikes, winter fuel cuts, the inheritance tax hike on farmers, freebies for government ministers and the failure to tackle the Channel migrant crisis.

The poll found Sir Keir ranked as the second worst for confidence in the economy – with just 15% believing it will improve over the next year.

The second most unpopular premier after five months in power was Labour's Gordon Brown (-23) in 2007, followed by Tory Rishi Sunak (-22) in 2023.

The most liked was Labour PM Sir Tony Blair (+57) in 1997, followed by Conservative Sir John Major (+33) in 1991.

Data released last week showed the economy shrank unexpectedly for the second consecutive month in October.

Experts now expect a potential increase in the unemployment rate when jobs figures are released today.

In October, services flatlined at 0% growth, production output fell 0.6% and construction was down 0.4%.

This week Tory leader Kemi Badenoch warned bosses that nobody was safe from Labour's tax hikes.

She told the Business Property Relief Summit: “Keir Starmer and Rachel Reeves spent months, years even, on a charm offensive to convince businesses they had nothing to fear from a Labour government.

STARMER: his landslide victory in July seems a long time ago...

“Within weeks of taking office, they unleashed the worst raid on family business in living memory. They promised to get growth going. Instead, growth is going backwards.

“Keir Starmer's decisions will drain investment and growth out of the British economy.

“And no one is safe – businesses small and large, rural and urban, whether they make goods or provide services.”

Clueless Andrew in hot water again

■ Prince's friendship with banned Chinese spy revealed by High Court

PRINCE ANDREW heaped further embarrassment on the royal family this week as a High Court judge said Andrew had formed an “unusual degree of trust” with an alleged Chinese spy.

The man, Yang Tengbo was previously known only as H6 due to an anonymity order protecting his identity, but a High Court judge said on Monday that he could be identified.

Mr Yang said the description of him as a spy was “entirely untrue” and that he had asked his lawyers to release his name due to “speculation and misreporting”.

“I have done nothing wrong or unlawful and the concerns raised by the Home Office against me are ill-founded,” he said in a statement issued by his lawyers.

Last week, the UK's semi-secret national security court upheld a 2023 ban on him entering the country.

The businessman, also known as Chris Yang, had gone to the Special Immigration Appeals Commission (Siac) to appeal against the decision.

But it ruled that the ban should remain in place because of suspicions that he had been involved in an “elite capture” operation - a tactic of the Chinese state to exert influence in western nations.

It is not clear how Mr Yang became close to Prince Andrew.

The court heard he was invited to the prince's birthday party in 2020 and he was told he could act on the prince's behalf when dealing with potential investors in China.

The alleged spy was stopped and questioned by UK border police officers in November 2021 under powers to investigate suspicions of “hostile activity” by a foreign state.

In a letter found on one of his confiscated devices, Mr Yang was told by one of Prince Andrew's advisors: “Under your guidance, we found a way to get the relevant people unnoticed in and out of the house in Windsor.”

The news caused an uproar in Westminster,

DENIAL: Yang Tengbo said the description of him as a spy was “entirely untrue” which has been concerned in recent years about China's growing spy network in the country, estimated by one security chief to number in the thousands Former Conservative Party leader Sir Iain Duncan Smith, one of Parliament's most vocal China hawks, told the House of Commons Mr Yang was “not a lone wolf”.

China responded with defiance, telling the UK to “stop creating trouble” and accusing MPs of political manipulation.

The country issued a statement criticizing “anti-China clamours made by a handful of UK MPs” and said they were trying to smear the country and undermine “normal exchanges” between the two.

The Beijing statement added: “We always believe that a sound and stable China-UK relationship is not a one-sided favour but what meets the common interests of both sides.

“The UK side must have a right perception of China, see the historical trend clearly, and handle its relations with China on the basis of mutual respect, non-interference in each other's internal affairs, equality and mutual benefit.”

Family leave Andrew out in the cold

■ Thanks to latest indiscretion, Prince will not join any royal gatherings over the holidays

PRINCE Andrew has found himself out in the cold this Christmas as he will not join any Royal Family gatherings.

The King's brother skipped a Palace lunch in midweek having already bowed out of the traditional festivities at Sandringham over his links to an alleged Chinese spy. He also missed a pre-Christmas private celebration at Buckingham Palace of more than 70 from the extended family on Wednesday.

The Duke of York is understood to have been persuaded by his ex-wife Sarah Ferguson that it would have been unwise for them to attend. The withdrawal will come as a relief for King Charles, with his younger sibling once again in the spotlight over a controversial business relationship.

Andrew, 64, and Sarah, 65, had decided against joining the rest of The Firm at Sandringham over his relationship with Yang Tengbo.

Andrew's withdrawal from Sandringham was also likely to have been influenced by his two daughters' earlier decisions to spend the festive period with their respective in-laws.

But his exclusion from a private family event will likely set a precedent, throwing his attendance at Easter and even Balmoral over the summer into doubt.

Andrew's latest gaffe will further isolate he and his ex-wife as they prepare to spend Christmas Day in Windsor Estate's Royal Lodge, which they still share.

Stalemate over the Grade II-listed home is still a bone of contention between the brothers, after Charles's repeated

LONELY THIS CHRISTMAS: Andrew is on the outs again with the Royals attempts to move Andrew into smaller Frogmore Cottage.

The King is said to have told Andrew he will now have to pay his costs for security and the upkeep of the 30-room mansion – hard for the non-working royal in the long term.

Other than during the pandemic, the Duke has continued to join his family for Christmas – even after the furore over his friendship with sex offender Jeffrey Epstein.

Following his disastrous Newsnight interview in November 2019, which led to his removal as a working royal, Andrew was with the family at Sandringham but did not join them on the usual walk to St Mary Magdalene on Christmas morning.

He was pictured walking to an earlier private church service with Charles.

Christmas in 2020 and 2021 saw the usual Sandringham meet cancelled due to the pandemic, but in 2022 Charles invited his brother back into the fold, with Andrew joining the royals' public walkabout for the first time since the Epstein scandal. Last year the monarch asked the Duchess of York to attend church with the family.

Sarah had not done so since the early 1990s.

Fergie: I won't let 'sad' Andrew down

THE Duchess of York says she "won't let Andrew down" and called her ex-husband a "great man with a great heart".

Sitting for an interview alongside her older sister Jane, Fergie gave a glimpse into her relationships with the Royal Family as well as her battle with cancer.

Speaking before the Chinese spy claims, she said: "I won't let him down. He supports me as much as I support him. He's supported me through thick and thin, not just marriage or divorce."

She added: "I was totally and utterly in love with Andrew. I would do it all over again, 100%."

"He's the best, a great man with a great heart, and kind. Our wedding was the best day of my life. But I gave up my anonymity that day. I was able to because love conquers all. It's still with us today." The 65-year-old also revealed how she was left to become a carer to her father Major Ronald Ferguson when her sister moved to Australia in 1975.

Their mum Susan had moved to Argentina to marry polo star Hector Barrantes three years earlier.

Fergie told The Sunday Times: "I was left to look after a sad man, which is sort of what I'm doing now." She spoke of her battle with illness, having been diagnosed with melanoma just months after discovering she had breast cancer.

"Jane insisted I get a mammogram. She saved my life," the mother of two added. The Duchess now spends much of her time focusing on her grandchildren. "I'm a fun granny," she said.

"Sienna [Beatrice's daughter] wanted a unicorn birthday party so I dressed a white pony as a unicorn. For the boys, August and Ernest [Eugenie's sons], I'm learning about trains."

Fergie also revealed her close relationship with the late Queen, saying she called Elizabeth "Mumma". She added: "The Queen was much more my mother than my mother was. She never let me down, even if I let her down.

"Even through the darkest days, she never left me. The Queen never lost me. The best advice she gave me was the last thing she said to me, 'Sarah, remember that yourself is good enough.' It makes me cry."

Girl of 12 charged in killing of grandfather

A girl of 12 has appeared in court charged with killing a grandfather who was allegedly kicked to death while walking his dog.

Bhim Kohli, 80, was 30 seconds from his home when he was attacked in September. The schoolgirl, who cannot be named, appeared at Leicester Youth Court charged with manslaughter. She was bailed and ordered to appear at the city's crown court in February.

A 15-year-old boy charged with the murder of Mr Kohli is due to appear in court later this week. The grandfather was attacked in Braunstone Town, Leicester.

He was rushed to hospital but died the following evening. A postmortem found he died as a result of a neck injury.

In tribute, his family said: "Bhim was a loving husband, dad and granddad. He was also a son, brother and uncle. He adored his grandkids with all his heart and loved spending time with them. He really was such a loving, caring person whose life was centred around his family. He has always been a very hard-working man and even at the age of 80 he was still very active." The family added: "One of his great passions was his allotment. He would go every day to tend to his plots and was so proud of them.

"He also enjoyed walking the family dog Rocky on the park many times a day.

"Bhim loved to laugh. He was always very happy and talkative, the joker of the family and always loved to outsmart us with a smile. Our hearts have been completely broken. We are now pulling together as a family to try and support each other through the most difficult time imaginable."

End of the road for trucking giant Eddie Stobart

FANS have paid tribute after truck tycoon Eddie Stobart died at 95.

The road haulage legend's distinctive fleet of green and red lorries won an army of followers who would collect the vehicles' names painted on the front.

Some motorists would sound their horns to greet Stobart truckers, who flashed lights in response.

One devastated fan wrote online: "Another end of an iconic era of British business.

"RIP Sir, you gave thousands and thousands of ordinary folk great pleasure collecting your lovely truck names on long journeys through the years."

Another devotee said: "I loved collecting truck names whenever I was on a motorway trip. It is an inspirational company."

Cumbrian-born Eddie had left school at 14 to work on a farm, and started a business in the 1940s. The first Eddie Stobart lorry, in 1960, was a second-hand Guy Invincible four-wheeler.

He had it repainted in what was to become the group's trademark Brunswick Green and Post Office Red, and it delivered fertilizer and other cargo to local farmers.

But the business was transformed into a household name by his middle son Edward who took over in 1976, aged 21, when Stobart's had eight lorries and 12 staff. The drivers became famous for their clean, collar-and-tie look.

Now the brand operates more than 2,700 named vehicles and staff still wear a uniform. The first named truck was called Twiggy after the 1960s model and it was followed by Tammy Wynette, Dolly Parton and Suzi Quatro.

£23m fortune

Stobart's is widely credited with changing the public perception of haulage from a dirty, macho industry to a family-friendly sector.

Eddie Stobart with his father Edward: The road haulage legend's distinctive fleet of green and red lorries won an army of followers

The popularity of named Stobart trucks sparked a "spotting" craze, and the cult following led to a fan club plus a range of model Stobart trucks, branded leisure wear and other merchandise.

A devout Christian, Eddie met his future wife Nora at church and they married on Boxing Day in 1951.

He is reported to have amassed a fortune of around £23million but famously kept his weekends free from work – Saturday was for their children Anne, John, Edward and William, with Sundays reserved for God.

Eddie once said he would never have named the company after himself had he known how big it would become, adding: "I never aimed to devote myself to work. We are here to serve God, not Mammon."

After Eddie had passed the company to Edward, he said: "I am by nature fairly laidback compared to Edward. I used to think to myself 'What's the point of all his worry and rush?'"

He went on: "I was still a director of Eddie cont. on page 5, col. 1

Letby to appeal over 'unreliable' expert witness

KILLER nurse Lucy Letby's legal team has vowed to challenge her convictions, claiming the prosecution's medical expert was "not reliable".

Lawyer Mark McDonald said he was seeking permission from the Court of Appeal to take the "exceptional, but necessary, decision" to apply to reopen her case.

He claimed key medical expert Dr Dewi Evans had changed his mind over the mechanism of death involving three of Letby's victims.

Letby, 34, is serving 15 whole-life orders for murdering seven infants and attempting to murder seven others, with two attempts on one of her victims, between June 2015 and June 2016.

Following two trials

BABY KILLER: Letby is serving 15 whole life orders at Manchester Crown Court, Letby also lost two bids to challenge her convictions at the Court of Appeal – in May and most recently in October.

Mr McDonald said: "The primary grounds of appeal at the previous hearings related to the admissibility before the jury of the evidence of the lead prosecution expert Dr Dewi Evans.

"The defence argued twice at trial that Dr Evans' evidence should be disregarded. This was refused by the trial judge. It was then later argued in the Court of Appeal and was refused.

"Remarkably, Dr Evans has now changed his mind on the cause of death of three of the babies – Baby C, Baby I and Baby P."

Mr McDonald continued: "Dr Evans had said to the jury that Lucy Letby had injected air down a nasal gastric tube and this had led to the death of the three babies.

"This was repeated to the Court of Appeal, who may have been misled when they ruled on the application for leave against the convictions.

"Dr Evans has also said that he has revised his opinion in relation to Baby C and has written a new report, a new report that he has given to the police, months ago now.

"Despite numerous requests, the prosecution has yet to give this report to the defence.

"The defence will argue that Dr Evans is not a reliable expert, and given that he was the lead expert for the prosecution, we say that all the convictions are not safe."

Mr McDonald explained the move during a press conference at London's Royal Society of Medicine.

The ongoing Thirlwall Inquiry into how Letby was able to commit her crimes at the Countess of Chester Hospital has heard evidence at Liverpool Town Hall since September and will resume in January.

Snapped mast ends Pip's bid for sailing first

■ Southern Ocean proves too much for single handed Brit

A snapped mast has ended a British sailor's bid to be the first woman to finish a 24,300-mile (39,100km) race around the world for a second time.

Pip Hare, 50, who set off in her 60ft yacht Medallia on 10 November, suffered a dismast about 800 nautical miles south of Australia during the Vendée Globe race.

She said she was "really devastated" by the end of her solo attempt after four years of preparation and planning.

Hare lived in Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire, and learned to sail on the River Deben in Suffolk. She is now based in Poole, Dorset.

The yacht's mast snapped in two at 21:45 GMT on Sunday.

Hare said: "It all feels pretty raw right now."

"The boat and I were in really great shape, having a really good race and we were about half-way round the world. So, to dismast now is really brutal."

She had patched together a "jury rig" - using what is left of the mast and some sail to keep moving without relying on her engine - and was making her way towards the Australian coast.

"I'm just really devastated; it was the greatest edition of the Vendée Globe yet," she said.

The findings are expected to be published in autumn 2025.

During her two trials, Letby's barrister was Ben Myers KC. But she has Channel 5 screened 53 episodes of a TV documentary on the firm, beginning in 2010.

different strands of evidence against Lucy Letby.

"In May, the Court of Appeal dismissed Letby's leave to appeal on all grounds, rejecting her argument that expert prosecution evidence was flawed."

Once was not enough: For me, this is my version of a World Cup or the Olympics," said Hare before setting off on the Vendée Globe

"It was a highlight of my career and for it to end in this way is really punishing."

"But a race of this nature that's three months long, taking you to some of the world's most extreme environments, these things happen and unfortunately, it's happened to me this time."

She added she was

"fine, the boat's fine and we are making our way to the shore".

Hare, who set up her racing team in 2019 with a £25,000 bank loan and a crowdfunding appeal, was tipped as a top-10 finisher in the prestigious and gruelling race, which has been expanded to 40 yachts from the previous 33.

"For me, this is my version of a World Cup or the Olympics," she said, before setting off.

"It's the Vendée Globe race - it's the toughest sailing race in the world."

The single-handed yacht race began off the coast of France and Hare had been in 15th place when the mast snapped.

The image for the royal card was taken from a video released this earlier year

The Prince and Princess of Wales have revealed a Christmas card with a personal significance, using a picture taken from the video released when Catherine announced the end of her chemotherapy.

The emotional video, with its emphasis on family and supporting each other in difficult times, was filmed in Norfolk in August.

The personal video from Catherine, at the end of treatment after her cancer diagnosis, had the message "out of darkness can come light".

The image used for this year's card, by film maker Will Warr, shows Prince William and Catherine and their children Prince George, Princess Charlotte and Prince Louis.

The card, with its very personal connections to a difficult year for the couple, has already been sent out in the post, but has now been revealed on social media.

The card includes the message "Wishing you a Happy Christmas and New Year".

Catherine has been making a gradual return to public duties following her cancer treatment.

This year's card from King Charles and Queen Camilla (right) shows the two young children have been kept away from the public eye by the couple - and their faces remain out of sight in the photo.

The Duke and Duchess of Sussex have shared a rare photo of their two children on their official Christmas card.

It is among a series of six photos on the card, which features the message: "We wish you a very happy holiday season".

Prince Archie, 5, and Princess Lilibet, 3, can be seen in one of the photos facing away from the camera as they walk towards their parents, who greet them with smiles and outstretched arms.

The two young children have been kept away from the public eye by the couple - and their faces remain out of sight in the photo.

The card also shows Meghan hugging a young girl and Prince Harry clasping the hand of a man lying in bed.

The Christmas cards read in full: "On behalf of the office of Prince Harry and Meghan, the Duke and Duchess of Sussex, Archewell Productions and Archewell Foundation, we wish you a very happy holiday season and a joyful New Year."

It is for professional use, with the couple sending a different card to close friends and family which will not be shared publicly.

The Sussexes stepped down as senior royals in January 2020.

Festive fun at the Pub Quiz

A holly jolly time was had by all trivia players who packed into O'Briens for the Brits in LA Christmas Pub Quiz on Tuesday night.

But the winning team claiming the giant box of Quality Street chocolates was Chinese Carless Whispers (above).

Meanwhile the Barney's Beanery team (right) took home the last place prize of a broken Santa toy!

Quizmaster Sandro Monetti will be back at the Santa Monica pub on Tuesday January 7th to host a whole new year of weekly quizzes.

THE CHRISTMAS Spirit was conspicuously absent in Florida this week as Nigel Farage held "historic" talks with Elon Musk at Donald Trump's mansion amid speculation the world's richest man will make a multi-million pound donation to his Reform UK party.

Mr Farage and his new treasurer, billionaire property tycoon Nick Candy, said they discussed "saving the West" with Tesla and X owner Mr Musk on Monday.

The three also posed in front of a painting of US President-elect Mr Trump at his Mar-a-Lago home.

Readers can decide for themselves whether this unlikely trio deserve the title of Three Wise Men...

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF NANCY WALDROOP HALL

Case No. 23STPB13628
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of NANCY WALDROOP HALL aka Nancy W. Hall

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by David Shawn Waldroop in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that David Shawn Waldroop be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The WILL and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on January 10, 2025 at 8:30am in Dept. 29 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Why you need dental insurance in retirement.

Medicare doesn't pay for dental care.¹
As good as Medicare is, it was never meant to cover everything. If you want protection, you need to purchase individual insurance.

Early detection can prevent small problems from becoming expensive ones.
The best way to avoid large dental bills is preventive care. Experts recommend checkups twice a year.

Previous dental work can wear out.
Your odds of having a dental problem only go up as you age.²

Treatment is expensive — especially the services people over 50 often need.
Unexpected bills, like $190 for a filling, or $1,213 for a crown³ can be a real burden, especially if you're on a fixed income.

When you're comparing plans ...

- ▶ Look for coverage that helps pay for major services.
- ▶ Look for coverage with no deductibles.
- ▶ Shop for coverage with no annual maximum on cash benefits.

Simply put – without dental insurance, there may be an important gap in your healthcare coverage.

Americans complete Toffees takeover

The Friedkin Group has completed its takeover of Everton, ending the turbulent tenure of Farhad Moshiri.

The deal for 99.5% of the club is believed to be worth in excess of £400m and the Toffees become the 10th club in the Premier League under majority American control.

The group reached an agreement with Moshiri on 23 September and were awaiting regulatory approval, with the Premier League having the final say on the deal, and this has now been granted.

'global family'

The Texas-based group is led by chairman Dan Friedkin and also owns Italian Serie A club Roma. Friedkin has

Everton have become the 10th club in the Premier League under majority American ownership

Everton becomes the tenth Premier League club now in American hands a net worth of £6.16bn, according to Forbes.

Friedkin has been proposed as the chairman of Everton's board, with Marc Watts serving as executive chairman.

Watts, the president of the Friedkin Group, will be responsible for the management of the club. Friedkin said in an open letter: "I take immense pride in welcoming one of England's most historic football clubs to our global family, the Friedkin Group. Everton represents a proud legacy, and we are honoured to become custodians of this great institution.

"Whilst we are new to the club, we fully understand the vital role Everton plays in local culture, history, and the lives of Evertonians here and around the world.

"We are deeply committed to honouring this legacy while contributing positively to the community, economy, and people of this remarkable city."

British-Iranian businessman Moshiri first bought a 49.9% stake in Everton in 2016, before increasing his holding to 94.1% in 2022.

Saved by Jesus: Gabriel scored a hat-trick Wednesday

Arteta hopes Gabriel's 'spark' stays burning

Mikel Arteta hopes Gabriel Jesus' Carabao Cup hat-trick will give the striker the "spark" he needs to rediscover his Premier League goalscoring form.

The Brazil striker scored three second-half goals Wednesday night against Crystal Palace as the Gunners came from behind to reach the semi-finals.

They were his first goals at Emirates Stadium in a year and also only the second game he has scored in this season, following a strike against Preston - also in the EFL Cup - at the end of October.

Jesus has not scored in the Premier League since 30 January and Arteta hopes his treble will spur him to start finding the back of net in the league again to aid Arsenal's title challenge.

"It's now about consistency," said Arteta.

"It's a moment of spark that will bring so much to the team, that we can rely on him to change games. We need to give him more chances."

Jesus said after the game that he had been working hard in training to improve his finishing, but knows he must now keep up his scoring form.

"I wear the number nine for Arsenal so I have to be scoring goals," he said. "Kai [Havertz] as well, we are the strikers of the team and have a pressure to score."

"If you want to challenge for a place we have to keep scoring. It is not easy, if it was then there would be many strikers in the world, but we keep trying."

Palace looked capable of pulling off a shock on Wednesday when they took the lead with their first shot of the match - Jean-Philippe Mateta getting the better of Jakub Kiwior to score the opener.

Arteta, sensing that the game was slipping away from Arsenal, introduced captain Martin Odegaard and William Saliba at half-time.

They looked a different team - Raheem Sterling hitting the bar from close range after Henderson saved his initial effort - before Odegaard slipped an inch-perfect pass to Jesus, who controlled excellently before chipping the ball over Henderson to level the match.

Jesus then got his second of the match when he was played into the box by second-half substitute Bukayo Saka and he fired low into the bottom corner.

The forward looked marginally offside when he reacted to get on the end of Saka's pass but, with no VAR until the next round, the strike stood.

The Brazilian completed his hat-trick when he again was found by Odegaard and drilled his shot past Henderson to win the game.

There was time for former Arsenal player Eddie Nketiah to grab a consolation goal but Arsenal held firm to reach the last four.

Tonali proving a tonic for Toon

Manager Eddie Howe says Newcastle are finally "starting to see the best" of Sandro Tonali as they booked their place in the semi-finals of the Carabao Cup with a 3-1 victory over Brentford at St James' Park.

The Italy international scored the opening two goals for the Magpies against the Bees in midweek as he delivered a masterclass in midfield play.

His first came with an unerring 20-yard drive after Tino Livramento's cross was only partially cleared and the former AC Milan player added to his tally with a cushioned side-foot volley from Anthony Gordon's corner from the right.

Tonali, 24, who returned this season from a 10-month ban for breaching betting rules, notably also made a heart gesture to the home supporters as he celebrated his opener - after waking to media reports linking him with a move to Juventus.

"He's a big signing and you want your big signings to do well and settle quickly," said Howe.

"He's been here a while, but has had very little football. Nights like tonight will build connections with him and the supporters even stronger, I'm just really pleased for him on a personal level.

"It was great to see Sandro score the two that he did. We are starting to see the best of him."

Operating in a slightly deeper role, Tonali, who joined Newcastle for £55m in the summer of 2023, played the role of orchestrator for much of Wednesday's game, with Howe adding: "The tweak in position has definitely helped him, he is a lot more comfortable when he is deeper on the pitch.

"He is showing all the qualities that we knew when we signed him. It is just about finding the right balance for him and the team."

The hosts added their third when captain Bruno Guimaraes laid on a tap-in for Fabian Schar to put the gloss on a much-deserved win.

It proved a disappointing evening for Brentford, who mustered just two shots on target until Yoane Wissa prodded in a late consolation in added time.

Struggling Pep now second favorite for the chop

He may have won 18 trophies at Manchester City, but Pep Guardiola is now the second favourite with bookmakers to be the next Premier League manager to get sacked.

That remarkable scenario would have been unthinkable two months ago – when the English champions remained the only unbeaten side in Europe.

But City's collapse, culminating in the humiliating derby defeat by arch-rivals Manchester United on Sunday, has seen bookmakers put a target on his back.

United came from behind to win 2-1 in stoppage time at the Etihad, leaving City trailing league leaders Liverpool by nine points, having played a game more.

They also face a battle to reach the Champions League knockout stages.

Guardiola is now just 8/1 to leave City, with only West Ham manager Julen Lopetegui, at shorter odds than him in the market.

William Hill spokesman Lee Phelps said: "Following yet another shock defeat, at the hands of bitter rivals Manchester United no less, we now make Pep Guardiola joint-second favourite to be the next Premier League manager relieved of his duties.

"Having been priced as big as 40/1 last month to be the next to leave, Guardiola has been clipped into 8/1 following Sunday's defeat, with only his fellow countryman Julen Lopetegui (4/11) looking more likely to get the boot."

Guardiola is believed to be unsackable but could decide to quit if he thinks he is no longer capable of rescuing City's season.

Only last month Guardiola signed a contract extension which runs until 2027.

Pereira won the won Primeira Liga title in 2012

Wolves snap up Pereira

Premier League strugglers Wolves have appointed former Porto boss Vitor Pereira as their new head coach.

The experienced Portuguese joins from Saudi Pro League side Al-Shabab on an 18-month contract, with Wolves paying about £825,000 in compensation.

He replaces Gary O'Neil, who was sacked on Sunday following Saturday's 2-1 defeat to Ipswich, which left Wolves second bottom of the Premier League.

Pereira took charge of training for the first time on Thursday and his opening game is Sunday's trip to Leicester, who are 17th in the table and five points clear of Wolves.

Wolves had been assessing their options for a number of weeks and sounded out candidates, including former West Ham manager David Moyes.

Pereira quickly became the frontrunner and joins having won Primeira Liga titles with Porto in 2012 and 2013 and the Greek Super League with Olympiakos in 2015. He had been in charge at Al-Shabab since February and leaves them sixth in the Saudi Pro League.

The 56-year-old succeeds O'Neil, who was appointed at Molineux in August 2023, with Wolves having lost 11 of their 16 Premier League games this season.

They have won just twice, against Southampton and Fulham, with their seven-year stay in the top flight under threat.

Wolves chairman Jeff Shi said: "Vitor is a highly respected and experienced coach who has achieved success across different leagues and will bring a new approach for the test ahead.

"This is a challenging moment for the club, and we want to thank Vitor for taking on this responsibility.

"We have full confidence in his ability to guide us back on track, alongside the players and staff, and the entire club will be united in supporting him to achieve success."

Spurs laugh last in comedy of errors

Spurs 4-3 Man Utd: Ange's boys squeak through in night of defensive howlers

Tottenham survived a Manchester United comeback in a thrilling Carabao Cup encounter Thursday night to book a semi final date with table-topping Liverpool.

Ange Postecoglou's side were cruising at 3-0 up with less than half an hour to go until two calamitous errors from Spurs keeper Fraser Forster opened the door to an unlikely United revival. A goal from each side in the final minutes ensured a nerve-shredding ending with the home side prevailing 4-3.

Dominic Solanke gave

Spurs a dream start, pouncing on United keeper Altay Bayindir's error after 15 minutes as Spurs edged a tight, entertaining first half - and the real drama unfolded after the break.

Dejan Kulusevski drove home an emphatic finish seconds after the restart and, when Solanke struck his second after 54 minutes, United looked like they were being brought down to earth with a crash after Sunday's stunning derby win at Manchester City.

Forster made his first mistake after 63 minutes when an attempted pass from his goalline, intended for Radu Dragusin, was intercepted by Bruno Fernandes, who provided substitute Joshua Zirkzee with a simple finish.

The keeper was the villain of the piece again seven minutes later when he hesitated over another clearance before a poor first touch allowed Amad Diallo to charge in and profit from his moment of indecision.

WINTER BLUNDERLAND: but Solanke scored a brace for Spurs on Thursday

Spurs eased the rising tension two minutes from time when Son Heung-min's corner drifted straight in, with more questions asked of Bayindir.

There was still time for Jonny Evans to head home a United third, four minutes into injury time with Forster again making an error, but Spurs managed to hold on for victory.

Diallo, as on Sunday, made a goalscoring contribution when he panicked Forster into a mistake but elsewhere this was another illustration of the scale of Ruben Amorim's task, even taking Sunday's landmark victory into account.

If Spurs keeper Forster had a bad night, United's Bayindir had a nightmare of his own as he was responsible for Solanke's opener and then Son's decisive fourth.

The absence of Marcus Rashford provided a sub-plot once more as he was left out of the match-day squad again by Amorim after the forward suggested it is time for him to leave Old Trafford.

One group of United fans made their feeling clear, draping a large banner from the stand reading: "Excuses. Ta Ra Marcus."

Chelsea teen stars in Rovers romp

Teenager Marc Guiu scored a first-half hat-trick Thursday night as Chelsea cruised past Shamrock Rovers to finish top of the Conference League league phase and deny their visitors an automatic place in the knockout stage.

Already assured of a last-16 spot, Enzo Maresca's youthful Blues made it six wins from six in the competition.

They made early pressure count by taking a deserved lead when 18-year-old striker Guiu capitalized on a misunderstanding between Darragh Burns and goalkeeper Leon Pohls.

Rovers, who had gone close twice through Johnny Kenny either side of Guiu's opener, got back on level terms when Markus Poom's fierce shot deflected in off midfielder Cesare Casadei, delighting their 3,000 travelling supporters.

But those celebrations were short-lived as Guiu intercepted Daniel Cleary's under-hit back pass and steered the ball into the back of the net from the tightest of angles.

Kiernan Dewsbury-Hall drilled home a loose ball inside the area to give the Blues breathing space, before Guiu completed his treble with a close-range header in first-half stoppage time.

Marc Cucurella completed the scoring in the second half, his low shot striking the inside of the post on its way past Pohls as the Blues ended the league phase campaign in style.

Shamrock Rovers, meanwhile, enter the knockout phase play-offs.

Carabao semi-final draw

Holder Liverpool have been drawn against Tottenham in the semi-finals of the Carabao Cup while Arsenal will face Newcastle.

Premier League leaders Liverpool, who have won the cup competition a record 10 times, will face Spurs at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium in the first leg before the return at Anfield.

Arsenal will play Newcastle at Emirates Stadium in the first leg of their tie before the second leg at St James' Park.

The semi-final first legs will be played in the week commencing 6 January 2025, and the second legs in the week beginning 3 February.

Wembley Stadium will host the final on 16 March.
