Royals deliver traditional festive church parade as Charles gets personal in Christmas Day speech

THE Royal Family united behind the King and Queen on Christmas Day as they made their annual walk to church – hours before the Monarch delivered a rare personal message in his Christmas Day speech.

Charles, 76, offered his “heartfelt thanks” to the doctors and nurses who helped him and the Princess of Wales during their cancer treatment.

Earlier, he and Queen Camilla, 77, had led their loved ones from Sandringham House to St Mary Magdalene Church.

They were followed by Princess Kate, 42, Prince William, also 42, and their children – Prince George, 11, Princess Charlotte, nine, and Prince Louis, six.

Kate wore a forest green coat and matching hat. Camilla’s long green coat teamed with two sparkling brooches and a matching hat, was in a similar festive hue.

After church, the Royals stopped to chat with members of the public.

Kate, who completed her course of chemotherapy at the end of the summer, got a hug and was showered with flowers.

And in a touching moment, she expressed her gratitude to a well-wisher who had worked for Macmillan Cancer Support and who told Kate: “You are an inspiration to all the patients.”

The Princess told the woman: “The amount of people who have written this year is extraordinary and I think cancer just really does resonate with so many families. People like you are doing all the hard work out there. I’m hugely grateful.”

Another woman told Kate: “We’re all behind you. Never forget that.”

Princess Anne – once again crowned this year’s hardest-working royal after she stepped up to help her brother during his cancer battle – was on the Royal walkabout.

Andrew absent

The Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh and their children, Lady Louise, 21, and James, Earl of Wessex, 17, were there, too.

And they were joined by Princess Beatrice and her husband, Edoardo Mapelli Mozzi, and stepson Wolfie, eight. The couple had intended to spend Christmas overseas with his parents, but changed their plans after doctors advised pregnant Beatrice not to travel long distances.

Notably absent was Beatrice’s father, Prince Andrew, who is spending Christmas at home with ex-wife Sarah Ferguson. He decided not to join his family at Sandringham after the furore over his association to an alleged Chinese spy.

Camilla’s children, food critic Tom Parker Bowles, 50, and art curator Laura Lopes, 46, were not on the walkabout but are understood to have attended an earlier service.

The King’s Speech

At 3pm, Charles thanked medical staff in his Christmas speech.

The King said: “I offer special, heartfelt thanks to the selfless doctors and nurses who, this year, have supported me and other members of my family through the uncertainties and anxieties of illness.”

The Sky News broadcast showed clips of Charles meeting fellow cancer patients as the King said: “All of us go through some form of suffering at some stage in our life, be it mental or physical.

“The degree to which we help one another – and draw support from each other...is a measure of our civilisation as nations.”

Poignantly, Charles –

whose cancer treatment will continue into the new year – delivered his speech from Fitzrovia Chapel, which once served patients and staff at the Middlesex Hospital.

He also used his third annual Christmas address to shine a light on the way communities came together after the riots sparked by the Southport stabbings.

He said: “I felt a deep sense of pride...when, in response to anger and lawlessness in several towns this summer, communities came together, not to repeat these behaviours, but to repair.”

Highlights of the royal year were shown, including scenes from the King and Queen’s visit to Australia and Charles being hugged by New Zealand female rugby players.

Balmy temperatures, barmy Brits

■ From Scotland to Devon, festive swimmers make a splash

The Serpentine Swimming Club held its annual Peter Pan Cup in London's Hyde Park on Christmas Day

Dasher and Prancer, two swimmers in reindeer costumes brave the waves in Norfolk

THOUSANDS of festive swimmers in the UK took their barmy annual dips on Wednesday, buoyed by the news that it was one of the warmest Christmas Days on record.

The tradition often sees people braving icy waters around the UK. But those taking part this year must have been warmed by the news that temperatures had reached unseasonable highs.

The warmest in England was 13.5C, recorded in Okehampton, Devon.

Meanwhile, Scotland had its hottest ever Christmas as thermometers in Dyce, Aberdeenshire, hit 14.3C – way above the old record of 10.6C, set at Dounreay in the Highlands, back in 1971.

For the rest of the UK the mercury hovered at around 12C to 13C – about 5C warmer than usual.

That was great news for the swimmers determined to keep up a custom dating back 164 years.

Many made a splash in fancy dress. Lots of cossies were teamed with Santa hats as crowds took the plunge at Blackroot Pool, in Sutton Coldfield, West Midlands.

In Bournemouth a trio dressed as a chef, a turkey and an oven.

And In London's Hyde Park, where the Serpentine Swimming Club held its Peter Pan Cup race, one plucky competitor wore a turkey and all the trimmings. The event has been held every Christmas morning since 1864.

But the Brighton dip is widely accepted as the oldest. People have been turning up on the beach in the East Sussex city since 1860. Several Mrs Clauses were seen making waves. But in Hunstanton, Norfolk, twins Rosie and Ellie Parnham, 23, wore antlers for their Dasher into the sea.

Other dips included Guernsey, Exmouth, Felixstowe and Porthcawl.

The Outdoor Swimming Society hailed the festive swims as "important local traditions...which entertain hundreds of spectators and raise thousands for local charities".

But anyone hoping for a white Christmas was out of luck. The Met Office's Tom Morgan said there was "no snow anywhere in the UK", adding. "It is a green Christmas."

Farage: Reform UK 'now more popular than the Tories'

Reform UK now has more members than the Conservative Party, its leader Nigel Farage has claimed.

A digital tracker on Reform's website shows its membership numbers have overtaken the 131,680 figure declared by the Conservatives earlier this year.

Nigel Farage thanked those who helped his party "make history" and said Reform is now the "real opposition".

A Conservative party spokesperson said Reform UK had helped to deliver a Labour government.

Reacting to the growing tally on X, Farage said: "The youngest political party in British politics has just overtaken the oldest political party in the world."

Party chairman Zia Yusuf said Reform had broken the "centuries-long stranglehold on the centre-right of British politics by the Tories".

Earlier this year, the Conservative Party said it had 131,680 members eligible to vote during its leadership contest to replace Rishi Sunak.

It was the lowest recorded membership for the party and a considerable drop from the 2022 leadership contest, when it boasted around 172,000 members.

A Conservative spokesman said Reform had "delivered a Labour government that has cruelly cut winter fuel winter payments for 10 million pensioners, put the future of family farming and food security at risk, and launched a devastating raid on jobs which will leave working people paying the price.

"A vote for Reform this coming May is a vote for a Labour council - only the Conservatives can stop this", he added.

'momentum'

A Labour spokesperson said that while the Conservatives and Reform "pick fights... this government is getting on with delivering the change the British people voted for".

Membership numbers to all main political parties fell last year despite gearing up for this summer's General Election.

Although it still has the most members of any UK party, Labour saw its numbers dip below 400,000 for the first time since 2015.

Comparing party membership numbers can be "difficult", according to a research briefing published by the House of Commons Library, as there is no uniform definition of membership or way to monitor it.

The director of think tank More in Common, Luke Tryl, told the PA news agency that the metric is "opaque and murky".

He said Reform UK have "momentum", but indicated that it is not guaranteed whether its membership converts to campaigners.

Landlord sued over 'racist' pub sign

■ Convicted terrorist triggered by Saracen's Head

A landlord has defended his pub after a convicted terrorist claimed he was "deeply offended" by its "racist" sign.

Khalid Baqa, who was previously jailed for spreading jihadi content - is demanding hundreds of pounds in a civil claim against the The Saracen's Head Inn in Amersham, Buckinghamshire, over its sign "depicting a brown-skinned bearded Arab/Turk male with a turban", which he claims "incites violence".

'list of demands'

Describing the legal action as "ludicrous", landlord Robbie Hayes, 52, told reporters he received a letter from His Majesty's Courts and Tribunals Service at the end of November, with a "list of demands" made by Baqa, 60.

According to Mr Hayes, who vehemently denies the accusations, Baqa wants the compensation for the "racist sign", "xenophobia" and "inciting racial violence against a specific race".

The 52-year-old, of Amersham, told this publication: "Its ludicrous. I don't think he has a leg to stand on. It's been called The Saracen's Head for 500 years. Why, overnight, has Khalid Baqa become offended by it? I don't think one man can change the historic name of a pub that's been called that for 500 years because he doesn't like it. It's ridiculous."

According to The Sun newspaper, Baqa intends to launch similar legal actions against the dozens of other pubs named The Saracen's Head across the UK if successful with his current claim - although he has since told The Independent he has no plans to do so.

'worry and fear'

He told tabloid: "I've always been offended by pub names like these, but I've only recently discovered how I can challenge them online."

Baqa has reportedly filed a "claim of money" form, which is an application to county court for an amount of money someone says they are owed.

His submission reads: "While walking through the area I was shocked and deeply offended by what I saw. I saw pub signage depicting a brown-skinned bearded Arab/Turk male with a turban and captioned 'The Saracen's Head'.

"This instilled worry

The Saracen's Head pub in Amersham, Bucks

and fear in me since it was clearly xenophobic, racist and inciting violence to certain people. I immediately complained to the pub and requested the signage be removed."

The Sun reported he alleged he has contacted the pub four times as well as visited in person - however, Mr Hayes told The Independent his pub has no record of this.

Baqa was jailed for two years in 2013 after admitting having 300 computer discs of terrorist material in his car and home. He was again jailed five years later, for spreading jihadi CDs and leaflets.

In a written statement to The Independent,

Baqa said he first became aware of the pub sign when planning a walking trip in the Chiltern Hills. He said if he won his claim, the money would be donated to orphans in Gaza or Syria.

Clean sweep for BBC as Gavin and Stacey finale wins Christmas

GAVIN and Stacey fans enjoyed a crackin' Christmas special on Wednesday as viewers finally found out what's been occurin' since they last saw the show five years ago.

The 90-minute last-ever episode of the smash hit BBC sitcom was the nation's most watched show on December 25th, keeping 12.3m viewers guessing with a plot twist that had Smithy preparing to tie the knot with a stuck-up girlfriend called Sonia – rather than Nessa, who had proposed to him in a cliffhanger ending to the 2019 show.

But it all ended on a high with a laughter-filled wedding reception after Smithy, played by James

Show writers James and Ruth were determined to give fans the finale they wanted as the series about the romance between Essex boy Gavin and Welsh girl Stacey bowed out after 17 years. Ruth, 58, said: "I hope we did you proud." James, 46, added: "I just wanted it to feel satisfying."

Trailing the show in second place in the nation's living rooms was Wallace & Gromit: Vengeance Most Fowl, with 9.38m tuning in.

Speaking at a cast and crew screening for the finale before Wednesday night's first TV airing, Corden paid tribute to actress Laura Aikman, who played Sonia – a part kept so secret she did not even tell her parents she was in the show until this week.

Joanna Page, 47, who plays Stacey, was thrilled to be back alongside Mathew Horne, 46, as Gavin.

She said: "We've been playing husband and wife now for so long that it just felt natural. And it was fun, and it was lovely."

Larry Lamb, 77, who plays Gavin's dad Mick, called the final episode "a masterpiece". And an emotional Alison Steadman, who plays Gavin's mum Pam, said she got "completely choked" watching it.

Ruth revealed the wedding reception was the final scene filmed so that the cast could have one "lovely" last day together.

James added: "Tears all around. It was probably the most emotional film set I've ever been on and it was kind of wonderful."

The show was first aired from 2007 to 2010. It returned for the 2019 Christmas special and 17.1 million people had watched it by the New Year, making it the biggest scripted programme of the decade.

This year's viewing figures were a success for the BBC – it was the first time that all 10 most watched Christmas Day shows were screened on BBC One.

Despite well-loved Coronation Street character Gail Platt bidding farewell after 50 years, the ITV soap failed to make the top 10, attracting 2.41 million viewers in the overnight ratings.

BBC soap EastEnders split its Christmas Day into two episodes, recording more than 8 million viewers and reaching fifth and eighth in the ratings list.

Perennial favourite Call the Midwife came in fourth place.

The Gavin and Stacey finale can be seen using the BBC's iPlayer service.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF DOROTHY L. GREEN
Case No. 24STPB07438

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of DOROTHY L. GREEN

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Matthew E. Green in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Matthew Green be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's lost will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. Copies of the lost will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on March 14, 2025 at 9:30 AM in Dept. No. 5 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate

Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Netflix's Black Doves really soars at Christmas

THE festive season is the perfect time to binge on some quality TV, and you couldn't do better this week than feasting on "Black Doves," the latest addition to Netflix's spy thriller repertoire.

The British show debuted earlier this month, captivating audiences with its blend of espionage, action, humour and complex character dynamics. Created by Joe Barton, the six-episode series features Keira Knightley as Helen Webb, a woman leading a double life as the wife of the UK's Secretary of Defense and a covert operative for a mercenary spy organization. Alongside her is Ben Whishaw's character, Sam Young, a seasoned assassin and Helen's close confidant.

Set against the backdrop of a festively adorned London, the narrative unfolds with the assassination of Helen's lover, Jason Davies (Andrew Koji), propelling her into a white-knuckle quest for the truth - and vengeance - while playing the dutiful wife and mother at home. Helen's handler, Mrs. Reed (Sarah Lancashire), enlists Sam's expertise to navigate the ensuing chaos, leading to a series of high-stakes confrontations and moral dilemmas.

As Helen Webb, Knightley makes a very decent fist of seamlessly transitions between the roles of a devoted mother, a politician's wife, and a lethal operative. Whishaw's Sam Young, a wispy fellow who can't weight more than 160lbs soaking wet, is certainly ambitious counter intuitive casting, but he manages to pull off a blend of vulnerability and complexity, making their on-screen partnership both believable and engaging.

Critics have noted the chemistry between Knightley and Whishaw as a standout element. The Guardian describes "Black Doves" as a "gleefully pulpy Christmas gift", highlighting the show's ability to balance intense action with moments of levity.

There's a rich blend of talent in the supporting cast, too, Sarah Lancashire's depiction of Mrs. Reed, the enigmatic handler, exudes authority and mystery, while Andrew Buchan's role as Wallace Webb, Helen's unsuspecting husband, adds an additional layer of tension. The ensemble cast contributes to a story that is as much about personal relationships as it is about espionage.

Visually, "Black Doves" is a treat, showcasing our great capital during the festive season in all its glory, by turns posh and grimy, peaceful and crime-ridden, safe and terrifying.

Our only criticism is that the show's narrative gets somewhat bogged down by Sam's colorful private life, and the supporting characters often wander into caricature, but the brio of the writing and breakneck pace more than make up for it.

"Black Doves" has already been renewed for a second season, indicating Netflix's confidence in the show's potential. As the narrative progresses, there is ample opportunity to further explore the complexities of its characters and the intricate web of espionage they navigate.

In conclusion, "Black Doves" offers a refreshing take on the spy thriller genre. Knightley and Whishaw make for an unexpected but delightfully odd couple with plenty of chemistry, while Whishaw's Sam manages to balance his hectic professional life of shooting people and trying to reconcile with an old lover along the way. He also enjoys alcohol and the odd narcotic, insisting it doesn't dull his edge.

With a propulsive narrative that balances action with emotional depth, Black Doves stands as one of Netflix's more compelling releases of 2024. But this show is far from the equal of that recent British TV spy drama mini-classic, Slow Horses. Not matter how good we've been, we're only going to get one of those this year...

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF NANCY WALDROOP HALL Case No. 23STPB13628

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of NANCY WALDROOP HALL aka Nancy W. Hall

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by David Shawn Waldroop in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that David Shawn Waldroop be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The WILL and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on January 10, 2025 at 8:30am in Dept. 29 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Payal Henssens be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. ## Why you need dental insurance in retirement.

Medicare doesn't pay for dental care.<sup>1</sup>
As good as Medicare is, it was never meant to cover everything. If you want protection, you need to purchase individual insurance.

Early detection can prevent small problems from becoming expensive ones.
The best way to avoid large dental bills is preventive care. Experts recommend checkups twice a year.

Previous dental work can wear out.
Your odds of having a dental problem only go up as you age.<sup>2</sup>

Treatment is expensive — especially the services people over 50 often need.
Unexpected bills, like $190 for a filling, or $1,213 for a crown<sup>3</sup> can be a real burden, especially if you're on a fixed income.

When you're comparing plans ...

- ▶ Look for coverage that helps pay for major services.
- ▶ Look for coverage with no deductibles.
- ▶ Shop for coverage with no annual maximum on cash benefits.

Simply put – without dental insurance, there may be an important gap in your healthcare coverage.

Ange's shower spurs vigorous Forest growth

Manager Nuno Espirito Santo called for Nottingham Forest to be realistic but says they must enjoy the moment after Anthony Elanga fired them to third in the Premier League.

The in-form winger struck for a third straight game as Forest beat Tottenham on Boxing Day to clinch a fourth successive win in the top flight for the first time since 1995.

It also earned boss Nuno a first win over Tottenham - who had ex-Forest defender Djed Spence sent off in injury time - since being sacked by them three years ago.

Nuno lasted just four months in north London and, when he was dismissed in November 2021, his stock in England had fallen following a stale end to his four years at Wolves.

However, with this victory, Forest have more points than during last season's successful survival fight in half the games to underline the rapid progress made under Nuno.

"Significant for us is what we felt at the City Ground, it's beautiful for us to go out in the city and enjoy this moment," said the head coach, when asked about their position in the table.

"The belief is here but the belief doesn't hide the reality. The reality says we haven't achieved nothing yet and we have two days to recover and rest and compete against Everton. This is the reality.

"We believe we can compete as long as everybody understands every player in the squad is huge for us. We believe we can compete well.

"The fans should enjoy. Let's enjoy this together."

Nuno has put the club in a strong position going into January's transfer window, yet Forest are wary of upsetting the dynamic of a squad which has taken them so far this season, and keeping the team together may be more of a concern.

Elanga's form means he will undoubtedly attract attention again with Newcastle long-term admirers, and the winger's current goalscoring run has ended a 10-month drought.

As for Spurs, they continue to drift after a sixth defeat in 10 Premier League games and are 11 points behind Forest and their former manager.

Boss Ange Postecoglou said: "It was a disappointing goal we conceded but aside from that the boys worked hard and we tried to generate as many opportunities as we could considering the context of the game and how Forest play. We just couldn't get over the line."

Brief chants of 'we want Levy out' echoed from the away end, especially after Elanga's 28th-minute winner - a cool low finish following a quick break.

Former Forest favourite Brennan Johnson tested Matz Sels three times but despite dominating the ball - having almost 70% possession - Tottenham missed a ruthless edge and questions about their direction on and off the pitch will continue to grow.

tain Bruno Fernandes was sent off for the third time this season two minutes into the second half, having already been sent off against Tottenham and Porto earlier in the campaign.

The hosts capitalised on their numerical advantage 11 minutes later when Matheus Cunha became the second player in three games to score directly from a corner against United.

Just as Son Heung-min did for Tottenham a week ago, Cunha found the net with a corner that sailed over Andre Onana's outstretched arm in a crowded six-yard box.

The points were sealed in the eighth minute of added time when,

HOT STREAK: Anthony Elanga scored again for Forest

At full time, Forest fans sung songs of winning the league and gave Nuno a hero's reception as he walked off.

Nuno, of course, played it down but it is hard to see them faltering. They have sustained their form for half a season now - beating Liverpool, Tottenham and Manchester United while also taking points at Chelsea and Brighton.

In two matches since replacing Gary O'Neil at Wolves, Pereira has guided his new club to two victories. Those six points are one fewer than Amorim has managed in his seven league games as head coach following the dismissal of Erik ten Hag and Ruud van Nistelrooy's short spell as interim.

Amorim's five defeats in his first 10 matches in all competitions is the worst performance by any new United manager since Walter Crickmer in 1932.

His team's frustration was evident as captain Bruno Fernandes was sent off for the third time this season two minutes into the second half, having already been sent off against Tottenham and Porto earlier in the campaign.

The hosts capitalised on their numerical advantage 11 minutes later when Matheus Cunha became the second player in three games to score directly from a corner against United.

The points were sealed in the eighth minute of added time when, as United chased an equaliser, Wolves broke and Cunha squared the ball for Hwang Heechan to make it 2-0.

In recent weeks, Amorim has tried and failed to make his side more secure but Arsenal, Nottingham Forest and Bournemouth have also capitalised from United's frailty at defending balls pumped into their box during a run of five defeats in seven games in all competitions.

Next up for United is a home tie with Newcastle on Monday followed by a meeting with old rivals Liverpool. Two years ago, United lost 7-0 there. They have already been beaten 3-0 at home by Arne Slot's side this season.

Reds Boxing clever!

Liverpool tighten their grip at the top as they come from behind to defeat Foxes, 3-1

Leaders Liverpool strengthened their grip at the top of the Premier League on Boxing Day after coming from behind to defeat struggling Leicester City and move seven points clear.

Leicester had lost five of their previous seven matches but stunned Anfield by taking the lead through Jordan Ayew's sharp sixth-minute finish.

Liverpool endured a frustrating half as Andy Robertson and Mohamed Salah hit the post and crossbar respectively before Cody Gakpo levelled right on the stroke of half-time with a lovely curling finish from the edge of the box.

That lifted the hosts who took the lead for the first time just four minutes into the second half, Curtis Jones marking his 100th Premier League appearance by turning in Alexis Mac Allister's cross.

Leicester, who dropped into the relegation zone after Wolves' win over Manchester United earlier in the day, missed a golden opportunity to equalise when Patson Daka mis-kicked in front of goal before Mohamed Salah made sure of the points when he swept home the third goal - his 19th of the season.

While Leicester are just one point from safety after a third straight defeat, Liverpool are in a commanding position at the top, with a game in hand on the two teams immediately below them.

With Liverpool next in action on Sunday at West Ham, they have an opportunity to open up a 10-point lead on nearest rivals Chelsea, who are not in action until the following day at Ipswich.

Liverpool were far from their fluent best in what was their final game of the calendar year at Anfield but they got the job done on the day nearest rivals Chelsea slipped up at home to Fulham.

They started 2024 with a 4-2 win over Newcastle at Anfield to leave Jurgen Klopp's side three points clear at the top.

Their 19th and final Premier League home game of 2024 also ended in victory that leaves Arne Slot's side in a strong position to win the league for the first time in five years.

There was a carnival atmosphere in the closing stages as fans twirled scarves and chanted 'Liverpool, Liverpool, top of the league' after Salah's 16th Premier League goal of the season.

CHRISTMAS SALUTE: Gakpo equalized for Liverpool on Thursday

But Slot and his players know there is an awful long way to go.

Yet this is turning into an extraordinary first season in charge for Slot.

Liverpool, who are top of the Champions League table and have a two-legged semi-final against Tottenham to look forward to in the League Cup, are unbeaten in 22 matches in all competitions and continue to give themselves every chance of winning their 20th title.

Leicester find themselves in the relegation zone for the first time this season after a third straight defeat, with Manchester City up next.

Yet Ruud van Nistelrooy's side gave a better account of themselves than in the previous match against Wolves as they frustrated the leaders for large parts of the first half.

And they might have left Anfield with a hard-earned point had Daka made a better connection in front of goal.

Van Nistelrooy's first five games in charge have yielded just four points but it will be matches against the likes of Crystal Palace on 15 January where their Premier League fate will be decided.

AMORIM: no new manager bounce to be found

Hungry Wolves add to United struggles

Vitor Pereira came out on top of the new Portuguese boss derby on Boxing Day as Wolves heaped further agony on his struggling fellow countryman Ruben Amorim.

Pereira was anxious to play down comparisons between his immediate impact at Wolves and the tortuous bedding-in process Amorim is enduring at Manchester United.

"It was not Vitor v Ruben, it was Wolves v Manchester United," said Pereira after his side's 2-0 win at Molineux. "Ruben is a top coach in my opinion and with time he will show his level."

However, it is hard to ignore some basic math-
